LOVE

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,
“No Greater Love”

Our Lenten journey has begun. Lent always begins in the heart of winter. The world of nature is dormant, even on mild days there is a winter tinge in the breeze. We are encumbered by coats, hats, and scarves. There is an introspective energy to the world that anticipates the coming Spring and the great Feast of Easter.

As you can see in the Bulletin, we have many opportunities to enhance your Lenten journey. Beginnings are important and although the 40 days of Lent seem quite long, the days will pass all too quickly, we must get into the groove! “Now is the time” the prophet Joel declared on Ash Wednesday. Let us seize upon the Lenten disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Make sure you get a copy of one of the Lenten meditation books available at the exits. Try to “do” something daily that keeps alive the Lenten journey in your heart.

Let us pray for one another. I am always aware of the collective power of transformation and reconciliation that unfolds as the Lenten days pass. Lent is challenging work if we really are getting into it. Deprivation, holding ourselves accountable, changing patterns of behaviors, seeking reconciliation is not easy.

We can find great encouragement in our Lenten theme, “No greater love.” The focus of Lent draws us over and over again to the love of Jesus Christ. The gospel this weekend recounts the beginning of Jesus’ ministry. The Spirit drove him into the desert for 40 days. We are invited into a 40-day journey into a spiritual desert where we are invited to encounter head on the forces of evil and sin in our lives. We must leave all that behind if we are to move forward in our desire to be a more authentic witness of Jesus Christ and his kingdom.

We are not alone in this quest for purification and a new life. There is “no greater love” than that of the Lord himself. In the desert he would encounter the love of his Father that would help him conquer the temptations of the devil and the grip of self-centeredness.

There is nothing more healing and reassuring than the experience of love freely given with no strings attached. With an awareness of Christ’s unconditional love for us, there is no healing beyond our grasp, no personal struggle that cannot be conquered, we can do it!

May this be the most blessed of Lenten journeys!

We have had a lot going on recently. Last weekend’s Blood Drive was a great success. Special thanks to Guilds 2 and 10 and Mary Kay Haben’s cookies! Thank you for your patience and consideration of this year’s Annual Catholic Appeal, “Together at the Table.” Congratulations to Bob and Connie Hicks who took home the coveted recognition of their 70 years of marriage at our Valentine’s Day Mass last weekend.

One of the great traditions of January is the OLPH Junior Basketball Camp. Over three hundred children from kindergarten to first grade and their parents participated. Special thanks to Coach Marty Kearney and his team of assistant coaches that provided a fantastic opportunity for the kids of the parish. It was amazing to see how much the kids developed their skills over the 4 weeks. I love seeing the kids and their parents having such a fun time.

We had a recent book club discussion on Fr. Jim Martin’s book, “Building a Bridge,” hosted by Fr. Jim Barrett. The book is a reflection on lessons learned by Fr. Martin’s outreach to the LGBTQ community. A topic like this generates a lot of issues and perspectives on this topic. I appreciate the many people who participated, the thoughtful conversation and the insights that emerged when people of good will come together. It was evident that we must continue to come together for further reflection. We are just at the beginning of this conversation as a church. This conversation impacts so many in our community. I was so moved by the stories of families coming together to love and cherish their son, daughter, brother, sister, or grandchild who is coming to terms with their LGBTQ identity.

I will be sharing with you in more details my reflections on the recent Vatican instruction, Fiducia Supplicans that encourages God’s pastoral blessings on all of us, especially those who have not felt cared for by the church. The document mentions the spiritual needs and blessedness of those who are LGBTQ or couples in irregular nonsacramental unions.

Next Sunday we will have several Ukrainian Sisters of the Order of St. Basil the Great who are serving in some of the most violently afflicted areas of the war in Ukraine speaking at our masses. This weekend marks the second anniversary of the Russian invasion. Catholic Extension has recognized their heroic ministry and witness to Christ’s unconditional love. It would be hard to witness a better expression of our Lenten theme, “No Greater Love.”

