seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve."

The mandate to serve in the footsteps of the Lord is a challenge that is often put before us. True servanthood demands that we continually move beyond our selves and reach out to others.

Our culture feeds into self-centeredness all the time. Most advertising has a pleasure/reward message that we deserve the very best. Our political discourse dissolves into people screaming at each other rather than listening. We can't conceive that there might be another viewpoint worth listening to.

Some time ago I had a rather heated conversation with a person who was basing their anger on wrong information. Every time I attempted to point out the misinformation, I was continually dismissed by the phrase, "I don't want to hear about that". Nothing like letting the facts get in the way of a good argument!

To be willing to be a true servant we must see life in terms of we and us rather than they and them. One of the great blessings of a parish is it keeps calling us to see beyond our own world to the larger world.

I remember studying the great psychoanalyst Eric Fromm who described developing the skill of empathy as essential to our emotional well being. The ability to understand and share the feelings of another.

Empathy is also essential to being a servant of the Lord. One of my mentors was Cardinal Bernardin whose episcopal motto was, "As those who serve". By the way this November will mark the 25th anniversary of his death.

One of the great sources of our parish's commitment to empathy is our Sharing Room. It has been closed because of COVID but will soon be reopening. Watch the Bulletin for details.

Another opportunity to exercise empathy is in our appreciation of the environment. When Pope Francis issued his encyclical, "Laudato Si", our care for our common home, he addressed the encyclical to the whole world. We all have a responsibility to care for creation and to have empathy for those who suffer so profoundly because of the greed and recklessness of some that is putting us all at risk.

This coming Friday we are really looking forward to the visit of Cardinal Cupich and His Eminence Metropolitan Nathanael of the Greek Orthodox of Chicago to lead us in the solemn vespers to pray for the care of creation. The prayer begins at 7 p.m. This will be an historic meeting of the leaders of the Catholic and Orthodox communities of Chicago. Pope Francis and the Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew have worked very closely in their advocacy of protecting our environment.

If you would like to do something practical to clean up the environment, why not join, "The Fall River Cleanup" to clear trash and invasive plant life in the area around the Techny Basin. A group will gather next Sunday at the Willow Creek Shopping Center parking lot at 9:00 a.m. Call 1-847-904-4536 for more information.

I have been on cloud nine all week trying to process all the energy around my 40th celebrations last weekend. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for the tremendous outpouring of your love and support. It will be a day I will never forget. It is surreal to have folks from every parish I have served at the same place at the same time. Throw in my relatives and stuff happens!

It was an extraordinary effort by so many. The liturgy was so beautiful, our Festival Choir under the direction of Russell Stern never sounded better! To Ben Tchaou, John Nicolau and Jim Geldermann, whose pictures and livestreaming brought the event to people far and wide. To Terry Luc who from the get-go organized the event on so many levels, to Beth O'Grady, Mary Fran Dolan, to Guilds 3 and 6, I am speechless at how spectacular the reception was. To Mike Hrvojevic and our maintenance staff I am deeply grateful. To several of our students from the school who helped, thank you! To the Men's Club - you are always there! Sr Paulanne as always holds the whole thing together! I will be forever grateful. I will be leaving for retreat this week and hold all of you in prayer.

May your week be blest!

Fr. Jerry

Preparation for Consecration to Our Spiritual Father

Did you miss last winter's consecration program?

Do you want to re-consecrate yourself before the jubilee ends in December?

Then join the Hearts Afire Ministry in this easy and uplifting virtual consecration to St. Joseph from Fr. Michael Gaitley and the Marian Missionaries.

Getting Started

- Register to receive important program information by emailing the Program Coordinators Jennifer Farber and Tricia McLeod at heartsafireolph@gmail.com
- Prepare to open your heart to St. Joseph beginning on Tue., Oct. 19, with the Monthly Novena to St. Joseph. Join the Holy Rosary Group after 8:30 am Mass in the Lady Chapel or see that day's OLPH Daily Eblast for the prayers. You could also visit the St. Joseph statue near the Sacristy entrance any time before Day One (10/22) to ask for his guidance over the next nine days.

Day 1: Friday, October 22 – Day 9: Saturday, October 30

Check the OLPH Daily Eblast each day to...

- Pray a unique prayer to St. Joseph written by Fr. Gaitley that reflects on the life of St. Joseph and one of his virtues
- Watch a fun 3- to 5-minute video produced by the Marian Missionaries, a group of inspiring young men and women who have committed a year to live in community and grow closer to Jesus. Each day they choose a new prop to represent the virtue for which we're praying. Watch the video with your kids—they will like the props!
- Ponder a few reflection questions throughout your day and deepen your understanding

No internet access? Printed prayer booklets will be available in the Lady Chapel before 10/22.

Respect Life Ministry

Small Change—Big Impact

Please help young mothers who find themselves in difficult circumstances.

The OLPH Respect Life Ministry will continue to support local crisis pregnancy centers with the Baby Bottle Project during the month of October. Due to Covid related issues we will be holding a Virtual Baby Bottle collection. Instead of returning a bottle full of coins, bills and checks, we are asking supporters to use the donation tab on this flyer to support mothers in crisis situations.

Your gifts will help those served by Aid for Women and The Women's Center, who counsel and support mothers considering abortion. Financial and material support for these women has continued without interruption throughout the Covid crisis.
