I should like you to be free of anxieties.

1 Cor 7:32

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"I should like you to be free of anxieties."

In St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians this weekend, he expresses an aspiration we might all embrace. Wouldn't it be great to be free of all anxieties? Think of the issues or situations you often find yourself dwelling on. We all have stuff that weighs heavy on us, that can preoccupy our thoughts. A teenager is anxious about feeling accepted. A parent worries about one of their children who seems increasingly withdrawn and quiet. We might be worrying about the well-being of an elderly parent who is having increasing difficulty living independently. We can be anxious about financial challenges or a nagging cough or soreness that is not getting better.

I often think of the words of the great philosopher, Bob Marley of reggae music fame who sang, "don't worry about tomorrow, every little thing is going to be alright". Oh, if that was always true! Unfortunately, there are times when "every little thing" does not work out. We must face and deal with consequences and implications of choices we make or circumstances we find ourselves.

The more I have reflected on this passage over the years I have come to see that the fruits of a deep faith in the Lord results in a way of being in the world. We develop a spiritual strength to encounter the anxieties of the world with a deep underlying confidence in the unconditional love that the Lord has for us. A few years ago, I did my annual retreat in Assisi and stayed with the Franciscans in their friary which adjoins the Basilica where St. Francis is buried. Over the days I was with them I was struck by an underlying joy and peace that was evident in their living together. This is not to say there were not challenges and frustrations that come with living in community but beneath some of the ordinary stresses of life was a mutual respect and a sense we are all in this together.

Life is fraught with the tensions and stresses of dealing with one another and life itself. The Lord taught as the Gospel says, with authority. He unabashedly proclaimed the commandment, "Love one another as I have loved you."

As I have been reflecting on the recent Vatican document, "Fiducia supplicans", I have been disappointed by some who simply cannot accept the teaching's application to people who are divorced and remarried or living together in same sex relationships. They cannot seem to grasp there are many kinds of blessings, some liturgical and some pastoral. The Pope is reflecting on the reality of being blessed, we all need the sense that we are blessed and loved by the Lord. Some cannot accept that they are blessed because of their circumstances, or they make a judgement about others who do not fit into their categories of what is right and what is wrong. Listening to some of the Pope's critics, it sounds like none of us can be blessed because of some underlying short coming. Talk about creating stress! We need to be immersed in a sense of blessedness, that is when we can move closer to a life, "free of anxieties."

This week we have many activities related to Catholic Schools Week. We are blessed by our parish school and have benefitted from the tremendous sacrifices our parents and the parish at large make to provide the resources that help us to have such an outstanding school. I am grateful to Dr. Amy Mills, the faculty and staff that work with such dedication to accomplish the mission of our school. These are challenging times for Catholic education, and we can be proud of the vital and effective school we have here. There are activities that the whole parish is invited to. Stop over at the open house or some of the events this week to get a sense of what we are about.

Lots of wonderful events lately, the Men's Club Poker Party was terrific. Check out the display case in the South Vestibule to see the beautiful work of our Knit for Life Ministry. One of the great events is the Sneaker Ball for Moms and Boys 4-12. This Sunday is the Spaghetti and Service event for Youth Ministry beginning with the 5:00pm Mass.

Thank you for your tremendous support of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Last year we exceeded our goal by about $125,000! You are so generous in supporting the mission of the Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago and here at OLPH. The new campaign's theme is "Together at the Table." You will be receiving information about the campaign in the mail and there will be material on the website and in the Bulletin. Our goal for next year is $200,505.

I have always wanted to invest the money we receive over our goal for parish projects that benefit us all and we do not need to go into our savings to accomplish. We were able to replace the carpeting and defray some of the expenses related to our new Bell system and clock seek, share, rejoice - coming up...

tower. We have also benefitted from several bequests for the bell tower as well. It is getting closer and closer to installation. I would love to have them by Easter. Let us keep our fingers crossed.

There are two projects I would like to direct resources that might come if we can exceed our goal. These projects have surfaced out of conversations with many people. We will soon begin the renovation of McDonnell Hall. Inflation has made this project much more expensive. We want to renovate the kitchen in McDonnell Hall and resources from the appeal could offset some of those upgrades to equipment and cabinets for the kitchen. I would also hope to install an elevator in the Playdium. The ramp that is original to the building is all but impossible for people with physical disabilities. There are so many events there which people with physical disabilities have great difficulty getting to. Elevators are frightfully expensive, but we could make a dent into the expense if we can use resources from the Annual Catholic Appeal.

May your week be blessed,

Fr. Jerry Boland

OLPH Men's Club

At the Men's Club Kick-Off Party this May, we will honor the Mario Zanoni Award winner and the Robert Hicks award winner.

