Reflection from the Pastor

This weekend's passage from Isaiah is challenging, "Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked. Then your light shall break forth like the dawn."

I am blessed to see these words embraced here at OLPH. You don't have to be around the Sharing Room for too long before you see the efforts to feed the hungry; you don't have to talk too long to Tom Hart to hear about the support we try and give to help refugees; and you don't have to spend too long with our wonderful Confirmation candidates to hear about their efforts to collect clothing and toiletries to help the homeless.

OLPH is enriched through opportunities to share and serve and by the relationships strengthened through these ministries.

~ Father Jerry Boland

TO TEACH WHO CHRIST IS

*A Campaign for Parishes,
Catholic Education and Faith Formation*

There is Still Time to Pledge.

As the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign winds down, we aspire to having participation from every parish household.

If you haven't already pledged, it's not too late. Please consider a pledge to this far-reaching campaign.