May your Lenten journey be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

NO GREATER LOVE

We all want to be loved. Love is a basic human need that allows us to fully thrive in our world, and it is only through experiencing love ourselves that we learn how to love others. The essence of love is God, and we witness in the Gospels how Jesus not only preaches about love but models that love for us in how He lives. When Jesus commands us to “Love one another as I have loved you” (John 15:12), have you ever stopped to consider what it means to love as Jesus loved? Only by understanding the depth to which Jesus loves us can we truly understand how Jesus wants us to love one another.

For centuries, humans have celebrated love through music, art, literature, and drama, and we relish the telling of a great love story. Of all the stories of love that have been told and retold throughout the ages, however, there is none greater than the love story we encounter in scripture about the ministry of Jesus.

When Jesus left his home in Heaven, he became fully human and accepted the will of His Father to be the Savior of the World. For three years, he preached about the Kingdom of God and healed the bodies and the souls of all those who approached him. In the Garden of Gethsemane, Jesus was plagued with doubts and fears about the suffering he knew was imminent, but his love for us impelled him to offer himself up to the Roman soldiers. Christ endured the agony of a crown made of thorns and the cruelty of being flogged, to then be taken bloody and bruised to stand humbly before those who would then ridicule and mock him. The cross, which held the weight of our sins, was placed upon his shoulders to be carried to the place of his execution.

Jesus fell three times, but such was his love for us that he rose each time and continued on. When his body was stretched out on the cross, and he looked down on those who stood below, his thoughts were for the care of his mother. He did not curse those who crucified him but, instead, cried out, “Father forgive them, for they know not what they do” (Luke 23:34). Jesus tells us “Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends” (John 15:13).

Most of us will never be asked for so great a sacrifice, but what Jesus does ask is that we care for one another, that we tend to the needs of the poor and the vulnerable, and that we forgive one another, even our enemies. Imagine what a different world we would live in if we practiced this kind of love—the love of Christ!

In 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, St. Paul tells us that “Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.” And, in verse 8, Paul assures us that “Love never ends.”

Before his ascension into Heaven, Jesus comforted his apostles by letting them know, “I am with you always, to the close of the age.” When we face the darkest moments of our lives; when we feel afraid; when we are convinced that no one cares; all we need do is raise our eyes to Heaven, open our hearts to his Word, and reach out our arms to receive him. He is always there, walking by our side and lifting us up. There is “No Greater Love.”

seek, share, rejoice - annual appeal, sharing, and more...

Thank you for your support of the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal!

At this time, we would like to express our thanks to all who have made a pledge or an outright gift to the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal. The Church of Chicago needs your steadfast support. Your participation in this annual appeal is essential to maintaining the financial well-being of our larger Church, as well as our own parish of OLPH. Thank you for stepping up!

For those who are in the process of considering an outright donation or a pledge to this annual archdiocesan campaign, there is still time to join us in supporting our parish's vital work and the important work of the Archdiocese of Chicago. This year's theme of "Together at the table" calls us to reflect on how we can embrace the life that the Lord wants us to live. Each pledge makes a difference! All parish communities participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our parishes, schools and ministries to deliver needed services.

To make your gift, complete the mail-in giving envelope found at the entrances of the Church or make a gift on-line at annualcatholicappeal.com. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response!

Sharing Ministry

Sharing Meeting This Tuesday, Feb. 20

All are welcome to attend this month's Sharing Ministry meeting on Tuesday, 7:00pm in Hickey Hall. We invite new members and new ideas.

Ongoing Food Drive

Donate through baskets in church, the kids at Sunday Offertory, the Sharing Resource Center (SRC) bins out on Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday morning.

Coats and Outerwear Needed

Please continue to donate coats, hats, gloves, scarves and warm socks for the needy. The need is ever so great.

Feed the Hungry at Catholic Charities/Des Plaines

In 2023, OLPH provided 11 dinners at Catholic Charities in Des Plaines, serving 80 - 100 with each visit. We are grateful to those who helped fund these meals and also to those who went and helped serve. We need to collect funds ahead of time so that we know how many Thursday evening suppers we can commit to providing. Each dinner costs $600. Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net, if you would like to donate or help with serving.

Our next visit will be on Thursday, March 7.

