seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"God has shed His grace on thee."

My favorite American hymn is, "America the Beautiful" The lyrics were composed by Katherine Lee Bates and were first published on July 4, 1895. The music was composed by Samuel Ward.

Fascinating that the two never met yet they collaborated on one of the most beloved and beautiful tributes to our great nation. Kathleen Lee Bates was compelled to write this poem after she visited Pikes Peak and was overwhelmed by the beauty of our nation.

This weekend we mark the 247th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. We are the oldest continuous democracy in the modern world. As one of my American History teachers told me in college, "democracy is messy". Throughout our history we have had many struggles that challenged the very foundation of our nation, most notably the Civil War, but democracy and freedom has always prevailed, and we have resisted authoritarian threats.

This week we once again take stock of the dream that gave birth to this nation, a place where all are guaranteed; "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness". We always strive to be a more perfect union.

We have indeed been the recipient of many graces, but as the Lord instructs, "to those who much has been given, much will be required". (Luke 12:48) We live in challenging times. The difference between the rich and the poor has only widened. We suffer from a racial wound that plagues us. We live with a degree of gun violence that few other countries would tolerate.

I have always found great solace in our national motto, "E Pluribus Unum", out of many one. This motto was adopted on July 4, 1776, and speaks as loudly to us today as it did 247 years ago. We are better together, and our diversity enriches us!

Happy Birthday America!

We had a situation recently where one of the priests was not feeling well enough to preside at a Mass and there was not time to reschedule another priest. I have asked Fr. Larry to train people who could lead the congregation in the Rite of the Reception of the Eucharist in the Absence of a Priest. It is a simple process, but people need to be trained and it would only be used when a priest is not available, please call Fr. Larry if you are interested.

This weekend concludes the 5:00pm Sunday Mass for the summer. We will resume it on Sept. 17.

Lots of transitions are going on. The Parish Pastoral Council gathered for a meal and meeting. We congratulated Mark Cullum for his excellent leadership as President of the Council. We also recognized the great service of John Nicolau, Mike Wycklendt, Tom O'Brien and Steve Schmidt. Our new president is Sara Carsten. Our new members are Laura Roche, Katie King, Kevin Dougherty, and Michael Crowe. Our new Council will be commissioned on July 23 at 9:00am Mass.

This past Monday the Finance Council gathered to thank those who have served and welcome the new members. I will be forever grateful to Bob Michels who has served as an outstanding chairman for many years. The other outgoing members are Tom Zidar, Kathy Bredemann, and Tom Schufreider. We welcome Bob Pillion, Mike Haverty, Anne Burke, and Gwen Kindelin. I am grateful to Bill McGowen who will serve as Chairman.

There is not a better team of lay people anywhere serving on these two governance bodies. I have so blessed in the years I have been here by such outstanding voices guiding me as your pastor.

I am also deeply grateful to my staff for their significant role in ministering to the parish, we had our end of the year gathering, I want to express my deep gratitude to Angela Romero for her service as Director of Religious Education. She was terrific.

Congratulations to Corrine Cantwell Heggie who was recently sworn in as a Cook County Circuit Judge. Congratulations to Lloyd and Monica Cassidy on their 45th wedding anniversary and to Patrick and Regina Kilroy on their 50th wedding anniversary and to Bob and Connie Hicks on their 70th!

God Bless America!

Sharing ministry 'really in the DNA of the parish'

When School Sister of St. Francis Paulanne Held arrived at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Glenview more than 60 years ago, she didn't know how long she would stay. It's safe to say that the parish didn't know how important the young teaching sister would become to it as well.

Sister Paulanne was honored in 2022 as the parish celebrated the 40th anniversary of the official beginning of its sharing ministry, which she helped launch. The program today includes long-term commitments to four sharing parishes — St. Sabina, St. James (Wabash Avenue), Our Lady of Tepeyac and St. Josephine Bakhita — as well as the Sister Paulanne Needy Families Fund, which helps families in or near OLPH. The program also includes efforts to raise money and participate in international service projects and to help local non-profits and agencies that help people in need.

"The sharing program to me is really in the DNA of the parish," said Father Jerry Boland, Our Lady of Perpetual Help's pastor. "It's just been a remarkable history of engagement of parishioners with our sharing parishes. From the get-go, Sister Paulanne really wanted it to be people-centered. That, indeed, has happened over the years."

