Prayer for an Engaged Church

Dear Lord, we want to be an engaged church, a parish motivated by love for You and committed to our mission of living out Your gospel.
We ask that You be with us on our spiritual journey.

Help us to be a worshipping community, devoted to Mass, praying with and for one another, and lifting our voices joyfully in song.

Help us to be a welcoming community with smiles and outstretched arms as we greet all who enter our doors, be they friends or strangers.

Help us to be a community of good stewards who support our parish and are compassionate to the needs of the poor.

Help us to be a ministering community, cheerfully and tirelessly offering time and talent in service to others.

Help us to be a community of disciples who place You, Lord, at the center of our lives.

Help us to be an engaged community with open hearts and open minds to Seek You Lord, Share Your Gifts, and Rejoice in Your Blessings.

We ask these things in Your Holy Name.

Amen.

Thoughts on the

Sunday Scriptures

Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven with ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five of them were prudent.

The foolish did not prepare for the wait, they brought no extra oil to keep their flames burning bright. The prudent bridesmaids brought extra oil, just in case the wait was longer than they had expected. And the wait was long. Some of those who were supposed to be waiting were not prepared for the wait, with disastrous consequences.

Good stewards heed Jesus' warning: Be prepared to wait for the Lord's return. Is your faith strong enough to endure the wait? What are you doing to keep your passion for the Lord from burning out?

Dear Parishioners,

"We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you will not grieve…"

These words, taken from this weekend's reading from St. Paul, seek to assure us that faith in Jesus Christ matters. Our faith is grounded in the belief that Jesus died and rose from the dead. God through Jesus "will bring with him those who have fallen asleep".

November is the month in which we hold in our hearts our beloved dead. Each year many families face the reality of the death of a loved one. There is no easy way through this experience. It is hard, it is disorientating, it is often overwhelming.

If you know of someone that has recently experienced a loss, do not hesitate to check in with how they are feeling. After a few weeks, a person's support system gets back into the routine of life and it can be easy to be insensitive to the loss a person has experienced.

If you have lost a loved one or a dear friend, the upcoming holiday season can be very difficult. Don't be afraid of sharing your feelings of sadness when others seem happy. Recall memories that you treasure.

Your faith, as St. Paul reminds us, is a profound reassurance that the Lord does not abandon us but seeks to be with us. The promises made at baptism will be fulfilled.

One of our significant ministries is our Bereavement Ministry. We have such awesome people who accompany a family – often within hours after a death – to reflect on the life of their loved one and to prepare the funeral liturgy. This is a ministry that walks with people at a moment when they are very fragile and trying to cope with loss. I know I speak for all of us in expressing our gratitude to the folks that serve in this ministry. They do everything they can to make sure the celebration of a person's life is done with dignity. I know from the presider's perspective we can't say enough what a help they are in reaching out to people at a time of such sorrow.

Our Bereavement Ministry is headed by Deacon Dave and Mary Beth Kalina. Deacon Dave has been suffering much of the past year with health issues. He recently had surgery and is now on the road to recovery. Please pray for him. He and Mary Beth are such a blessing to our parish community.

Another significant part of our ministry for those dealing with the death of loved one is the music at the funeral. I am so grateful to Russell Stern and the cantors who do everything they can to accommodate requests to make the funeral as personal as possible considering the liturgical norms. I so often hear such gratitude from the families on how much they appreciated the music.

After the first of the year we will be having an opportunity to meet with representatives from Catholic Cemeteries to make a presentation on issues related to interring the remains of your loved ones. They will be discussing the option of cremation that has become more common. The cemeteries have designated special places for the internment of ashes. Making decisions about how you would like these matters handled can be a great relief to your family at the time of death.

Thank you for your awesome response as we are at the halfway point of our food drive. Each week a truckload of food makes its way to one of our Sharing Parishes. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

Thank you to everyone who has submitted your Planned Offertory Program forms. It is really helpful! There is still plenty of time to get your forms in.

Happy 90th to Bernie Garvey! Congratulations to the 2017 Catholic League Champs, the OLPH Warriors! Welcome to the OLPH Classes of 1976 and 1977 for their combined 39th and 40th reunion celebrations! Thanks to many of our Religious Ed Confirmation Candidates who performed service hours at the Blessed Sacrament Youth Center.

