seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"Blessed are those who have not seen but believe."

I am still very much in the afterglow of Easter. What a celebration it was, the liturgies of Holy Week and of course Easter Sunday. Every year the commemoration of the events of Our Lord's passion, death and resurrection never fail to move me and renew my sense of what it means to be a believer.

What does it all mean? The implications and consequences of Our Lord's Resurrection still reveal new power, new meaning, new implications to those of us who believe.

My favorite Easter painting is entitled, "The Disciples Peter and John Running to the Sepulchre" by the Swiss painter Eugene Burnand. It was painted in 1898 and is on display at the Musee d'Orsay in Paris. Burnand was acclaimed for the realism he captures in his pieces.

One cannot help but be taken by the sheer look of astonishment and wonder on the faces of Peter and John as they race to the tomb of Our Lord after they heard the incredible testimony of the women who found the tomb was empty.

The Greeks made a distinction between Chronos time and Kairos time. Chronos time is a way of describing the passing of time in a chronological or sequential manner, i.e., 60 seconds to a minute, 60 minutes to an hour, 7 days to a week and so on. This way of looking at time sees it in terms of equal units in a category, No unit no more meaningful than the other.

Kairos time is about the experience of a moment which is deep in meaning, deep in its influence, profound in its impact, often life changing; the experience of surviving a heart attack, the healing of a relationship, the birth of a child, the achievement of something for which we have worked so hard.

The Easter Season is about Kairos time. We have no idea how many days, weeks, or months it took for the first disciples to wrap their heads around what it meant that Jesus had risen. Jesus did not escape from the tomb, he rose from the tomb!

The next several weeks we will hear the accounts of the Kairos moments when his first disciples came to the conviction that the Lord had risen. These experiences were of course life changing for them, in terms of Chronos time we don't know how much time passed from the discovery of the empty tomb to the realization that Jesus had Risen. What we do know is that the accounts of the four evangelists, the Acts of the Apostles, the writings of St. Paul and the testimony of the first martyrs and Fathers of the Church were one Kairos moment after another.

This brings me to the remarkable words of the Risen Christ in this weekend's gospel, "Blessed are those who have not seen but believe." He is talking about you and me! Our faith has been formed by countless generations of those "who have not seen but believe." It is from the faith of those before us that we have been blessed and now must take the responsibility to hand our faith on to the future.

One of the great challenges is the forces of indifference. Incredulity to the religious experience and contempt for experiences that point to something greater than just the present.

May the Easter season be full of Kairos moments for all of us.

I am grateful to everyone who contributed to the celebration of Holy Week and Easter. Is there a more beautiful church than ours at Easter? The music and legion of servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, deacons, and priests made the celebrations so special and, as always, a special shoutout to Sr. Paulanne who makes it all happen!

Thank you for your generous support of the Easter Collection, we really depend on it to maintain our mission as a parish community.

Thank you to so many that helped us provide so many Easter ham dinners to families in need. You have no idea what a difference it makes for a family to gather on Easter day and celebrate in a manner that they would not have been able.

Thank you to Beth Engels who organized a tremendous effort of support for the residents of New Hope Apartments of Catholic Charities. Hundreds of dollars in gift cards, Amazon wish lists and Easter baskets made such a difference.

Congratulations to Fr. Patrick Kizza on his recent induction as a Third-Degree member of the Knights of Columbus. He is joining the best council! The Fr. John Dussman Council made up of members of OLPH and St. Catherine's.

Fr. Patrick Kizza with Fr. Jerry and the Knights of Columbus at his recent induction ceremony as a third-Degree member of the KOC.

There is not a parent alive that does not stress out over the impact social media is having on our adolescents. It changes by the day. Please consider attending the session "Parenting Online: Boundaries, Relationships, and Social Media." Hosted by Youth Services and taking place this Tuesday, April 9 at the Glenview Public Library at 7:00pm. (See page 15 of this Bulletin for details.)

Blessed are you! The Lord is Risen!

The Image of Divine Mercy

What is special about Divine Mercy Sunday?

St. Faustina

In 1931, Maria Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun, reported visions and visitations from Jesus and conversations with him. He asked her to paint the vision of his merciful divinity being poured from his Sacred Heart and specifically asked for a Feast of Divine Mercy to be established on the first Sunday after Easter Sunday, so that mankind would take refuge in him

Jesus spoke these words to St. Faustina:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners.

On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. The souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. (Diary, 699)

On April 30, 2000, then-Pope John Paul II declared the second Sunday in the Easter season to be Divine Mercy Sunday. On the same day, he canonized Maria Faustina Kowalska as St. Faustina.

You can join the OLPH Devotions Ministries to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy on Fridays at 3:00pm by emailing thewayolph@gmail.com.

Feast of the Annunciation

Join us on April 8 for 8:30am Mass and Rosary to celebrate the Feast of the Annunciation of the Lord. Due to Holy Week, the Annunciation was transferred to the Monday after Easter Sunday. (Normally the Feast of the Annunciation is celebrated on March 25.) Our Lady of the Annunciation, pray for us!

