seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of the bread."

First Communion season is just around the corner, one of my favorite seasons of the year. This year we have over two hundred children preparing for First Communion between Religious Education and the School.

I always encourage parents of First Communicants to really get into the spirit of what their child is discovering about the Eucharist. See the sacrament through their eyes. It will renew your faith as much as theirs.

There is nothing compared to the delight of a First Communicant's reception of the Eucharist. One little girl told me last year, "I want to go to communion every day!"

The centrality of the Eucharist is losing its grip on the community of believers as less people are regularly going to Mass. As wonderful as the virtual Masses were during the pandemic and continue to be these days, there is nothing that can compare with worshipping in person and receiving the Eucharist at communion time.

For many people, the encounter of the risen Lord on the Road to Emmaus is their favorite post Resurrection appearance. There are so many layers to this extraordinary encounter, expressed most powerfully in the verse, "Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of the bread."

It is in the breaking of the bread that we are fed on our spiritual journey. It is in the breaking of the bread; the Risen Lord is most present to us. It is in the breaking of the bread that we are missioned today to be witnesses to the Resurrection, to announce repentance for our sins and to preach the Good News to all the nations.

Every Friday we have adoration of the Eucharist from 9:00am concluding with Benediction at 3:45pm.

I want to express my sincere gratitude to our Ministers of Care under the leadership of Jim Vlazny and Rick Nash who are our vessels of the Lord's presence as they bring the Eucharist to the homebound and sick. This Saturday, our Ministers of Care are participating in a morning of renewal led by Fr. John Kartje. There is a comfort beyond words for someone unable to come to church to receive the eucharist. Nothing can comfort an anxious patient in a hospital or a resident in assisted living who feels isolated like a visit from a minister of care.

I am grateful to Bob and Penny Pierson who bring the Eucharist to residents at Chestnut Square and Margaret Lovely who brings the Eucharist to residents at the Vi. We are fortunate to have many Ministers of Care in our parish.

We have a wonderful team of catechists in Religious Ed and Teachers in the school that help form our children with a deep appreciation of the eucharist in their lives.

This year we continue to observe the Eucharistic Revival initiated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. The Archdiocese will be participating in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage from June 26 to June 30. There are many events surrounding the Eucharistic pilgrimage listed on the archdiocesan website. Please visit www.archchicago.org for more information. Our Vicariate will be hosting a Vigil Mass and Eucharistic Devotion at the National Shrine of St Maximilian Kolbe at Marytown in Mundelein on Saturday, June 29 at 5:00pm.

I would encourage you to check out the website www.usccb.org of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for many resources to guide your observance of the Eucharistic Revival.

Congratulations to all our Eighth graders in Religious Education who will be confirmed Sunday afternoon by Bishop Kane. I am so proud of this outstanding class of young people. Please pray for the confirmandi as they are sealed with the Holy Spirit.

Congratulations to parishioner Peter Nolan who is the 2024 Heroes of Irish America recipient. The award is being presented in Buffalo, New York. Peter has been a distinguished journalist and author. Congratulations!

May we always know Him, "in the breaking of the bread."

seek, share, rejoice - parish pastoral council...

What is the OLPH Parish Pastoral Council?

The OLPH Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) is an advisory body that supports the Church's concept of shared responsibility among laity, religious, and clergy. The PPC is made up of 15 parishioners and our pastor, Fr. Jerry Boland. Its purpose is to:

- Listen to, identify, and examine the needs, ideas, and hopes of our faith community;
- Engage with over sixty OLPH ministries to understand and affirm their work and help them address their needs and challenges;
- Create a "culture of involvement" within the parish that welcomes and embraces others and encourages the development of leaders across the parish;
- Help envision, shape, and implement the future goals of our parish and monitor our ongoing success as we strive to fulfill the Church's teachings.

The PPC meets throughout the year on the third Monday of every month according to its bylaws. Meetings follow an established agenda defined in advance based on input from Fr. Boland and PPC members. Members also organize and plan the annual Summit and Ministry Appreciation Mass and Reception. PPC members serve a three-year term beginning each July.

Parish Pastoral Council

Parish Member Testimonial

Laura Roche

We asked several members of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) to share their experience. Here are the responses from PPC Board Member Laura Roche:

When did you and your family join OLPH?

My husband Jim and I moved to Glenview in December 1995 and discovered OLPH after our move. When our two children were born several years later, they received their sacraments and completed Religious Ed at OLPH.

When did you first hear about the PPC?

I was aware of the PPC in a general way, but I became more aware of it when Tom O'Brien encouraged me to apply to become a member.

What does the PPC do?

The PPC's roles are twofold: outreach and support.

The PPC plans the annual Parish Summit and the annual Ministry Appreciation Mass and dinner. We meet monthly with our pastor to discuss current and future issues facing the parish and provide Father Jerry with feedback. And we connect with the numerous parish ministries at OLPH to provide support when needed.

Is there an aspect of the PPC that you enjoy the most?

I truly enjoy the comraderie of the Council membership and learning about our vibrant parish ministries. It is very faith-affirming to see Jesus in action through the diverse activities and passionate members of our ministries. If you have a specific talent or interest, OLPH likely has a ministry that could use your gift!

How would you describe PPC meetings?

The PPC meetings are filled with dynamic discussion and interesting topics surrounding our parish. Our meeting agenda focuses on Father Jerry's updates on OLPH activities. Some examples of discussion topics include capital improvements, fundraising campaigns, archdiocesan initiatives, ministry requests, parish opportunities or challenges, and future planning. The members are universally supportive of each other and very positive about our parish and our faith.

What should OLPH parishioners know about the PPC?

The PPC is a wonderful way to become involved in OLPH, to get to know the parish more deeply, and to give back to this faith community that gives each of us so much. If you love your faith and this parish and believe you can contribute your energy and voice to supporting Fr. Jerry and OLPH, please consider applying to become a member. We need you!

Sharing Ministry

Support On-going Food Drive

Please continue to hear the cry of the poor with donations to our Food Drive. Donate through baskets in church, the kids at Sunday Offertory, the Sharing Resource Center (SRC) bins out on Tue., Thu., and Sun. mornings or through GiveCentral using the QR code or texting to 570-354-6574, Sharing.

Urgent Need for Gift Cards

There are an estimated 100 people outside the Rectory door at St. Sabina's each morning, people desperate for any support they can get. Fr. Michael Pfleger is in need of gift cards to McDonald's and Subway, which he distributes to these mostly homeless people. Please drop donations off at the OLPH Parish Center, marking your gift cards for Fr. Pfleger.

Closet Clean for Sharing

Please consider donating clothing items you will no longer need to the Sharing Resource Center. We welcome in-season, gently used items which will be passed on to those in need. We also welcome gently used housewares.

Volunteers Needed

We are in need of volunteers to work on Sunday mornings in the SRC. Shifts run from 8:00 - 10:00am and 10:00am to noon. Volunteers self-schedule and choose the shifts and dates that work best. We sort through clothing, housewares and food donations. Contact Janis Moylan, jlp1231@gmail.com

Drivers Wanted for Local Deliveries

We have a team of drivers picking up day old goods from Trader Joe's on weekday mornings and delivering to local food pantries. Pick ups happen between 8:15 and 9:30 each morning and total time commitment is generally less than one hour.

We are looking to grow our list of subs. Subs each make an average of one pickup per quarter. Contact Patti Lawler, pattilawler@gmail.com, if you can join this team.