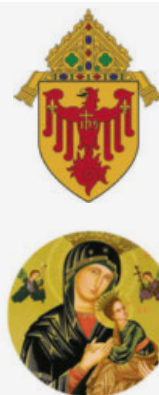

Legacy Planning

Demonstrate Love for Thy Neighbor with a QCD Gift

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day, we have the opportunity to be the face of Jesus to others.

You can help to support our faith community by making a qualified charitable distribution ("QCD") gift from your individual retirement account to the Annual Catholic Appeal. A QCD gift (a.k.a. IRA charitable rollover) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. This way of giving does not generate taxable income, which may lower your annual income level, and the amount you transfer may count towards your required minimum distribution.

If you would like information on how to make a QCD gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal, please contact Mary Lynne Januszewski, OLPH Director of Finance and Operations, call 847-729-2934, or email mjanuszewski@olphglenview.org.

Our Lenten Mission: Mission of Our Lady of the Angels

The Mission of Our Lady of the Angels establishes a Catholic presence in the West Humboldt Park area on Chicago's West Side. This area is presently one of the poorest neighborhoods in the City of Chicago. The purpose of the Mission is twofold: to assist the materially poor and to share the treasure of our faith. Sr. Stephanie has a special request for us this year. She asked if we could donate and prepare Easter packages with necessities for the inflow of immigrants. Mission OLA serves 4,400 families/month. Many are housed and have children under the age of 2. Let's beat our 2023 record of 124 baskets & provide these children with a memorable Easter! These packages mean so much to the families that receive them. They are possible with your generous contributions!

How you can help:

Pray! During Lent pray for those who the Mission serves and all who volunteer their time at the Mission of Our Lady of the Angels.

Donate supplies for Easter packages.

Donate money to help purchase supplies for the Easter packages or fill change bag.

Donate your time! During Lent, our 7th and 8th graders and their families are invited to volunteer at the Mission OLA's Mobile Pantry. Scan the QR code for more information!

Zoom Class: The Passion and Resurrection in Art History
7:00pm Monday, Mar. 4

OLPH invites you to a scheduled Zoom presentation on The Passion + Resurrection in Art History presented by art historian Jeff Mishur of Art Excursions, Inc.

CLASS DESCRIPTION

Works of art manifest the great tradition and unique history of our Catholic faith. In this Lenten program presented live via Zoom, art historian Jeff Mishur discusses a selection of paintings on the subject of the Passion and Resurrection. Jeff's presentation includes artwork from the medieval period through the 20th century and features artists such as Leonardo, Giotto, El Greco, and Michelangelo.

Watch upcoming Bulletins and OLPHglenview.org website for Zoom link.

Music Ministry Lenten Concert

2:00pm, Sunday, March 10

All are welcome to join Russell Stern and the OLPH Festival Choir in a prayerful and joyful Lenten Concert. It will be held on Laetare (means to rejoice) Sunday, 2:00pm, March 10. Come hear many of OLPH's wonderful cantors and instrumentalists along with the choir in this inspiring free concert!

OLPH Men's Club

At the Men's Club Kick-Off Party this May, we will honor the Mario Zaroni Award winner and the Robert Hicks award winner.

The Zaroni award is designed to honor those in the OLPH parish community who have contributed their time, energy, and talent over many years, with heavy consideration to those that have made significant contributions to the school and children in our parish community. Longevity has been a major consideration, along with leadership and inspiration.

The Hicks award is designed to honor those in the OLPH parish community who have contributed time, energy, and talent to any of the parish ministries. Participation across multiple ministries, longevity along with leadership and inspiration are all major considerations.

If you would like to nominate someone to receive this year's Zaroni Award or Hicks award, please do so by emailing olphmensclub@gmail.com or deliver a letter of consideration to:

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

Confession, also known as Reconciliation or Penance, puts us face to face with the mercy and forgiveness of Christ. Each Saturday afternoon, a priest is available in church to hear confessions.

Fasting

The Church requires all those between 18 and 59 years of age to fast and abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting allows a person to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may be taken, not to equal one full meal. All Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on the Fridays of Lent.

Almsgiving

Service (or almsgiving) helps us experience faith in action. Our parish offers many opportunities to make a difference and grow in awareness of the needs of the poor. Watch our website for upcoming events.
