

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 15, 2018

A large landscape photograph serves as the background for the lower half of the page. It depicts a sunset or sunrise over a calm body of water. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a long, shimmering reflection across the water's surface. The sky is filled with soft, golden light and some wispy clouds. In the background, a range of green hills is visible under the warm light. The foreground consists of a field of tall, green grass.

“Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name
to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.”

Luke 24:46–47

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter

Father Isaac Lara

Dear parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the third Sunday of Easter, in which the risen Lord helps us to understand God's plan in our lives. Through the disciples' experiences, Jesus wants us to reflect on what His resurrection means for us, and what implications it brings to our daily lives.

Life is a mystery; we prepare agendas, set forth our plans, mark our calendars and then the unexpected happens. Life is filled with surprises; you might speak of your own experience. It could be that something unexpected happened during spring break that gave you a new insight on how things work. It could be that a friend, or even a stranger, said something to you that changed the way you think. It could be that God spoke to you in prayer and now you feel more confident embracing your faith. It could be the illness, or even death, of a loved one. These experiences constantly transform our lives. Although our greatest hopes and dreams might never be realized, and our biggest fears and worries might never cease, there is always change around us. Our task is to discern the changes presented to us and ask ourselves what to do with them.

This was precisely the challenge of the disciples. They had dreams and hopes for a worldly king of Israel, which never came true because that wasn't God's plan. They had fears and worries in following Jesus, which never went away, because they needed to trust more. And now, after his death and resurrection, they don't know what to do with the unexpected.

The two disciples who recognized the Lord at the breaking of the bread ran back to Jerusalem to tell the other disciples that they have seen the risen Lord. Where would they go? What would they do? These are not the questions anymore, they know exactly where to go and exactly what to do.

They have the strength to go and speak of Jesus. They have the courage to go and announce his resurrection. They have the confidence to trust in his word. Jesus is in their midst opening up their minds and hearts to understand the scriptures, which is God's plan. The unexpected change began to make sense now. They were able to look beyond their suffering. They were able to look beyond their loss and failure. They were able to look beyond even the death of the Lord. This is the turning point in the lives of the disciples. They found a new life, a new beginning, a resurrection.

We, just like the disciples, celebrate these Easter mysteries. We are guided by Jesus to the life to come – with new hope, new dreams, new strengths and renewed faith to share His love with each other. It is now us who encounter Jesus at the Eucharistic table, a new Easter every Sunday. Jesus appears in our midst, and it is then when we experience His forgiveness. He calms our fears and worries, opens our minds and hearts to the scriptures, brings peace to our lives, and shares his body and blood so we might have eternal life.

Let us rejoice and be glad in the risen Lord!
Fr. Isaac Lara, Associate Pastor

RCIA Class of 2018

The OLPH community gathered to celebrate the Easter Vigil after nightfall on Holy Saturday, March 31. It was a time of prayer and celebration, a time of welcome to those who were baptized: John Sutehall and Marc Imbayan. It was a time to celebrate for those who were received into full communion with the Church and received the sacrament of confirmation: Kristen Morris, Fred Carter, Therese Pompei Cabrera, Bria Lozada and George Wolf. It was a time of jubilation for the newly baptized and confirmed who received the sacraments of initiation. We are overjoyed for these new members of our parish community; keep them in your prayers as they continue their faith journeys. I would like to thank the RCIA team that worked tirelessly on the formation and spiritual guidance of the catechumens and candidates.

Sacramental initiation does not end with the celebration of the sacraments of initiation. It continues with the period of postbaptismal catechesis or mystagogy (that is, reflection on the mysteries). This formal period of reflection and prayer continues until the Pentecost festival at the end of the Easter season.

April 22 is Cereal Sunday!

Please bring cereal for our Sharing Parishes. We will be collecting at all the entrances. Join in as we celebrate ministry work throughout the Easter season.