The Zanoni award is designed to honor those in the OLPH parish community who have contributed their time, energy, and talent over many years, with heavy consideration to those that have made significant contributions to the school and children in our parish community. Longevity has been a major consideration, along with leadership and inspiration.

The Hicks award is designed to honor those in the OLPH parish community who have contributed time, energy, and talent to any of the parish ministries. Participation across multiple ministries, longevity along with leadership and inspiration are all major considerations.

If you would like to nominate someone to receive this year's Zanoni Award or Hicks award, please do so by emailing olphmensclub@gmail.com or deliver a letter of consideration to:

Sharing Ministry

Winter Food Drive

Please continue to hear the cry of the poor with donations to our ongoing food drive. Donate through baskets in church, the kids at Sunday Offertory, the Sharing Resource Center (SRC) bins out on Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday mornings or through Give Central using the QR code or texting to 570-354-6574, Sharing.

Coats and Outerwear Needed

Please continue to donate coats, hats, gloves, scarves and warm socks for the needy. The need is ever so great.

Closet Cleaning for Sharing

Please consider donating clothing items you no longer need to the SRC. We welcome in-season, gently used items which will be passed on to those in need. We also welcome gently used housewares.

Watch for the bins outside our SRC on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 7:00am – noon and on Sundays from 8:00am – noon. Volunteers are additionally there on Sundays.

Feed the Hungry at Catholic Charities/Des Plaines

In 2023, OLPH provided 11 dinners at Catholic Charities in Des Plaines, serving 80 - 100 with each visit. We are grateful to those who helped fund these meals and also to those who went and helped serve. Please consider supporting this effort next year. We need to collect funds ahead of time so that we know how many Thursday evening suppers we can commit to providing. Each dinner costs $600.

Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net, if you would like to donate or help with serving.

Our next visit will be on Thursday, March 7th.

Meal Ministry

The Sharing Meal Ministry provides meals to parishioners in temporary need of meal support due to illness or other matters, with OLPH cooks preparing and delivering a warm meal. We also make casseroles, freeze them and have them available in the Sharing Room to hand out in emergency situations.

These casseroles also go to Maryville's Crisis Nursery, which provides support to young moms and their small children. Please consider lending support to this effort. Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net

OLPH Book Club

7:00pm, Tuesday, Feb. 6
Meeting Room 2nd Floor Parish Center

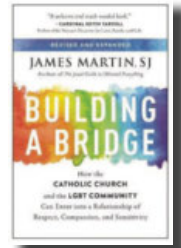

This is a make-up from the Jan. 16 meeting that was cancelled due to inclement weather.

Our book is: "Building a Bridge. How the Catholic Church and the LGBT community can enter into a relationship of Respect, Compassion, and Sensitivity" by author Rev James Martin SJ.

Please contact Fr. Jim Barrett if you will be joining us.

Fr. Jim Barrett jbarrett@olphglenview.org or 224-521-9348

The book is making a return as a result of the Synod that took place in the Vatican this past October. Come for a discussion of this most important topic.

Legacy Planning

Please Consider a QCD Gift for Our Parish

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others.

Making a gift from your IRA can benefit you and our parish. An IRA charitable rollover, also known as a qualified charitable distribution (QCD), allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free.

There are three main benefits of giving with a QCD:

- (1) If you are 73 years old or older, the amount you transfer can satisfy all or part of your required minimum distribution.
- (2) The amount transferred directly to charity does not generate taxable income, which may reduce your annual income level. This may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.
- (3) Your gift will be immediately used, allowing you to see the impact of your gift now.

If you would like more information on making a QCD gift, please contact Mary Lynne Januszewski, Director of Finance & Operations at OLPH, call 847-729-2934 or email mjanuszewski@olphglenview.org.

seek, share, rejoice - 2024 annual catholic appeal...

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

We have faced many challenges in our world—from diseases and social upheavals to climate disasters and economic uncertainty. Still, we hope, because the Lord has walked with us, and we have walked with each other. The Lord's table has sustained us. This year's Annual Catholic Appeal echoes these experiences.

This year, our theme is Together at the table. It evokes the Last Supper and the story of the two disciples on the way to Emmaus who are together at the table with the Lord. In these images, we know ourselves as gathered together, as fed by the Eucharist, and as missionary disciples sent into the world.

Closely connected to this is Pope Francis' call for a synodal Church, that is, a Church "on the road together." When we are together at the table, the altar of the Lord's sacrifice, we find the true means that sustain us on our shared journey homeward.

The Appeal is an occasion and a means for bridging together our efforts to support parish life, Catholic schools, programs of religious education, and various archdiocesan initiatives and outreach that include, for example, respect for life and violence reduction. The Appeal can draw us together in a unified sense of purpose.

Please consider joining me to support this year's Appeal so that together we can be instruments of God's grace. Your generous contribution - I can assure you - will be a source of blessing for many people and for you yourself and your loved ones.