Sharing Ministry

Support On-going Food Drive

Please continue to hear the cry of the poor with donations to our Food Drive. Donate through baskets in church, the kids at Sunday Offertory, the Sharing Resource Center (SRC) bins out on Tue., Thu., and Sun. mornings or through GiveCentral using the QR code or texting to 570-354-6574, Sharing.

Urgent Need for Gift Cards

There are an estimated 100 people outside the Rectory door at St. Sabina's each morning, people desperate for any support they can get. Fr. Michael Pfleger is in need of gift cards to McDonald's and Subway, which he distributes to these mostly homeless people. Please drop donations off at the OLPH Parish Center, marking your gift cards for Fr. Pfleger.

Volunteers Needed

We are in need of volunteers to work on Sunday mornings in the SRC. Shifts run from 8:00 - 10:00am and 10:00am to noon. Volunteers self-schedule and choose the shifts and dates that work best. We sort through clothing, housewares and food donations.

Contact Janis Moylan, jlpm1231@gmail.com if interested.

Drivers Wanted for Local Deliveries

We have a team of drivers picking up day old goods from Trader Joe's on weekday mornings and delivering to local food pantries. Pick ups happen between 8:15 and 9:30 each morning and total time commitment is generally less than one hour.

We are looking to grow our list of subs. Subs each make an average of one pickup per quarter. Contact Patti Lawler, pattilawler@gmail.com, if you can join this team.

Living Stations of the Cross

During Holy Week, 20 of our young OLPH parishioners, ages 5 to 17, shared time together reading, learning, talking and praying about Christ's passion, crucifixion and death on a Cross. On Good Friday, after many questions and rehearsals, they hosted our annual Living Stations of the Cross.

The Living Stations brought Christ's passion to life through His beloved children, right here in our church. It was a humbling and powerful morning for all who participated and attended.

Heartfelt gratitude to our youth, especially Thomas Jachtorowycz (right), who portrayed Jesus, and Evie Philbrick (above right), who portrayed Blessed Virgin Mary. We would also like to thank Fr. James Barrett, Margaret Pasquesi, Erin Bretts, Lisa Philbrick and Mary Sue Smith.

Thank you!

Zoe Sundstrom

Comments from parishioners at the Living Stations of the Cross:

"I just wanted to say thank you for an absolutely beautiful Stations of the Cross today. The kids were reverent and prepared! What a lovely way to begin a blessed weekend."

"They are excellent! A number of us were so impressed by the kids and the overall coordination. It really made for a sacred day."

What is the OLPH Parish Pastoral Council?

The OLPH Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) is an advisory body that supports the Church's concept of shared responsibility among laity, religious, and clergy. The PPC is made up of 15 parishioners and our pastor, Fr. Jerry Boland. Its purpose is to:

- Listen to, identify, and examine the needs, ideas, and hopes of our faith community;
- Engage with over sixty OLPH ministries to understand and affirm their work and help them address their needs and challenges;
- Create a "culture of involvement" within the parish that welcomes and embraces others and encourages the development of leaders across the parish;
- Help envision, shape, and implement the future goals of our parish and monitor our ongoing success as we strive to fulfill the Church's teachings.

The PPC meets throughout the year on the third Monday of every month according to its bylaws. Meetings follow an established agenda defined in advance based on input from Fr. Boland and PPC members. Members also organize and plan the annual Summit and Ministry Appreciation Mass and Reception. PPC members serve a three-year term beginning each July.

Fr. Paul is leaving Chicago

After five unforgettable years in Chicago, I am returning to Eastern Africa in July. I will be based in Nairobi, Kenya, to continue the work of establishing Hekima University in Molo, Kenya (the first four-year Jesuit University in East Africa). I am sad to leave Chicago and the United States, but excited for the opportunity to be on the ground, equipping young Africans with the skills that will transform their lives and bring hope for generations to come.

I am grateful that I have come to know many of you as friends in the Lord. None of this would have been possible without the kindness and generosity of the pastoral team: Fr. Jerry Boland, my countryman Fr. Patrick Kizza, Fr. Jim Barrett, Fr. Larry Basbas, Deacon Jim Revord, Deacon Christopher Weiland, and our dearest Sr. Paulanne Held. We can all agree that they are exceptional leaders and disciples.

My time in Chicago has been truly fulfilling. I spent two wonderful years at Saint Ignatius College Prep, fundraising under President John Chandler's mentorship, as well as teaching economics and theology. I then worked with colleagues of the Midwest Jesuits to raise much-needed funds toward building Hekima University. That work continues with Fr. Endashaw Debrework, SJ, an Ethiopian Jesuit who was regional director of the Jesuit Refugee Service in Eastern Africa.

It has been a grace to serve at OLPH. I am always touched by your devotion as parishioners, your charity to many causes and your hospitality to international priests like me. I

To mark these five years and to say farewell, an alumna of Saint Ignatius, the Hon. Jeanne Wrenn ('87), is graciously organizing an event at Theater on the Lake on Wednesday, April 17, from 6 to 8 p.m. It will give me much joy to celebrate this occasion with the OLPH community. If you can make it, please use this link to RSVP: <https://www.jesuitsmidwest.org/kalenzi-tribute/>.

If you are unable to attend and would still like to donate, please do so in the same link.

I give thanks to God for you all and will treasure our shared memories until, God willing, we meet again.

Fr. Paul Kalenzi, SJ