Evolve Ministry Presents: Art Historian Jeff Mishur

Wednesday, April 18, 7:00-8:30 pm, McDonnell Hall

Art of the Reformation-How Martin Luther Changed the History of Art

Prior to the Protestant Reformation, Christian religious art was primarily, and almost exclusively, sponsored by the Catholic Church. Those with opportunity to visit European cathedrals and art museums may have witnessed the glorious works – paintings, sculpture and mosaics – by renowned artists such as Michaelangelo, Caravaggio, Raphael, Da Vinci, and Donatello to name a few. Predominant themes, including Madonna and Child, Crucifixion, Annunciation, Last Supper, and biblical figures like David, Moses and John the Baptist, were a means to convey a visual catechesis to the population that was unable to read and at a time when printed materials were rare.

Within his visual presentation, art historian Jeff Mishur discusses the impact Luther and the Protestant movement had on the history of art. From the destruction of works of art (iconoclasm) during a time of religious turmoil to the impact of the Reformation and Counter Reformation on art throughout Europe, this program promises to offer insight into a remarkable moment in history. Changes in financial sponsorship and theological premises led to new subject themes and new schools of artists and broadened the scope of artistic exploration and interpretation.

☐ I would like someone to contact me for more information regarding the Parish Pastoral Council.

The deadline to submit applications is Sunday, April 22. A PPC member will contact all applicants to schedule a meeting time. Please mail or drop off: Our Lady of Perpetual Help, 1775 Grove Street, Glenview, IL 60025

Service In Action

Last Sunday, members of our Parish Pastoral Council helped lead an effort to pack brown bag lunches. This effort launched "Service Sundays" leading to Pentecost. Look for more details throughout this Easter season.

Parent Effectiveness Training

Ever wish children came with an instruction manual? They do! Parent Effectiveness Training (P.E.T.) offers proven communication skills that really work. When parents use these skills, they are amazed at the dramatic improvements in their families and in all their relationships. P.E.T. was created by Dr. Thomas Gordon (three-time Nobel Peace Prize nominee) in 1962. Over the nearly 50 years P.E.T. has been around, it's been revised and updated with new content and examples that address the problems, issues and concerns of today's parents. You, too, can learn these powerful, time-tested, proven skills!

- Register at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/parent-effectiveness-training-spring-2018-tickets-43957316517>
- Class meets every Wednesday evening from 6:30-9:00pm, starting May 9, 2018 and ending June 27, 2018.
- Location is Our Lady of Perpetual Help, 1772 Glenview Rd., Glenview, IL in the Parish Center (formerly the convent building), 2nd floor.
- Cost of tuition includes materials, and the rest of the proceeds go entirely to the OLPH Youth Group.
- Tuition for one person from each family is $170; each additional person from the same family is only $85! If you have attended class before, you may attend the class for free but please bring your materials from the last time you took the class. Please register per person who will be attending.

Just before Easter, OLPH School welcomed grandparents, special guests and parents for the best live entertainment in Glenview. Our 1st graders warmed hearts with a beautiful prayer service in church. The students then shared a tasty lunch with loved ones, followed by a performance showcasing their many talents. A treasured family memory was created . . . Grandparents are such a special gift!

A Prayer For "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.

In every age and in our own time, you call to us and say: Renew My Church.

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us, and so enable us to hear you clearly to listen to each other attentively to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints.

May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen

OLPH 6th Grade Shoe Drive

Thanks to the overwhelming generosity of OLPH parishioners and the Glenview community, last month's shoe drive, a Students of Service effort, was a terrific success...and a rewarding experience!

With your help, our 6th graders were able to collect over 1800 pairs of shoes for the Chicago-based Share Your Soles organization. A group of 55 sixth grade students and parents volunteered at the Share Your Soles warehouse sorting and organizing shoes on Saturday, March 24.

These shoes will be making their way to those in need around the globe in the next few months.

On behalf of the entire 6th grade class, thank you from the bottom of our soles!