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Jerry Boland

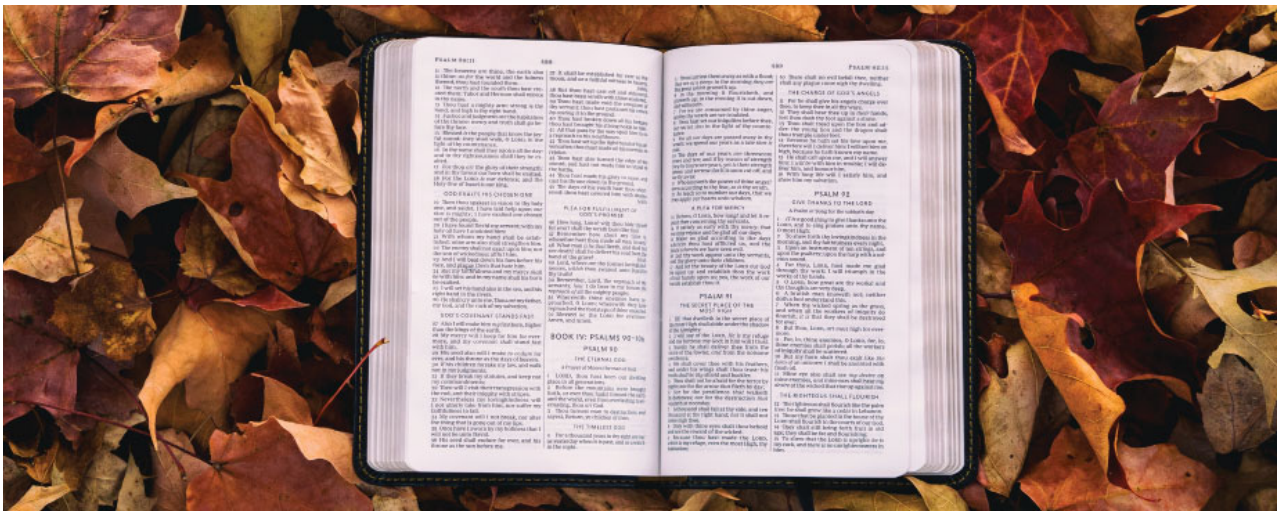
seek, share, rejoice - religious education



Autumn is here and presents the perfect time to press pause and reflect on the goodness of our God. I like to embrace fall as something special that happens just once a year, from September through November. The season brings leaves in brilliant shades of orange and red. The nights are cool and cozy and the smell of pumpkins, cloves and cinnamon fill my house. You may agree the season of fall is in a category all by itself. The sights, sounds and scents hardly compare to any other season. It's simply glorious.

As the seaons continue to change, the Religious Education Program is in full swing. This year, one of the goals in the RE Program has been to do things that strengthen our relationships with each other and that create community. We all have something to share, no matter how small or seemingly insignificant. When we come together, we find that something new and oftentimes, wonderful, is created.

Each week in the classroom, the catechists explore ways for the children to grow closer to God. One way we may grow closer to Him is by praying the Rosary. Teaching children how to pray the Rosary can be one of the most influential and long-lasting things we can do for them. Coming together as a community last month, the children in the RE program participated in the Living Rosary. The Living Rosary is a simplistic way to teach the rosary to the youth. The Rosary, in this case, is made of students, with each representing a bead. The Rosary came to life as each prayer was recited in unison. This beautiful prayer service will make for a powerful and prayerful annual tradition.

Sacramental preparation continues for those children preparing for their first Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation. The preparation for these sacraments involves faith learning, sharing, serving, fellowship, spiritual growth and requires the support of the entire Church. These young people will be given the opportunity to learn more about the Catholic faith and what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ as they continue their sacramental journeys.

Gather & Grow, our family program, is a unique family catechesis program which promotes parents as the primary educators of their children in the Catholic faith. Within this program, faith instruction is done once a week at home by the parents with the community gathering monthly. The curriculum used is designed to transmit a solid and deeper understanding of our Catholic faith to the entire family. This year, the overall theme of the year is "Where Heaven and Earth Meet," (overview of the Mass). Activities relating to this theme involve games, quizzes, stories and music. They are provided to assist parents in growing their Catholic faith with their children.

