seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Jerry Boland, Pastor

"Lord it is good we are here."

Our liturgy this weekend brings us the Mount of the Transfiguration. The place where Jesus reveals his transfigured self with Moses and Elijah to the apostles. Peter is overwhelmed by the experience and is overwhelmed with a sense of gratitude. He proclaims, "it is good that we are here!" It is indeed good that we are here at this time in our life.

Whenever we encounter the Lord our immediate response like Peter is one of gratitude. One of the graces of the Lenten Journey is the possibility of many encounters with the Lord. While they may not be as extraordinary as the Transfiguration, they can be filled with the power of healing, new life and insight.

Lent invites us to go beneath the surface of life to encounter the deeper realities of who we are and who we want to become. "Turn toward the light of Christ" is our Lenten theme. Where must I turn away from darkness and turn toward the light in my Lenten journey? Peter and the other apostles were profoundly affected by this encounter with the glorified Christ. The power of Jesus Christ can transform our lives. His power transcends the grip of sin in our lives or the anxieties that can be the source of so much stress.

I welcome Lisa Fortini-Campbell who is returning to OLPH for a reflection this Sunday on our parish theme "Turn toward the light of Christ". The gathering begins at 3:00pm and will conclude if you like by attending the 5:00pm Mass. She always leads us in a rich conversation.

I just finished reading John T. McGreevey's book, "Catholicism". It is a remarkable overview of the global history that has shaped the Catholic Church from the French Revolution to the election of Pope Francis. The book really helps to put into a larger context the challenges we face as a Church today.

When you move into the global challenges the Church has faced over the last 2½ centuries, it makes me wonder how have we survived. Many of us are so shaped by a European perspective we fail to appreciate the challenges and aspirations of Africa, Asia and Central and South America in forming the Church we experience today.

We can take for granted the many political and cultural forces that have been placed before the church to urgently reexamine its mission and its voice in the world. We can feel the challenges today are unprecedented in their threat to the future of the Church, but in some cases pale in comparison to the overt persecution of the Church, the imprisonment of priests and religious, the plundering of Church property that took place as a result of revolutions, the anticlericalism that prevailed and the attempts to destroy the Church. In each struggle, the Church has had to reassess its mission and purpose. The church from the Counter Reformation on has revealed its deeper wellspring of strength in facing these many challenges, many of which were self-inflicted as the result of corruption, greed and malfeasance.

We now live at another moment of inflection. As we face the growing secularization of our culture and the corruption and betrayal by some in the Church, we must move forward with a new commitment to purify the structures of our Church and renew ourselves in the process of evangelization. Getting back to the proclamation of the Good News in an effective and credible manner is essential.

One must start somewhere. Here in the Archdiocese we have been going through the Renew My Church Process to better assess how we can posture ourselves to be in a stronger more effective place. How can we better respond to the reality of the Church of today and tomorrow and let go of the enormous resources it has taken to maintain the Church of yesterday? An extraordinary process of transformation has been evolving with an unprecedented number of parish mergers, closures and structural collaboration.

The Pandemic has accelerated the urgency of getting more insight into the changing needs and challenges facing the Church today.

All of us are being invited to participate in a process of better understanding what is going on. Last week we began inviting as many people as possible to participate in a survey that will gather concerns people have about seek, share, rejoice - what's happening today!...

their parishes and the larger church. Information as to how to access the survey is in the Bulletin. You can participate online or fill out a hard copy. Please consider participating! We need to hear from you! How do we better engage young people? How do we heal those who have been hurt or disenfranchised? How do we more effectively proclaim a Gospel of hope and mercy?

No survey will solve anything, but it can lead to a deeper insight into what is happening. Where are people feeling connected, where they are feeling alienated? The more who participate the more accurate the data will reflect the issues in our midst.

I am grateful to Mark Cullum, Sarah Carsten and the PPC for last week's Ministry Appreciation celebration. It was terrific.

Please watch out for details regarding our Lenten Mission on March 25.

Another great OLPH tradition is happening! It is Roundball Time!!

May this week lead you toward the light of Christ,

Lenten Presentation

By Lisa Fortini-Campbell

3:00pm, Sun. Mar 5 in
McDonnell Hall

The Parish Engagement Ministry invites you to reflect on our Lenten Theme "Turn Toward the Light of Christ" with a presentation by Lisa Fortini-Campbell

Lisa Fortini-Campbell

"I am the Light of the World.

Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." (John 8:12).

Christ was in no doubt about either his identity or his mission and he wants us to be equally clear about our own.

"You are the light of the world," he says, like towns on hills that cannot be hidden and like lamps on stands giving light to the whole house. Wherever we are, we are his torch bearers, meant to shine so others catch his light, and become his torch bearers, too.

In this Lenten reflection, we will look at the light-filled people who have sparked his light in us and how, in turn, we can ignite the others we meet.

seek, share, rejoice - parish survey...