Thank you.

Yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Please Make Your Gift to the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal

Together at the table

Many families in our parish will be receiving the Annual Catholic Appeal mailing from Cardinal Cupich. On behalf of those served by the ministries, parishes and schools who receive funding from the Appeal, we thank you for your gifts. Please return your response as soon as possible. The Annual Catholic Appeal offers a wonderful opportunity to answer the call "Together at the table."

We encourage giving at all levels to support this initiative. In addition to providing for ministries and services throughout the archdiocese, the Annual Catholic Appeal funds services in our own parish. For example, Appeal funds support administrative services to our parish in the form of professional HR and benefits administration, maintenance of our payroll and accounting technology and reporting environment, legal, fundraising and tax advice.

In particular, last Fall, the Stewardship Office was instrumental in helping OLPH plan and execute an effective Intentional Offertory Initiative Program, which has already proven itself a success. If we exceed our goal, we hope to fund capital projects such as an upgraded kitchen in McDonnell Hall and an elevator in the Playdium.

When we financially support the work of our parish, our archdiocese and the Catholic Church throughout the world, we experience a feeling of deep gratitude, especially when we contemplate God's many gifts to us personally. By sharing our wealth through gifts to the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal, we demonstrate our commitment to the Church and each other.

Roundball 2024!!

Friends of The Rev. Myles McDonnell Roundball Classic:

March 2nd begins the 48th Annual Roundball Classic in the Playdium. This Men's Club sponsored event has truly become the highlight of the year for many of our school children. Close to 100% of the 6th, 7th & 8th graders participate in the event every year with nearly 200 OLPH (high school) alums returning to their alma mater to coach. Hundreds of fans come to enjoy the action every day which ends with a standing room only crowd on Friday, March 15th for the championship (boys & girls) games and awards ceremony.

For those of you with children who have participated in Roundball before, you know what a unique experience it is. Otherwise, plan on stopping by this year and discover for yourself why the students (...and their parents) get so excited over OLPH's own "March Madness." You'll be impressed, we assure you.

To help cover the cost of this 8-day tournament, the Men's Club offers several sponsorship opportunities. The Founders Level ($1,000) Sponsorship Level will prominently display your name on a Special Banner in front of all of the fans plus an Individual Banner acknowledging you or your business. The Team Sponsorship ($500.00) level includes a large, individual banner acknowledging your family or business that hangs in the Playdium for the entire tournament. All sponsors are listed in the more than 1,500 copies of the full color, multi-page, professionally printed, Roundball program, which is distributed throughout the tournament. We are excited to announce that the concession stand will be open this year along with a livestream of each game.

Attached is the 2024 Roundball Classic Sponsor Sign-up sheet. If you have already received this form, sorry for the duplication. If not, please consider becoming a sponsor of this exceptional event at any level you feel comfortable. Your donation helps the Men's Club support the OLPH School, Religious Education, and Youth Group as well as many other ministries at OLPH. Also, if you have any interest in helping at the scorer's table during the tourney, please be on the lookout for an email from the Men's Club containing the online sign-up sheet. We are also in need of announcers, and if interested, please follow-up with one of us below.

Thank you, as always, for your continuous support of the OLPH Men's Club and the many ministries we support. More information is available on our web site.

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Christ calls his disciples to love God and to love our neighbor. We Catholics can show love for our neighbors by performing corporal works of mercy, which include feeding those who are hungry, giving shelter to those who are homeless, and visiting prisoners.

For more than 50 years, the US bishops' program to aid the Church in Latin America has helped the Church carry out its pastoral mission of mercy among those with both spiritual and material needs across Latin America and the Caribbean.

In Mexico's Diocese of Iztapalapa, much of the population lives below the poverty line and has trouble meeting basic needs. The crime rate is high. Offenders who complete their jail sentences face rejection and isolation and risk reoffending upon their return to society. With grant support from the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the diocese created the Cristo Redentor evangelization center, where persons released from prison can receive job search help, group therapy, spiritual direction, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. And they can participate in recreational activities such as theater, games, and music, all at no charge.

In Venezuela, economic hardship and political turmoil have caused food shortages and a migration wave that has left behind vulnerable people, such as seniors. Without adequate resources, the elderly are particularly vulnerable to health problems, malnutrition, and homelessness. The Diocese of Carúpano, with help from the Collection for the Church in Latin America, established a social dining room at its Casa de la Caridad Santa Ana, where it provides nutritious lunches and spiritual and medical care to 100 people every day. The diocese also delivers bags of food and supplies to an additional 80 people every week.

These works of mercy are made possible through the generosity of Catholics in the United States to the Collection for the Church in Latin America.

For more information about the Collection for the Church in Latin America, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.
