ON THOSE DWELLING IN A LAND
OVERSHADOWED BY DEATH,
LIGHT HAS ARISEN.

Mt 4:16

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Jerry Boland, Pastor

"Overshadowed by death, light has arisen."

Moving from the Christmas season into the early weeks of the New Year, we continue to meditate on the power of light. We can easily be overshadowed by the forces of death and darkness.

Every morning we awaken to the latest atrocities of the war in Ukraine. The horrific loss of innocent life and the devastation that results from the unrelenting bombing is heartbreaking. During my sabbatical, I spent time in the beautiful country Croatia. That part of the world suffered in the early 90's from a catastrophic war that left much of the countries involved in ruins. Now, over 30 years later there are remnants of the war that still affect the survivors emotionally and wreckage that has yet to be removed.

The issues surrounding the southern border and the teaming numbers of migrants and refugees is a complex issue with many layers of political and ethical concerns. We go to our "political" corners and in a sense shout at each other, we seem incapable of looking together at the root causes of such immense suffering. I guess I am naïve but this reality, which does not simply affect our Southern border, is a reality faced in Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and Asia. This crisis requires a more global response. The dictatorships and authoritarian regimes that wreak such havoc threaten the security of us all.

Gun violence plagues American society. Every day the death toll of innocent victims increases and the inability of our society to address this violence grows.

There is the reality that we can be overshadowed by the reality of death.

"The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light."

The words of the prophet Isaiah are so inspiring this weekend. Matthew recalls them in this weekend's gospel passage because people at the time of Our Lord were no strangers to the forces of darkness and death. The Jews lived in an occupied country, Jesus himself was a political refugee as a child, Jesus himself would be a victim of outrageous violence and humiliation.

We together are children of the light by virtue of our baptism. There are no easy solutions to the "overshadowing" forces of darkness and death. Roman occupation did not just disappear, the hopelessness of poverty and discouragement were ever present. The followers of Jesus have sought, in each generation, the forces of light and hope. Each generation since the birth of Our Lord have sought a more peaceful, merciful and loving world.

While dwelling on the forces of darkness and death are real, we are surrounded also by the forces of light and hope. Our efforts to sponsor a family from Ukraine, supporting the efforts of Catholic Charities to respond to the growing numbers of refugees in our metropolitan community from the Southern Border, encouraging efforts to respond to urban violence that afflicts our sharing parishes are tangible ways of being bearers "of the great light".

The Gospel always challenges us to leave our comfort zones. We must continually be open to the ways the Gospel is asking us to look honestly at the religious implications our faith have on real issues. Some would like to keep a wall around the gospel but we know that never works. Jesus from the get-go was immersed in the world he lived in.

The light of Jesus has arisen!

Next weekend begins Catholic Schools Week. We will have special celebrations at the 9:00 and 10:30 Masses. There will be an open house at the school next weekend and a week of wonderful activities.

Please remember in your prayers the father-in-law of our Director of Facilities, Mike Hrvojevic, Milan Bravac. May he rest in peace.

May your week be filled with light!

Fr. Jerry Boland

The Sharing Ministry

Support the On-Going Food Drive

Please continue to hear the cry of the poor and help us ensure the sharing parish pantry shelves are stocked. Need is critical. Donate non-perishables, leaving them at the church entries, the Sharing Resource Center (SRC) entry when bins are out on Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday mornings, through the kids at the Sunday Offertory, or through Give Central.

Closet Clean for Sharing

Please consider donating clothing items you will no longer need to the SRC. We welcome in-season, gently used items. We also welcome gently used housewares. Watch for the bins outside our SRC on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 7:00am – noon and on Sundays from 8:00am – noon. Volunteers are additionally there on Sundays.