SHARE YOUR VOICE SUPPORT OUR PARISH

Survey Opens Ash Wednesday, February 22

Does our parish help you grow spiritually? How good are we at connecting you to others in the parish? In what ways do you feel invited to share your talents at our parish? Your honest answers to these types of questions are what will make Our Lady of Perpetual Help a better faith community.

This Lent, we invite all parishioners to share their input by participating in a 10-15 minute online survey at <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/d/g40gc4>. The survey is available from Ash Wednesday, February 22 through March 31. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole.

Your feedback and input will help shape various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best parish we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

Complete the 10-15 minute anonymous survey at <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/d/g40gc4> or scan the QR code, or find a paper copy in church or the Parish office. Available from Ash Wednesday to March 31. Don't miss this opportunity to be heard!

Thank you for helping Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish!

Save the Date: Lenten Mission

9:00am, Sat., Mar. 25

All parishioners are invited to this wonderful event continuing our reflection on how light can turn us to the Lord. This reflection will be from the perspective of artists. How does light impact their spiritual journey as it is expressed in their artwork? Be inspired to see how we all in our own ways seek to "turn toward the light".

This event will feature a panel discussion with working artists right here in our midst at OLPH.

They include: Musician/Composer Russell Stern
Film Documentarian Rob Orr
Writer Margie André
Visual Artist Terry Luc

The discussion will be moderated by Fr. Larry Basbas, who was a graphic designer before becoming a priest.

This should be a really interesting and inspiring event. We encourage all parishioners to join us, including young adults and teens who are interested in the arts. Light refreshments will be served beforehand.

Called To Make a Difference ... Students of Service Projects

Students of Service

OLPH School's SOS (Students of Service) program creates a "habit of heart" by creating opportunities that place children in relationship with the marginalized and the disadvantaged. Every grade completes an SOS project in the school year. Our 2nd graders recently collected baby items for Maryville Crisis Nursery for babies in dire situations. Our Kindergarteners packed brown bag lunches for The Sharing Room while our 6th graders are currently collecting shoes for Chicago's Share our Soles. If you have any gently used shoes you would like to donate, the drive goes through March 11th. Embracing their role as a disciple of Christ, our children actively participate and show their love for Christ by serving others.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

Confession, also known as Reconciliation or Penance, puts us face to face with the mercy and forgiveness of Christ. Each Saturday afternoon, a priest is available in church to hear confessions.

Fasting

The Church requires all those between 18 and 59 years of age to fast and abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting allows a person to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may be taken, not to equal one full meal. All Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on the Fridays of Lent.

Almsgiving

Service (or almsgiving) helps us experience faith in action. Our parish offers many opportunities to make a difference and grow in awareness of the needs of the poor. Watch our website for upcoming events.

seek, share, rejoice - scoreboard advertising opportunity...

Scoreboard

Introducing

A Wonderful Advertising Opportunity for OLPH local businesses and families

Support
OLPH

We have an advertising opportunity for signage in the OLPH Playdium gym. This is a great opportunity for a family or a business to be the Scoreboard Sponsor and have great visibility within the parish.

Background:

There are two (2) beautiful scoreboards in the Playdium gym. One is in the Southwest (SW) corner and the other is in the Northeast (NE) corner. The Southwest scoreboard is slightly larger and is most likely viewed more often than the Northeast board. This is due to its location across from the bleachers that are used most frequently. The scoreboards were built with a rectangular area across the bottom for placement of a sign.

The Playdium has been seen a tremendous increase in usage in recent years and is back in full swing post-COVID. This increase is related to our mandate to maximize the use of the Playdium for the benefit of all members of the parish community.

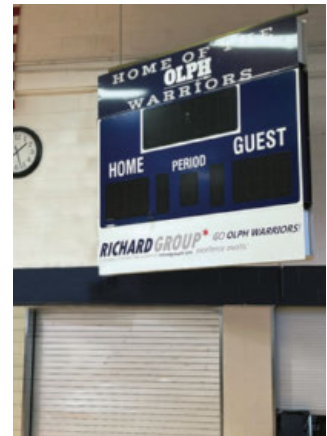

Some of the activities of the Playdium include:

- 5th thru 8th grade boys basketball games
- 5th thru 8th grade girls basketball games
- Weekend basketball tournaments
- Six weekends of K-4 basketball skills programs
- 6th thru 8th grade girls volleyball games
- 7th thru 8th grade boys volleyball games
- Weekend volleyball tournament
- Roundball
- Musicale, Variety Show, Band Concerts
- Grandparents' Day, Mother/Son Sneaker Night, Boy Scout Pancake Breakfast
- R. E. Christmas Pageant, Breakfast with Santa
- Kindergarten Graduation
- Men's Basketball Open Gym and League
- CYO High School basketball practices and games
- Daily use for the PE classes for the entire school
- Christmas Masses

With the Playdium bustling with activity, the scoreboard signage presents many opportunities for a family or business to be noticed.
