THE DEAD SHALL RISE

Lk 20:36

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"The dead shall rise"

Throughout the month of November, we venerate the memory of our beloved dead. In a special way we walk with those who have experienced loss this past year.

Last week's Bulletin cover listed the names of those who went home to the Lord this past year.

Given the number of names, many families in our midst are still in the throes of grief.

We all cope with loss in different ways. It can be challenging in a family where so many ways of coming to grasp with the reality of death are at play. Giving one another the space, they need is crucial. There is no one way to grieve and grief has no time limit.

As I reflected on the names on our bulletin cover, I was aware of the myriad of circumstances that marked each loss. Some deaths were the result of many years of diminishment and decline, for others death came like a thief in the night, no forewarning or time to prepare.

In the aftermath of death, we face issues of mortality and the more profound questions of the ultimate meaning of life. As Christians, we know it is central to our faith, our conviction, that we all share in the resurrection of Our Lord. This weekend's passage from the Gospel of Luke affirms the Lord's teaching, that the dead will rise and ours is a God of the living not the dead.

There are some aspects of faith we must just embrace. Certain tenets are beyond empirical proof or clearly evident. In Christ we shall all live in eternity.

I have the great privilege of accompanying many going through the process dealing with and coping with the reality of death. I see over and over the power and the reassurance that comes when a person's life has been formed in faith and they are connected to a community of faith. I cannot tell you how many times over a year I hear people say, "I don't know how I would have gotten through this loss if it wasn't for OLPH and my faith."

Parish looms large for all of us on many levels. It is the place where we worship, our faith is formed, friendships emerge, and we can find remarkable comfort and assurance when we are in the grips of sorrow that death elicits.

I spent this past Holy Week in Jerusalem and had the profound experience of marking the moments of Our Lord's passion, death, and resurrection in the actual places where those events occurred. I do not know if I have ever thought so much of Our Lord's humanity. From the Upper Room, the place of the Last Supper, to the Garden of Gethsemani, to the Via Dolorosa, to the place of His crucifixion to the place where they "laid Him in the tomb," I could not help but dwell on the suffering He endured for us. He was humiliated, beaten, and killed.

Easter morning sunrise at the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher

I had the extraordinary experience of being in the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher at sunrise on Easter Morning as the light of the newly risen sun poured over the place tradition has it, He was buried. The Risen One transcends time history and place. As we move from earthly existence to eternal life, we will also transcend everything we know.

On Easter Monday, I walked from Jerusalem to Emmaus recounting the Gospel account of the two disciples walking along trying to make sense of all that had happened and did not realize the Lord was walking with them. It was not until the breaking of the bread that their eyes were opened.

seek, share, rejoice - rosary, men's crhp...

Fr. Jerry's letter cont. from page 2)

We are all on the road to Emmaus. We are all trying to make sense of what is happening in our lives. Hopefully when the bread is broken our eyes are opened and we recognize that the Lord is with us! The dead shall rise!

Last weekend was terrific. Special thanks to Mark Cullen and the PPC for a marvelous Summit. What a tremendous turnout! Fr. Michael Sparough, SJ gave a deeply moving keynote on our theme, "Better Together." The Summit presentations were recorded and will be soon available on our website.

Special thanks to Guild 38 for hosting one of my favorite events of the year, "Trunk or Treat". Hundreds and hundreds of children and their families had a glorious afternoon of costumes, candy, music, games, and food. Saturday Night the fun continued with Religious Ed sponsoring Mass and Movie night. Thanks to Angela Romero and her volunteers who converted our parking lot to an impressive drive-in theater. I am grateful to John and Katie Nicolau for hosting the first of my neighborhood meet and greets in Glen Oak Acres.

Congratulations to Terry Luc and OLPH being awarded the prestigious Golden Trumpet Award from the Publicity Club of Chicago for our coverage of the dedication of the statue of the Blessed Mother in the Hellerman Garden.

The dead shall rise!

Fr. Jerry Boland

Our Rosary

October was the month of the Rosary. Many joined us in person and online as we challenged parishioners to "pick up your beads."

Here is a testimonial from a homebound, late-stage, cancer patient who found so much comfort in praying the Rosary with our online service led by Gabriella Barretto.

"One of the things that brings me comfort and makes me grateful is listening to Gabriella pray our on-line OLPH Rosary."

The Rosary gives me strength and peace and comfort and Gabriella's voice is what brings it all to life in my heart!

Thank you, Gabriella and OLPH, for what you share with the world!"

seek, share, rejoice - russell's concert, youth ministry...

An Invitation from Russell

I am excited to share more information about my album release concert, which will be on Sunday, November 20 at 3:00pm. in the Church. The theme is about returning. It has been a long process for everyone, to return to life in the new normal. Also, this past summer I had a fall which led to five broken bones in my left hand, surgery and a continuing period of recovery.

This concert is about a return for me in that way, back to the concert stage, behind the piano. I will be performing works of Bach, Chopin and Ravel. These works have been an excellent therapy for me and a blessing to me to be able and share these with you again.