Catholic Charities – Feed the Homeless

We are looking for donors willing to fund dinners at Catholic Charities, each serving 100 – 120 guests, at as many dates as we can cover in 2023. Last year we were able to raise enough funds to cover 10 evenings. We currently have funds to cover only three dates in the coming year. Each dinner event costs $600. Please help us to raise the funds to cover many more. For more information, contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net

Donate Food Gift Cards to St Sabina

Fr Pfleger is in need of Subway and McDonald's gift cards which he distributes to the needy who come to his door. Cards can be dropped off at the OLPH Parish Center office. Please mark your cards for St Sabina's.

Parent Effectiveness Training (P.E.T.) offers proven communication skills that really work. When parents use these skills based on a curriculum designed by three-time Nobel Peace Prize nominee, Dr. Thomas Gordon, they are amazed at the dramatic improvements in their families and in all their relationships. Coming out of the pandemic, parents are seeking new ways to connect with their children. Back by popular demand, pediatrician Liz Swider, MD is partnering with fellow P.E.T. certified instructor Margaret Pasquesi to once again offer this internationally renowned parent training to the North Shore.

You, too, can learn these powerful, time-tested, proven skills.

Stewardship Report

To all parishioners:

We cannot thank you enough for your on-going generosity and continued support during the year!!! As a Parish Community, you have contributed $1,402,327 in the General Offertory Sunday collections for the six months ending December 31, 2022. In addition, our Christmas collection stands at $257,744 through this same period, although we have continued to receive additional gifts into January.

You can see from the charts presented below that we are in a slightly better position than we were in the six month period through December 2021, and very close to our cumulative budget for the six months of this fiscal year. Our Catch Up Sunday appeal, which is part of the cumulative Sunday figures, has generated $166,765, thus far.

The months of January and February, historically, produce lower collection results and we ask for your continued support, especially during these months. Please refer to GiveCentral information found in this bulletin for an easy way to donate on-line, should you be interested in that method of donating to OLPH. Also, it is never too late to fill out the Planned Offertory Commitment Form which you can find on our newly refreshed and updated Website or simply click the QR code following this article.

There is another bit of good news to share – The 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal is close to completion and funds raised over the parish goal will be rebated back to parishes during March. While we lagged a bit during the year, as we approached November, we finally reached and exceeded our goal of $215,690. The report through December 19 indicates amounts paid to date of $250,000. The funds we expect to receive will go a long way towards funding the re-carpeting of our Church! Thank you also for your generosity in this very important Archdiocesan fundraising effort.

As one year's Appeal ends, another is set to begin. The theme of the Archdiocesan Annual Catholic Appeal for 2023 is Walking On The Road With Jesus. The goal for OLPH this year is slightly lower than last year's, as our offertory income was lower in FY22 than in FY21. Our goal is $193,403, which is 7% of our FY22 offertory income, and, as in years past, anything received over our goal will be forwarded to the parish.

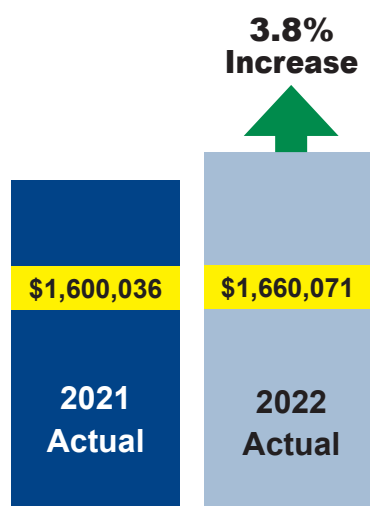

You may have already received a pledge envelope in the mail – please be generous. Proceeds from this campaign are used for many Archdiocesan services from which parishes can benefit in various ways. Watch for further information coming up over the next few weeks, as we near Commitment Weekend of February 11-12.

For more information or if you have any questions, please contact Mary Lynne Januszewski, Director of Finance & Operations by phone: 847-729-2934, or by email: mjanuszewski@olphglenview.org

You are invited to join us on February 4th & to donate items throughout the month by dropping them off at the Religious Education office or scanning the QR code to shop from our Amazon Birthday Bash Wishlist!