Service projects continue to be a huge success thanks to the support of the RE families. Through participation in a service project, children learn they can have a positive impact on the people and the world around them while helping them to practice the values of respect, kindness and giving. Providing a rewarding experience for young people also sets a good example on how to follow in God's footsteps.

Our children are reminders of the goodness of God. They are so full of life, joy and talents, ready to transform the world. Each of them is special. I feel blessed to be part of their lives as they move through the grades of our RE Program with the guidance and dedication of over 85 remarkable catechists. It is my hope and prayer that we adults may be models for our children on what it means to be followers of Jesus.

Be sure to take a moment to press pause and reflect on the seasons of your lives at the same time you stop to appreciate God's own unchanging, wonderful nature~

Final weekend of Fall Food Drive - November 18/19

Thank you for your generous support of the food drive last weekend!

We received 10,775 items for St. Sabina's Food Pantry.

The fall food drive, sponsored by Guild 30, continues through next weekend, November 19. Each week's collections are delivered to one of our Sharing parishes.

Next weekend's donations will be delivered to the St. Philip Neri's Food Pantry serving close to 1000 people each month. They are most grateful for this food drive and indicate the following needs:

- sweet peas
- lima beans
- chicken with rice soup

Please participate in this important food drive. Last year's event brought in over 41,000 cans of food! Let's work to match this number and make Thanksgiving a time of abundance at the pantries we serve.

Guild 30 invites donations of boxes, of manageable size, for the Food Drive. Deliver boxes to Vic Hernandez's front porch, 1965 Prairie St. in Glenview.

Befriend A Family Needs You

Sr. Paulanne and our parish social worker, Beatriz, are asking for holiday support for several local families. These families range in size from one to eight. Gift cards are provided at Christmas and Easter for holiday meals and additionally for Christmas gifts. Please contact Stacy Dolan, stacydolan5@aol.com, if you would like to become involved Sponsors can be individuals, families or groups and choose the size family that works for them.

Thanksgiving Dinners for the Needy

Most of us cannot imagine Thanksgiving dinner without turkey. We look forward to our traditional family recipes; our mouths watering at the thought. Well, this image is not reality for many needy families. But you can make it happen. Donate a frozen turkey the two weekends before Thanksgiving. We will have bins outside the Sharing Room to accept your donations and we'll deliver in time to make the holiday memorable for many who would otherwise go without.

Another option: Jewel Foods in the Glen (Lake St. & Patriot Blvd.) welcomes donations for frozen boxed turkey dinners which they will prepare, complete with cooked turkey, gravy, and sides; each will serve 10 – 12 people. Donate any amount at the checkout and you will brighten the holiday for a needy family. Last year, Jewel donated 150 full turkey dinners to our Sharing Ministry through this effort. This year they hope to donate even more.

Ignatian Spirituality Project

The Ignatian Spirituality Project, founded in1998 by Fr. Bill Creed, SJ, offers retreats inspired by Ignatius Spirituality to those who are homeless and in recovery from addiction. The organization also offers weekly spiritual reflection and ongoing companionship for the retreatants. During a recent Sharing Ministry meeting, a retreatant shared her powerful story of God's grace & mercy transforming her life.

Fr. Michael Pfleger will be keynote speaker at their upcoming event, Company of Grace, Thursday, November 16 at Loyola University (Watertower campus). Attend the event or make a donation to support their life changing work.

Visiti spretreats.org to learn more and register.

Feed the Homeless at Catholic Charities/ Des Plaines, Thursday, November 30

We will be feeding the homeless who visit the Catholic Charities soup kitchen in Des Plaines on Thursday, November 30. Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net, to participate or to make a donation to offset the $350 cost for this meal. It takes both donors and volunteers to make these visits happen.

Meeting – Tuesday, November 14, 7:00 p.m.