It started, Sister Paulanne said, when Father Myles McDonnell was appointed pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in 1971. His previous assignment had been at St. James (Wabash Avenue), and he often preached on the need for those with abundance to give to those in need, and Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishioners began holding food drives for the St. James food pantry.

"We didn't even start on a monthly basis," Sister Paulanne said. "It was maybe twice a year. Then after about two years, people started to get pink sharing envelopes in with their regular envelopes, and they started to use them."

In 1974, Father Michael Pflieger was assigned as a deacon to Our Lady of Perpetual Help — an assignment he did not want, as he would have rather been ministering in the Black community of Chicago. But it was there that he met Sister Paulanne.

"You could collect paper and get money for it then," Pflieger said. "And Sister Paulanne and I would go around in this little Jeep and collect papers. The money she got was what she used to help needy families in the parish."

When Pflieger was ordained the following year, he was assigned to St. Sabina, where he became pastor six years later.

"It was Paulanne and Myles McDonnell who came down and painted my room and helped me move in," he said. "And they said, 'Anything you need, just ask.'"

Since then, OLPH parishioners have provided food and clothing as well as monetary donations, he said. They “adopt” families for the holidays, and they volunteer at the parish and attend parish events, from Masses to the regular Friday night peace walks St. Sabina hosts in the summer.

Cathy Moore, the director of the food pantry at St. James, said Our Lady of Perpetual Help has kept up a similar relationship there, with regular volunteers working in the food pantry and providing generous and consistent donations of food, clothing, money, diapers and toiletries.

“We would not be able to do everything we do in our outreach efforts without them,” said Moore, who first met people from Our Lady of Perpetual Help when she was a food pantry client and volunteer 20 years ago.

The parish looks to meet the specific needs of its sharing partners. Our Lady of Tepeyac, for example, has a girls high school. Last year, 38 young women graduated and headed off to college, each with laundry basket full of things they might need, from sheets to phone chargers, courtesy of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help sharing ministry.

The sharing ministry was officially inaugurated, and the relationships became more formal, in 1982, as Our Lady of Perpetual Help was coming out of the three-year Renew Program, which included small group meetings in parishioners’ homes.

“We were thinking, what do we do with all this energy?” said Betty Collins, now co-chair of the Sharing Ministry. “We began to network, and we began to talk about greater needs and what we could do.”

Our Lady of Perpetual Help now has dozens of ministries, including a 900-member Women’s Club whose members are organized into about 40 guilds, Collins said. Nearly all the ministries contribute in some way to the sharing ministry, with students in the school and religious education program among the most eager contributors.

The parish boasts a “sharing room” in a newer building on the campus that replaced the ramshackle temporary classrooms that once housed donations. Volunteers gather several days a week to sort donations and send them on their way to food pantries, sharing parishes and other organizations. Before the COVID-19 pandemic, the volunteers would sort 100,000 cans of food and 10,000 bags of clothing and household goods each year.

Several local funeral homes now suggest the Needy Family Fund as a destination for donations if the families of the bereaved don’t have anything else in mind; it has helped provide resources, and it’s meant there are a lot of thank-you cards to write.

She gets up at 3:30 a.m. to write them, said Sister Paulanne, who retired from full-time teaching several years ago but still has more than enough work to fill the daylight hours.

An Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishioner was behind the state of Illinois’s Good Samaritan Bread Law, which makes it possible for bakeries and grocery stores to donate day-old bread to food pantries and other organizations that feed the needy, Sister Paulanne said.

“The longevity of the program is because of the dedication of the parishioners,” Collins said. “They really care.”

That care, Pfleger believes, came from following the example of Sister Paulanne.

“Paulanne had and has a tremendous heart for those who are struggling,” he said. “She takes it very personally. When someone comes to the door and asks for help, she always sees them as a human being and always treats them with the respect and the love and the care they are need in of as well. They are in need of someone who sees them and hears them and feels their pain. ... She is Chicago’s Mother Teresa. She spends her life saying, ‘How can I help more people?’”

That attitude has spread through the parishes, with parishioners developing genuine relationships.

By encouraging Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishioners to visit and volunteer at the sharing parishes, the people they are helping become friends.

“They can think, ‘I might not be able to combat poverty in Chicago, but I can help one family put food on the table this week,’” Boland said. “It’s easy to see ‘the poor’ or ‘people at risk’ as categories, but when you get to know the Smith family, it becomes much more real. Our parishioners are constantly blown over by the resilience and the courage of a lot of the people they’ve met. It’s all sort of grounded in this vision of walking with one another in our spiritual journey.”

