Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"the love of God has been poured into our hearts" Romans 5:5

These early weekends of summer are filled with many celebrations and feasts in the aftermath of Pentecost. This weekend the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity.

One of the most challenging courses one must take in seminary graduate school, is a course entitled; "Trinity, Creation and Grace". It was a complex overview of the historical and theological evolution of the Catholic doctrine on the trinity. It was one of those courses that ended a lot of seminary careers because of its rigor.

I was always tormented on how to address the doctrine of the trinity from a preaching perspective. Fortunately, in the early years of my ministry, a priest who mentored me in many ways shared with me the insight that ultimately the trinity is all about relationship. The Father, Son and Spirit are in an eternal relationship. They invite all of us into a relationship with them through baptism.

Relationships matter! We all know the turmoil in our lives when a significant relationship in our lives is in distress. We all know the intense pain that follows a relationship that ended badly or one that just faded away. This weekend's second reading invites us to reflect on the powerful reality that God has poured His love into our hearts and we need to witness to that love to one another.

On this Father's Day weekend, we recall the role our fathers have in our lives. We acknowledge the profound relationship a father has with his children. We pray today for all our fathers, living and deceased.

This Saturday, there will be a celebration of jubilarians at the Chapel of St. Joseph at the Motherhouse in Milwaukee. One of those being honored is Sister Paulanne. She is marking the 60th Anniversary of her entering the community of the School Sisters of St. Francis. We have been so blessed by her ministry in our midst.

What a grace that her whole ministry has been here at OLPH! From the classroom, to the Sharing Room and everywhere in between she has been and continues to be a profound influence on this faith community. Everybody knows the "nun" from Glenview. We praise God for her ministry and pray that she will celebrate many, many more years of ministry in our midst. We will be having a celebration later in the summer. All she wants are your prayers and if you would like, to contribute to the Sr. Paulanne Needy Family Fund. (Contribute to the Needy Family Fund at <https://www.givecentral.org/>)

Thoughts on the

SUNDAY SCRIPTURES

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH

The word "trinity" occurs nowhere in scripture, but the doctrine of the Trinity is basic to everything Christians believe. How did the church come to believe that the one God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit? This complicated story is an example of the church being taught by the "Spirit of truth."

In today's first reading we hear that Wisdom is God's "craftsman," helping execute God's plan for creation. The text is not about a helper god; it is an imaginative portrayal of Wisdom being both "of God" and external to God. We could say that Wisdom is God's self-gift poured into creation, a sign that God loves creation, delights in it, and (in Genesis chapter 1) pronounces it "good."

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH

John's Gospel begins, "In the beginning was the Word . . . and the Word was God"; John later adds "the Word became flesh" (John 1:14). This is more than poetic imagery. Here John makes a very bold claim. The prophets proclaimed God's word, but Jesus is God's Word—coming from God to us who are not God.

It took more than two hundred years before a universal Council declared that Jesus was ". . . true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father . . ." Slowly, the church was working toward a doctrine of the Trinity. The doctrine doesn't explain the Trinity, but it does express the incomprehensible mystery of the God whose love overflows into the glories of creation, the messiness of our human condition, and the Spirit of truth that still guides the Church today.

Next weekend we will be celebrating Father Lara's ministry with us over the past 5 Years. He will become the pastor of St. Catherine Laboure on July 1st. We both started here at the same time. In many ways we learned the parish together. He has made such an impact during his time here. I once was told that 50% of being a successful priest is just showing up. Fr. Lara has been everywhere! His loving, kind presence has been a great gift. He started the tradition of visiting churches on Holy Thursday, he revitalized our RCIA program, he has had a tremendous impact on our young people. He has been a joy to live with and we are all really going to miss him at the rectory.

Thank goodness he is only moving next door. We have all witnessed him flourish as a priest. St. Catherine's will continue to thrive under his leadership. Stop by next week after the masses to extend your best wishes.

This week is our annual Totus Tuus Summer Camp. Under the direction of Vivi Lato and a great mission team, we have an exciting week of activities planned. The kids always enjoy it.

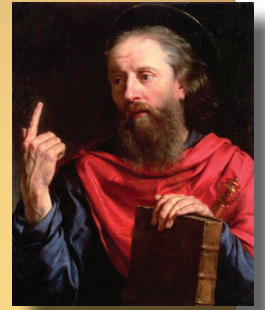

If you are interested in serving our community in one of our liturgical ministries, we could use your help! We are always looking to expand our greeter/ushers, lectors and eucharistic ministers. The summer months pose challenges in trying to make sure all our masses have enough ministers. If you would like to discuss the possibility, please call Margie Andre at the parish office.

Welcome Summer!

Rev. Jerry Boland

On this Father's Day,
let us reflect on the words of St. Paul,
1 Cor.: 1-2, 4-8,
"The Gift of Love."

Happy Father's Day
everyone!

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love I am only a resounding gong or clanging cymbal resounding in the wind.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and can understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have faith, that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

Love is kind; love does not envy; love
does not parade itself, is not puffed up;
does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil;
does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth;

bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things
LOVE NEVER ENDS.