The Sharing Ministry will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, 7:00 p.m. in the Francis Room. Tom Hart will join us to talk about Sr. Paulanne's Needy Family Fund and efforts underway to support her important work. All are welcome.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Sick

Commissioning Mass

On Sunday, November 12, at the 11:00 Mass, six new Ministers of Care to the Sick and Homebound are being commissioned by the Archdiocese of Chicago. These men and women of our parish have completed their initial formation which consisted of a training program of six parts. Ministers of Care visit the sick and homebound with the Holy Eucharist, share with them the word of God in scripture, pray with them for the Church and the world, and offer them companionship. Ministers of Care are a sign of the support and concern that our Church has for the sick, the elderly, the homebound, or anyone experiencing a time of need.

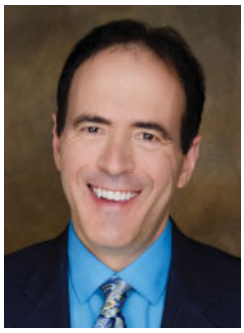
Please join the parish in celebrating this Ministry and welcoming new members of our Ministry of Care community. We congratulate the following new Ministers of Care:

Jim Alef	Amalia Davis	Laurie Kohl
Geogie Alef	Connie Fendley	Armando Triana

When I was ill, you came to my help. - Mt. 25:37

Music Ministry

Russell Stern & Friends 2



All are invited to attend our Music Director Russell Stern's next piano concert, on Sunday, November 19 at 3:00 pm, in the Church and hosted by Guild 22.

It will feature Russell along with cellist Mark Lekas and violinist Michele Lekas amongst others. This free concert will include Piano Quintets by Mozart, Dvorak, Faure and Stern, cello music by Brahms, violin music by Wieniawski, plus piano works by Beethoven, Liszt, Chopin and Debussy.

There is no charge for admission. Please mark your calendars!

OLPH Widowed Ministry

The OLPH Widowed Ministry will meet on Monday, November 20, 9:30-11:30am in the Francis Room at OLPH (Note: NEW location). Please note that this is not a grief support group. Any widows or widowers are welcome to attend and share fellowship and camaraderie. Questions please contact Kathy Underriner 847-902-6319 or kaunderriner@yahoo.com.

TEEN NEWS

Calling Teens & Teen Musicians for Mass Ministries

We invite all teens interested in service at Mass as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist, Altar Server, Lector, or Usher/Greeter to step up and volunteer. If you sing or play a musical instrument and would be willing to join a group singing at Teen Masses, please contact Randy in Youth Ministry.

It is a great honor and privilege to be of service to our OLPH community, especially during our weekend liturgies. We will have training sessions when we get enough volunteers to take on one of these important roles during Mass.
Please email me to sign up and let me know which role(s) you would be willing to serve. rmcgraw@olphglenview.org If you sing or play a musical instrument and would be willing to join a group singing at Teen Masses, please contact Randy in Youth Ministry.

Looking for College Students

OLPH Youth Ministry would like to send a gift to your son or daughter at college. We would like to do this via text. Please email me (rmcgraw@olphglenview.org) your child's name, college, year in school and cell phone information. The goal is to get this out between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Service Opportunity

The OLPH Sharing Room is in need of three or four young people to help out on Sunday mornings. Hours are flexible. Sign up online or email Randy at rmcgraw@olphglenview.org.

OLPH Book Club: The Beatitudes of Peace, by John Dear

November meeting in Youth Office (Monticello Bldg.) November 27 at 7:00 p.m.

The Beatitudes are "the hope and prayer and vision of Jesus, the blueprint for Christian discipleship, the job description of every Christian," says John Dear, whose stirring meditations are a call to action, a summons to take up the Beatitudes as a daily handbook for life. An internationally known voice for peace and nonviolence, Dear combines scriptural wisdom with practical advice from peacemakers like Gandhi (who regularly read the Beatitudes), Thomas Merton, Dorothy Day, and many more, all set against vivid descriptions of peace efforts in places like Afghanistan, Israel, and Los Alamos, New Mexico. In each chapter, Dear affirms that the God of peace is alive and at work among us, calling his sons and daughters into the fullness of a life of true, lasting peace.

OLPH Parish Junior Basketball Program

Basketball clinic for boys and girls in the parish grades K-4 focused on the fundamentals of the game including: dribbling, passing, shooting, defense, and more. Older grades play scrimmage games. Volunteer moms and dads are welcome and needed.