This is also an album release concert for my third album, entitled, "Impromptu", my first CD in 9 years. I recorded this album over a 4 year span at a recording studio in the Bronx, on a beautiful 9 foot Steinway piano. For me, improvisation is a special form of prayer or contemplation, as the music is created in the moment, as I do my best to open my heart to God, to let the Holy Spirit flow through me.

I have been devoted to the art of improvisation for most of my life and this has been a central element in my music ministry at OLPH. I have always wanted to create an album that captures these special moments. That is what my "Impromptu" album is all about.

This concert will feature an inspiring new composition that I have written, with the lyrics of Cantor Jay O'Brien, called 'Blessing of Return'. We are excited to welcome this wonderful cantor, who will be present to sing this new composition along with our Festival Choir and our Children's Choir. Our violinist, Tony Kawalkowski, will add his wonderful playing on various selections.

Guild 22 has kindly agreed to sponsor this free concert and once again will provide refreshments after the concert. My new CD will be available before and after the concert. I hope that you will mark your calendars and come and celebrate this return together.

Thank you of your ongoing support and kindness. It has been a pleasure to serve God with you for all of these years.

The Sharing Ministry - The Second Decade

1992 - 2002

by Pat Marohn

Pat & Lou Marohn

Decade Two continued under the able leadership of Rich Tilghman, Betty Collins as Secretary, and Father John Flavin as Pastor. Sister Paulanne Held continued to attend the monthly meetings. With the passing of our previous Pastor, Father Myles McDonnell, Julie Cooper organized a baby shower in his memory to recognize his dedication to Sharing and his love of children. Items of clothing, diapers, and formula were collected. This wonderful February tradition continues to this day.

Operation Rice Bowl, the Lenten solidarity program of Catholic Relief Services (CRS), was also introduced by Julie to strengthen our Lenten journey as a Parish. A small paper bowl was available in church to symbolize a way to pray, fast, learn, and give. Alms were collected, and given to CRS which helps develop projects that contribute to food security in local dioceses in the US and around the world.

Based on the Bible, Mathew 25:34-40, giving to those in need is like giving to Jesus, Chris Oaks along with Sharon Riley presented a new Mission idea for the children of our Parish. They were asked to bring a non-perishable item to Mass to be brought up to the altar during the Offertory. This dear, simple, loving gesture continues to be a very special part of every Saturday/Sunday Mass at OLPH.

The Sharing Ministry has grown through the years and has become the heart of the Parish. Hundreds of Parishioners participate in ways both big and small through Religious Education, the school, both Men's and Women's Clubs, and many other organizations.

Volunteers continue to serve monthly at the Olive Branch in Chicago. Food is donated and delicious meals are prepared in the kitchen of Sparvin Nazarou, owner of "Everyday Gourmet" in Glenview. Volunteers also began serving at Marquardt Center, a Franciscan outreach to Chicago. Their cooking talents were not required, just their friendly faces and smiles while serving the homeless and poor.

The little red Annex quickly became a hub of activity, and an idea began to percolate for collecting shoeboxes for those in need. Items included hats, cough drops, and toiletries. This Parish-wide effort for the homeless became known as "Shoebox Operation at the Annex"!! It was soon busting at the seams with as many as 700 boxes.

Lou Marohn added these words to the Sharing logo of the basket of loaves and fishes, "The Joy in Living Is the Joy in Giving". Lou and Pat Marohn chaired the OLPH summer picnic for the Sharing Parishes and decided that the previous rainy, mud-fest at Sleepy Hollow required a new home! So it was held outside at OLPH with the addition of a Petting Zoo from Patch 22, and the most popular new addition, "Dunk the Padre" (Father Flavin got dunked a lot!!!!). He later commented "Remember your pink envelopes. They help keep those desperately needed Chicago parishes and schools open." Vern and Mary Anne Sebbi chaired the picnic the following year.

Sharon Riley spoke of a new program to create a joint effort between parishes and Catholic Charities to provide apartments for homeless people. Led by Sharon, this is now a successful, thriving program. Volunteers also carpooled to the Greater Food Depository where they helped pack 12,700 meals in one day!!

Catholics Against Racism (CAR) began at OLPH in 2000 when the Micah Team was formed by Sandy McBreen. She led a group from the Parish, including Father Hickey, that marched in the Glenview 4th of July parade and carried the Catholics Against Racism banner.

Here at OLPH, Sharing continues to foster faith, friendship, and relationships that will last a lifetime. Sister Paulanne is our Beacon of Light and Inspiration. Her devoted commitment to the poor inspires us to be the very best we can be as a Parish. Pope Francis surely had Sister Paulanne in mind when he said,

"TO CHANGE THE WORLD WE MUST BE GOOD TO THOSE WHO CAN NOT REPAY US."

Decade Two Reflections

Reflection from Chris Fragassi

I got involved with the Sharing Ministry almost 30 years ago. I answered an ad in the Bulletin for a driver to pick up day-old bread from a nearby grocery store to be brought back to the Sharing Room. I wanted to be of service to the less fortunate, and I also wanted to involve my children and teach them about serving others. This evolved into my coordinating other drivers to pick up donations of bread and other food from area businesses to be sorted in the Sharing Room and delivered to those in need. The dedicated people that I've met and worked with in this wonderful ministry have inspired me greatly and have continued to remind me of how blessed I am.