Volunteer Opportunities

Brown Bag Meals for the Homeless

Hungry, homeless people come to the rectory doors and visit the parish food pantries of our four sharing parishes daily in search of food. Our Sharing Parishes are often able to respond with brown lunch bags filled with non-perishable food.

Sr. Paulanne also regularly distributes these bags to local needy. These easy-to-assemble bags are donated by OLPH individuals, families, and groups.

Consider making up a few or get a group together and make up even more. No quantity is too big or too small. These bags filled with non-perishables are easy to assemble and should contain:

- Pre-packaged tuna salad or chicken salad with crackers
- Trail mix
- Peanut butter or cheese & crackers
- 100% juice in box or can
- Dried fruit
- Fruit cup or applesauce
- Plastic spoon and napkin

Optional:

- Candy
- Power bars
- Granola bars

Please use larger sized lunch bags and double the bags for durability. Bags can be delivered to the Sharing Room on Sunday mornings or whenever volunteers are present. Contact Julie Cooper, 847-909-0661 for further information.

Furniture Needs

We have a family in the Englewood community in need of 2 twin beds with mattresses and box springs and additionally 2 twin mattresses.

Stewardship Report

We are pleased to present this report on our general offertory from July 1, 2018 thru May 31, 2019.

We experienced a slight decrease in donations to the parish over prior year.

Even with the slight decrease, we are currently 1.3% over budget.

You and our entire parish family have been extremely generous in supporting the mission of OLPH. Our strength as a Catholic community is proven by your financial generosity, and also by your participation in our ministries and Mass services, and of course, by the way you live your life in Christ. Thank you again.

Stewardship Report

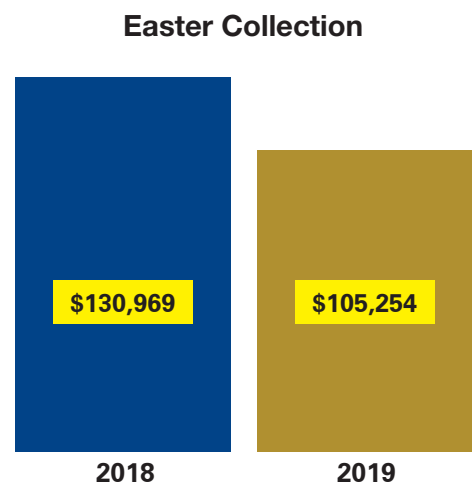

EASTER Collection 2019

Thank you for your generosity during our Easter Offertory. We were not, however, able to match or exceed our 2018 Easter Collection.

The 2019 Easter Collection was down (-19.6%) versus last year.

Beyond supporting essential parish operating expenses, a stable offertory makes it possible - through our First Fruits Program - to fulfill mandated second collections, respond to special requests and support our Sharing Parishes, among other outreach efforts.

Please contact Jim Dollard, Director of Finance & Operations, with questions or concerns.

EvOLve Adult Education Ministry

"Splendors of the Vatican Museums" Tue., June 18, 7:00 - 8:30pm, McDonnell Hall

Art historian, Jeff Mishur, is returning with another enriching program featuring art from the Vatican museums that offers some tangible expressions of Church history. Jeff will examine objects from the Early Christian, Renaissance and Baroque periods. He will discuss how these works would have been read by contemporaries and will also focus on iconography and patronage. Some of the less familiar objects to be discussed include the 3rd-5th century Mandyion of Edessa-one of the oldest known depictions of Christ's face- as well as an 8th-9th century Annunciation on silk.

The majority of Jeff's presentation features works in the Vatican collections by Michaelangelo, Leonardo, Raphael and Caravaggio. Come join us for a brief sojourn to Rome and one of the world's greatest art collections. Buon Viaggio!

Jeff Mishur is co-owner of Art Excursions, a company that provides private guiding in Chicago, lectures and boutique art and culture tours in the United States. He has his M.A. in Art History from Northern Illinois University and has taught on the university level for many years.

Air Quality Index (AQI) and How You Can Help

What is the AQI?

The AQI is an index for reporting daily air quality. It tells you how clean or unhealthy your air is, and what associated health effects might be a concern. The AQI focuses on health effects you may experience within a few hours or days after breathing unhealthy air. The AQI is calculated for four major air pollutants regulated by the Clean Air Act: ground level ozone, particle pollution, carbon monoxide, and sulfur dioxide. For each of these pollutants, EPA has established national air quality standards to protect public health.

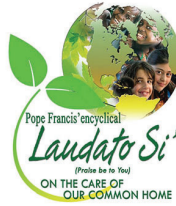

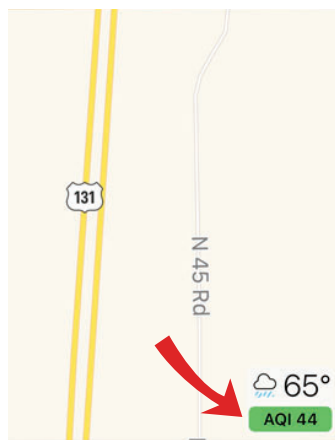

The purpose of the AQI is to help you understand what local air quality means to your health. To make it easier to understand, the AQI is divided into six levels of health concern:

Air Quality Index (AQI) Values	Levels of Health Concern	Colors
When the AQI is in this range:	...air quality conditions are:	...as symbolized by this color:
0 to 50	Good	Green
51 to 100	Moderate	Yellow
101 to 150	Unhealthy for Sensitive Groups	Orange
151 to 200	Unhealthy	Red
201 to 300	Very Unhealthy	Purple
301 to 500	Hazardous	Maroon

Where can you find the AQI?
The AQI is regularly reported on weather channels on TV and the Internet. Additionally, you can now find it on Apple Maps in the lower right corner.