Catholic Charities' New Hope Apartments Program

Fighting Homelessness, One Family at a Time

We have had quite a busy first half of the year. One family has graduated to self-sufficiency, one is continuing to progress, and three families have moved into the program. Great news for those working to reduce the numbers of families experiencing homelessness.

With your support we can help more families transition out of homelessness and into independence. In the Fall, we will be working on establishing a notification system to allow supporters to provide "in-kind" donations to our families with a specific need.

We will keep you updated on how to join our quick response support team. Here is the summer update:

Family code names are used to protect our families' privacy. "Caregiver" is a 40-year-old single African American mother with 5 children, 2 of them now living with her. This client was able to secure a full-time position at higher pay and has settled into a routine that works well for her family. Her savings have been robust after receiving one of her tax refunds and she is anticipating another refund. This savings has put her in a good financial position to work towards her goal of homeownership using first time home buyers' programs available in Illinois. Her children will be visiting family some weeks this summer. "Caregiver" thanks all who have helped her and her children with love and support through the New Hope Program.

"Fatherhood" is a 36-year-old single African American, the father of 9 children. Four of his children live with him. One of his sons under his care has significant medical issues and is receiving appropriate care to stabilize and manage his needs. The father is doing well and is receiving additional training to obtain a CDL License. "Fatherhood" has begun saving and was able to secure a personal vehicle. The landlord and client have submitted all the necessary paperwork related to a housing voucher which may help the transition from New Hope earlier than expected. All his children are doing well and involved in extra-curricular activities. Fatherhood expresses much gratitude for the continued generosity.

"Fighter" is a 32-year-old single Asian female with an 18-month-old daughter who fled a domestic violence. She has secured a new job closer to home at a higher rate of pay and has applied for child support. Fighter is one course shy of graduation with a Bachelor's Degree and plans to pursue a Master's degree in psychology. This client also trains for and participates in paid boxing matches. Debt is still an issue, but strides have been made in both budgeting and debt reduction. "Fighter" is actively participating in therapy to help manage her personal and family issues. The goal is to reduce debt and improve credit so she can work to purchase a home.

"Celestial" is a 26-year-old single African American female with a 2-year-old daughter who left a domestic violence environment. This client has been strongly motivated since entering the program and has done extremely well. She has obtained a full-time remote position which allows her to work from with her child. She is receiving help from her family. The client is currently working with a credit repair agency to improve her credit score to assist in purchasing a home in the future. She is also learning to drive and plans to use some of her savings to purchase a car eventually.

"Transition" is a 30-year-old single African American female who has experience domestic violence and has 4 children aged 4-12. This mother is working full time and plans to obtain a second job for increased income to maximize their time in the program. The client has a side business occasionally cleaning homes and is receiving certain state benefits. The family is dealing with various issues and have emotional supports in place to help them address these issues. "Transition" is expected to graduate with a G.E.D. working hard to achieve this degree. The client is working on establishing a savings plan and improving their credit score.

The more we work together the more families we can move from homelessness to independence.

MUNDELEIN SEMINARY

YOU'RE INVITED.

Dear Friends,

Please join me at this year's 32nd Annual Rector's Classic Golf Outing and Awards Dinner, to be held on Thursday, September 14, 2023, at Pine Meadow Golf Club.

The Annual Rector's Classic is Mundelein Seminary's second largest fundraiser supporting the formation of our future priests. For his spirit of service, we will be honoring Father Wayne Watts with the 2023 Joseph Cardinal Bernardin In Service of One Another Catholic Humanitarian Award at this year's event.

The tournament will be played at the historic Pine Meadow Golf Club at Mundelein Seminary with the awards dinner following on the Seminary's majestic campus. Continually rated by the Golf Range Association of America as one of the top 50 public ranges to play and recently voted by Golfweek as "One of the best courses you can play," Pine Meadow offers scenic fairways and magnificent greens. Reservations for foursomes are subject to availability, so reply as soon as possible.

There are many opportunities available for golfers and non-golfers alike, and your generous support will directly help to further the formation of our seminarians.

Thank you for your consideration and generosity. I encourage you to reach out to Jillian Mortillaro with any questions you have about the outing at 847-970-4938 and I personally look forward to seeing you on the course!