Reflection from Sharon Riley

I am challenged to put into words the wonders I have witnessed and experienced over many years as part of the Sharing Ministry. I have not devoted a great deal of time to the many worthy endeavors that have beautifully unfolded over the years, but from time to time I was privileged to have joined various efforts in small ways. The joys and blessings I have experienced as a result of this involvement are great. The window into life in different neighborhoods and faith communities, the soaring inspiration I have experienced and, most of all, the golden friendships I have formed all flow from this Ministry, and are riches beyond measure. I have had a front row seat to faith-in-action and what a beautiful view it has been!

I relish a chance to sing the praises of the many good souls weaving together in this holy ministry—those lovingly giving and those with the immense grace to lovingly receive and bless the giver. Our faith calls us to share with the least among us (who are actually the greatest) and to be cheerful givers in the process. The Sharing Ministry invites us to respond to this call as a community, and the blessings flow.

Reflection from Lee Vandervest

I'm happy to be one of many OLPH Sharing drivers. Once each week I pick up donated food at Trader Joe's and deliver to pantries in Northfield or Niles. Once or more per month I deliver food and clothing donated by parishioners to one of our four Sharing Parishes on the south side of Chicago. I also schedule drivers every month so that each parish pantry gets a delivery almost every week. I'm very thankful for all the drivers and their generosity. I'm proud to be part of a team that helps those who are less fortunate. Service to others is a major part of my Catholic faith.

Reflection from Bill Thome and The Hand Family

The Sharing Ministry is something that has been a part of our family for as long as we all can remember. Following the work that Sr. Paulanne puts her heart and soul into every moment is what we all did. Sr. Paulanne has been a role model for the three generations of our family, and her dedication to service has led us to share our time and to offer hope to those in need. This has led all of us in our volunteer work and in our professions to serve those who need extra support and hope for their future. May the work of the Sharing Ministry continue for all generations to come in the OLPH community.

Reflection from Sarah Lane Hill

The Sharing Ministry opened our eyes to the world beyond the Glenview bubble. In giving we receive. We see all that binds us. We share and embrace our faith, our hope, and our collective dreams for a bright future, even on the darkest days.

I vividly remember my nervous first trip delivering food to St. James rectory basement pantry in December 1999 – dark, narrow, barely accessible. Twenty-three years later, their cheery client-choice pantry lovingly serves hundreds each week with dignity. We share laughs and smiles behind our masks. From the days of Fr. Edward and Sr. Barbara, to Fr. John, Peter, and Cathy, each week they welcome me home. Thank you!

Reflection from Meisha Robinson, Director of Charitable Ministries at St Philip Neri Church and St Josephine Bakhita Parish.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help has been a partner in Christ through its various ministries for decades. The Sharing Parish has been implemental in all our community ministries including St. Philip Neri Our Lady of Peace Food Pantry. We depend on the generosity of your parish members. Through your support we have served thousands over the years. We pray for your 40th anniversary with heart-felt appreciation and blessings.

Reflection from Linda and Tom Rinella

20 years ago we moved to Glenview and attended our first OLPH Sunday Mass. Recognizing we were new faces, Fr. John Flavin warmly welcomed us. Bob Pasquesi, who never failed to give us a happy greeting and smile, picked us out at daily 6:30 Mass as newbies and started to fill us in on this vibrant parish. From a note in the bulletin we started food pick-ups at Costco, and one of our drop-off sites was St. James on Wabash. Through Sister Barbara, a very dynamic, caring, involved-in-parishioners Director of Social Care, we became very involved at St. James.

Through the warmth, friendliness, and encouragement of Betty Collins, we began attending the monthly sharing meetings. The spirit of deep caring and concern for others kept those meetings top priority on our calendar. And that is just one small aspect of the OLPH Sharing Ministry's Outreach!

Parish & Community Announcements

Welcome the Stranger

Your support honors Jesus' call

Asylum seekers — men, women and children — are arriving in Chicago. Will you welcome the stranger? We are the body of Christ alive in this world. The stranger is hungering and thirsting — Christ is presenting himself to us in their need. We are called to respond with faith and love.

Over 3,000 asylum seekers arrived in Chicago by mid-October, and a coordinated Catholic response is underway so we can maximize our collective impact. We are providing pastoral care and considering options such as transitional shelter and parish-family sponsorship opportunities.

How You Can Help

Make a financial donation at Mass on Nov. 5 & 6. A second collection will directly support our collective response. Catholic Charities is serving as the central collection point for donations, which can also be made online at www.catholiccharities.net or by calling (312) 655-7525.

Join response efforts by contacting Tori Bawel at Catholic Charities (WelcomeTheStranger@catholiccharities.net)

Pray for our brother and sister asylum seekers arriving in Chicago. Pray for these mothers and fathers, sons and daughters, that they are welcomed and embraced with Jesus' compassion — and pray that those serving them are sustained by God's grace. We will keep you informed, and welcome your questions, support, and prayer.