How can you help?

Local governments may declare Ozone Action Days when the AQI reaches unhealthy levels. Many manufacturing facilities have agreed to take action on those days, but you can do your part too.

Basic steps in limiting ground ozone during Ozone Action Days are:

- 1 Controlling of auto emissions
 - Eliminate excessive engine idling
 - Avoid rush hour when slowdowns on roads are most common
 - Park and go inside instead of drive-thru lines at school, fast-food restaurants, and pharmacies
 - Avoid unnecessary driving by combining trips and carpooling
 - Refuel after 6:00 pm (or after dusk)
 - Do not 'top off'; stop fueling once the nozzle has stopped
- 2 Limit the use of lawn mowers and outdoor grills to after 6:00 pm, or even better, utilize push mowers, manual rakes and brooms
- 3 Limit the use of aerosol cans around the home (for example, hair gel instead of hair spray)
 - Dispose of the aerosol can properly
- 4 Conserve energy
 - Turn home air conditioning thermostat up to at least 78 as the EPA recommends
 - Utilize fans, turn the thermostat up when not at home, close blinds to reduce sun penetration
 - Turn off or unplug electrical devices when not in use- computers especially can heat up rooms
 - Install LED lights that utilize less energy. The prices of the lights are now affordable and many electric companies offer subsidized pricing at local stores such as Home Depot, Lowes and Ace Hardware

Youth Ministry

What can I do to Help?

First of all, thank you to all who have helped our parish Youth Ministry. We are slowly but surely getting our young people involved in Youth Group. Youth Ministry is the responsibility of all at OLPH. The program we are developing must not be built around one person but with the whole community. We need your help! Two proposals for you to consider....

Prayer Partner

Be a hands-folded volunteer. One of the most important activities you can do for Youth Ministry is to pray regularly for the youth in our parish. We want to develop a list of folks who will commit to this. It is not our work but God's work we are doing and we need God's help and direction, God's Spirit and inspiration. To sign up. Text Prayer to 84576. You will be added to our prayer text list or contact youth ministry (ext 116). Fill in sign up sheet. Or email Randy at rmcgraw@olphglenview.org.

Youth Ministry Adult Advisory and Support Team!

Be a hands-on volunteer. Meet with the Youth Ministry Adult Team three times a year to pray, brainstorm, plan, evaluate, set goals, establish priorities and celebrate! As a member of the team, help with one or two activities during the year. Your ministry would be a ministry of advice, encouragement and support for youth ministry and a presence with the young people who attend an event. The goal? All our Youth Group activities should include at least one other adult from the greater Church community.

Examples?

Attend a Food Faith and Fun activity (usually Saturday or Sunday evening) and meet the young folks and join in the activities planned for that meeting. Help plan and carry out an event. Volunteer to drive a group to a service activity. Pick up the pizza! Help shop for food for dinners and for the Brown Bag Lunch Projects. Cook dinner for Hilda's House Homeless Shelter. Join in a Scripture Study meeting. Attend Stations of the Cross with the teens. Help stuff envelopes for mailings. Be a chaperone for a Cubs, Sox or Blackhawks outing. Attend a Teen Mass. Supervise fun night activities in the Playdium. Go bowling. Participate in Habitat for Humanity. Attend an overnight high school retreat. Attend a Confirmation Retreat. Share your story and your faith on an informal basis. You have lots of opportunities.

Immigrant Teens from Central America Need Our Help

Last summer and into the fall, so many of you gave generously to the 55 unaccompanied teenagers from Central America who were safely cared for by Maryville Academy. These teenagers were fortunately placed with U.S. sponsors by the government's Office of Refugee Resettlement.

Sr. Cathy Ryan and her staff at Maryville have done a wonderful job caring for these kids, and as a result, Maryville Academy has been asked to house an additional 50 kids from Central America. This summer the need has doubled, there are 100 immigrant teenagers being cared for at one time. Again, they can use our help!

The boys and girls are between the ages of 13 & 17 who have made the long treacherous journey without a parent. Their shoes are worn out and are in need of a new pair of gym shoes, and a new 20" duffle bag (not a backpack) for their final journey to their sponsor's home.

These items can be dropped off at the OLPH Sharing Room. Kindly mark the new shoes or new duffle bag (airline carry-on size) for the Immigrant Kids. If you don't have time to shop, but would like to donate to Maryville, know that checks can be sent to the address below, or credit card donations can be made on-line at: www.maryvilleacademy.org. Donors can specify in the comments box that the funds are to be used for the Immigrant Children.
