November 17, 2019

They will seize and

You will be hated by all
because of my name,

By your perseverance you

Thoughts on the SUNDAY SCRIPTURES

In today's Gospel Jesus suggests that his disciples must be prepared to suffer ridicule, persecution and perhaps even death if they are to follow him. Sometimes we may wonder if enduring ridicule and scorn are what we really signed up for when we received the sacraments of initiation. Would we not rather sneak through life as painlessly as possible?

Good stewards take their faith seriously and find comfort in the closing words of today's Gospel: "You will be hated by all because of my name but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

Let us make it part of our daily prayer routine to ask the Holy Spirit for the courage to act in Jesus' name no matter the consequences.

Dear Parishioners,

"and they will put some of you to death."

The Gospel we meditate on this weekend is challenging. The proclamation of the Kingdom of God often puts believers at odds with the society we live in. The legacy of the martyrs are those Christians whose sacrifices served as deepening the mission of redemption that can only come from the Risen Christ.

This weekend marks the 30th anniversary of the martyrdom of 6 Jesuit priests, their cook and her daughter in San Salvador. Their martyrdom was the result of their advocacy of the poor and the marginalized during a time of enormous political upheaval in El Salvador. The Gospel compelled them to not remain silent. The Gospel called them to stand in solidarity with the oppressed.

I had a great privilege a year ago to be part of a mission trip to El Salvador with NPH, the organization that provides shelter, education and hope for children who are often abandoned or living in chronic dysfunctional situations all over Central and South America. We were in El Salvador just a few weeks after the canonization of Archbishop Oscar Romero. I offered mass at the very altar he was martyred. St. Oscar Romero has become an icon of hope to believers and non-believers alike. He embodies in many ways Pope Francis' challenge to the Church that we become a Field Hospital for the wounded, a poor church to serve the poor.

In these final weeks of the liturgical year, the scriptures focus on the ultimate hopes of God's Kingdom. As we approach the Feast of Christ the King in a few weeks, we need to renew our commitment to embrace our faith and to take a hard look at who we are and the community we are trying to form.

In the second reading taken from St. Paul, we are reminded that the way we behave matters. There cannot be any place for those who seed division. This means that we are not about my community but the community of the Lord Jesus.

Essential to this mission is the way we embrace the mandate of Jesus to 'love others as we love ourselves'. This can be most profoundly revealed in the ways that we walk with the poor and make sacrifices to reach out.

I see this evidenced in many ways, I saw the food truck leave for St. Sabina's filled to the rafters with canned goods and coats. By the end of the month, each of our four Sharing Parishes will have their food pantry's supplied with food that will get them through the next several weeks. Each year the Men's Club coat drive brings warm clothing to many at risk people. I was delighted to see our teens preparing brown bag lunches for food insecure people.

These efforts as simple as they may be, are signs of a community driven by justice and mercy. How proud our Blessed Mother must be in seeing her suffering children finding food, shelter and comfort.

So many of the 100 hours of Mercy pledges are focused on reaching out to others in service and prayer. They speak to being in communion with the scriptures of this weekend. I am so proud to be part of a parish striving for unity, resisting division and banding together to make a difference. The way we behave matters as St. Paul admonishes us.

I am grateful to the members of our community that spoke at the masses last weekend on Stewardship. Each one of them put a face on the challenge, how am I a faithful steward to all that God has given me? This is not an easy issue to address so publicly but each speaker spoke powerfully about how their faith is calling them to matter, as a disciple. Special thanks to Vern Sebby who helped us to appreciate our new technology, called Give Central to assist you in your financial support of OLPH.

Please remember in your prayers all the men attending the CHRP weekend at Bellarmine. Please remember our Second Graders from both the Religious Ed program and the school that will be making their First Reconciliation in the coming weeks.

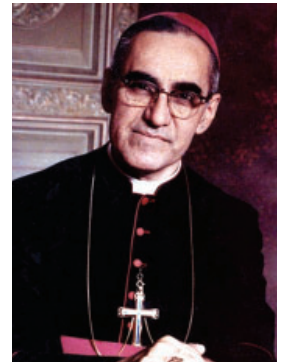

It is still not too late to be part of this year's RCIA program. Please contact Fr. Nick if you are interested.

Holly Fair was a great success!

Special thanks to our maintenance staff for a heroic job keeping our campus safe and accessible during this challenging week weather wise.

May your week be blessed! St Oscar Romero and the Jesuit Martyrs Pray for us!

Centennial Challenges, Events & News

Last Sunday, November 10, there was so much wonderful activity in our South Vestibule.

The Girl Scouts completed their Centennial Challenge: 100 Cards for Veterans. They actually exceeded their goal with 139 cards signed for the veterans! Even Father Barrett signed one!

We want to thank all the parishioners who stopped at the girls' table after mass to sign the cards. We couldn't have done it without you! All 139 cards will be delivered to Hines VA Hospital.

Also Sunday, Jen Farber was helping parishioners get started with their 5-step program for 100 Hours of Mercy. (If you haven't gotten started yet, pick up a Mercy Guide & Progress Tracker this Sunday!)

Parishioners said prayers at our November All Souls Memorial to loved ones lost.

And of course, Women's Club provided hospitality with donuts, coffee and fellowship.

Thank you to Irina Konchan, OLPH Girl Scout Ministry Coordinator, for organizing this Centennial Challenge event and to both Irina and Ben Tchaou for providing these wonderful pictures.

OLPH Music Ministry 100th Anniversary Concert Series sponsored by Guild 22 Sunday, Nov. 24, 7:30 pm

All are invited to a free concert celebrating OLPH's 100 years of singing God's praises performed by the Festival Choir and the Children's Choir, directed by Russell Stern. They will perform choral favorites including the works of Vivaldi, Mozart, Mendelsohn, Rutter, Forrest and the Magnificat by Robert Ray.

100 Hours of Mercy is off to a great start!

Have you picked up your Mercy Guide & Progress Tracker yet to get started? You can find them in the church foyers, the Parish Center Office or at olphglenview.org/100hours. "You Did It to Me" books are selling quickly! Get yours for $5 in the Parish Center Office and after most Sunday Masses in the South Vestibule. Check back next week for more information on our virtual Advent retreat using this book.

Sharing Ministry

Support the Fall Food Drive, Sponsored by Guild 30

Guild 30 is once again sponsoring a food drive, running through Nov. 24. Each week's collections will be delivered to one of our Sharing parishes.

Next weekend's donations will be delivered to St. James

Food Pantry, which serves an average of 1200 families per month and also provides lunches an average of 700 homeless people per month. They are most grateful for this food drive and indicate they have special need for:

Toiletries

- Toothpaste and toothbrushes
- Soap
- Shampoo
- Razors
- Body wash
- Deodorant

Food

- Oatmeal
- Soup with flip tabs
- Stuffing
- Pasta
- Canned chicken
- Canned fruit
- Cereal
- Shelf stable milk
- Cranberry sauce
- Rice
- Canned tuna
- Canned corn

Please plan to participate in this important month-long drive. Last year's event brought in over 40,000 cans of food, which represented close to 40% of all food items donated to Sharing in 2018. Let's work to match this number and make Thanksgiving a time of abundance at the pantries we serve.

Donate Turkeys for Thanksgiving

Brighten Thanksgiving for a needy family with a donation of a frozen turkey. Turkeys can be delivered to the sharing room entry the two weekends before Thanksgiving.

Or you can shop Jewel (Patriot and Lake) and donate to their drive to collect for frozen, precooked full turkey dinners which they will be providing to Sharing. Last year they donated 200 full turkey dinners, each serving 8 – 10 people. These were given to local families in need served by Sr. Paulanne and also sent to our sharing parishes for distribution to the needy they serve.

Volunteer Opportunities

Sharing Delivery Drivers Needed

We are looking for a few drivers to join our team of drivers which delivers food donations to our Sharing parishes. This group self-schedules, with most volunteers making only one run a month. SUV or van needed. Contact Lee Vandervest, lvandervest@aol.com for more information.

Befriend a Family Needs You

The OLPH Befriend a Family program gave support to over 200 families last Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter with sponsors providing gift cards for groceries and Christmas gifts or shopping for these items. Sponsors choose the size of the family they would like to help. They might support an individual, a small or a large family. Donors remain anonymous and the Sharing Ministry manages delivery of donations.

The program supports families at our four sharing parishes, local families and a few refugee families, with donors deciding where they want to support.

We are in need of additional donors for the upcoming holidays. Contact Stacy Dolan, stacydolan5@aol.com, for information.

Friday Morning Folding Group

We are looking for a few volunteers to join our Friday morning clothing sorting team. The group meets at 7:00 a.m. and works for about an hour or a little longer when donations warrant. Contact Betty Collins, collinsjustbetty@gmail.com, if interested.

Feed the Homeless at Catholic Charities/Des Plaines

We will be feeding the homeless who visit the Des Plaines Catholic Charities campus on Thursday, December 12. We need volunteers to serve the meal and donors to fund this effort. Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net.

Sharing Ministry Meeting – Tue., Nov. 19

The Sharing Ministry will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, 7:00 p.m. in Hickey Hall.

Guest speaker will be Mary Ellen Ball, Executive Director of Open Communities, which works on issues of fair housing.

All are welcome.

Congratulations to all the winners of the Sister Paulanne Raffle!

Centennial Challenge Project

Ministry: OLPH Devotions - Holy Rosary Group

Centennial Challenge Project: Establish a devotion to St. Joseph, our first patron, on the 19th of every month

Thank you St. Joseph!

To give gratitude for our 100 years, the Holy Rosary Group, part of the OLPH Devotions Ministries, challenges all parishioners and families to begin a devotion to St. Joseph, the first patron of our parish. St. Joseph's feast day is March 19 so we will be praying our OLPH Novena to St. Joseph on the 19th of every month. As the protector of families and workers and as patron of the Universal Church, St. Joseph is our faithful guardian, especially during these challenging times when our families and our Church need prayers for healing and protection.

Look for the OLPH St. Joseph Novena devotional prayer sheet in the Lady Chapel to pray privately or with your family on the 19th of every month. Or join the Holy Rosary Group after 8:30 Mass in the Lady Chapel on the 19th of every month to pray communally. A devotion to the head of the Holy Family will bring many blessings to you and your loved ones. St. Joseph, pray for us!

The Holy Rosary Group began their new devotion to St. Joseph in honor of the Centennial on October 19.

Join them for the second month on Tuesday, November 19 in the Lady Chapel after 8:30 am Mass, and every month on the 19th after that!

seek, share, rejoice - our parish school...

Our school welcomed and honored several Veterans with a poignant Prayer Service. The processional began with posting of the colors, reciting the Pledge of Allegiance and a resounding medley of Armed Services songs sung by all. Our very own IT Coordinator, Andy Elbert, was the special guest speaker. Andy shared what it was like being an Electrical Technician on a Naval Destroyer Escort ship. He also spoke about how his experience in the military shaped who he is today and the things that kept him going during his time in the Navy. Some similar to our pillars here at OLPH School: Faith, Knowledge, Discipline and Service to others.
