THE STONE REJECTED HAS BECOME THE CORNERSTONE.

Mt 21:42

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"The stone rejected has become the cornerstone."

Well, I'm back! I have returned from our parish pilgrimage in Italy. From the papal audience to the excavations of Pompei to the Greek temples in Sicily it was an adventure of a lifetime. I was privileged to accompany so many parishioners. Among many things, the trip was a journey of faith.

Visiting places immersed in the reality of antiquity, one does get a sense of perspective. Many of the challenges we face today can be seen from a different perspective when we approach them from a historical point of view. There were many times when the Church came very close to rejecting the stone which had become the cornerstone!

I recently had the opportunity to discuss John McGreevy's extraordinary book, "Catholicism: A Global History from the French Revolution to Pope Francis" with a group in the parish. Some of the divisions and conflicts we have today pale in comparison with the outright attempts to physically and militarily destroy the Church. Time and time again the cornerstone of the Church proved it could not be destroyed and always came out stronger.

Many of these conflicts at their source were about power, ego and control. Often when the Church was brought to her knees, the mission of Jesus emerged, the promise of the Kingdom of God proclaimed, and a period of rebirth signaled a new more engaged church. This process is not easy. Some people would rather go down in flames than to be open to the redemptive voice of the Holy Spirit.

When the Pope gave up the Papal States at the time of the Lateran Treaty, many thought this was the beginning of the end. The moral power of the papacy has never been stronger, now that the pope was freed from defending an antiquated political structure.

The Synod of Bishops gathered in Rome these days needs our prayers as voices never before heard will be at the table as the Pope convenes a Synod where the goal is to listen in prayer as we navigate the future.

As I assess our parish, we have much to be grateful for and much more to do if we are to be an effective agent of evangelization. Our recent survey has outlined many concerns that a vital and life-giving parish must address. How do we reach out to those who have drifted away from regular participation in our liturgical life? What about young people trying to figure out how faith is relevant in a secular culture? How does the proclamation of the Good News transform our families, our parish, the larger world.

God has blessed us! I was walking around campus the other night and I loved seeing all the lights on. Religious Education was gathering our young people, every meeting room in the parish center was ablaze with many groups meeting, the choir was rehearsing in the Church and the Playdium was filled to the rafters. Stuff is happening here!

Recently, you may have received letters beginning our annual stewardship program. It is crucial that from time to time to honestly reflect on how I am a faithful steward. People jump to the assumption that this is all about money but when we look at the pillars of being a good steward of time, talent, and treasure, the most precious is time.

As we look forward with hope to the future of our parish, we praise God for the faithful stewards of the past. Now it is our turn to ensure OLPH can build on that foundation so the generations of the future will also know a vital, vigorous and thriving community of faith.

Please be open to this process of discernment. I am not asking for money; I am asking for a generosity of spirit that will encourage a renewal of hearts and faithful commitment to lead us as a stronger parish. You have responded with such commitment in the past and I know with all my heart you will be open to making sure that the cornerstone of our faith will not be rejected.

For the next few weeks, we will together enter this process. I hope we don't get derailed on the money part. It is certainly a significant aspect of the stewardship conversation. But, if out of this process several folks who have been drifting away get reengaged, if several folks step forward to get more actively involved in parish life, I, (we) will be thrilled. If we can touch the hearts of our teenagers and young adults, it will be worth every moment.

I am so grateful for your continued generous response to the "Bridge the Gap" Appeal. We have made up so much of our deficit. Thank you! I just want to assure you that I take very seriously the trust you place in me and my staff in terms of the tremendous sacrifices you make to ensure we have the resources to meet our mission. The summer was full of capital projects, but we would never embark on a project if we did not have the money to undertake the project in the first place. Also, with the generosity of donors and your support of the Catholic Appeal, we were able to replace our deteriorating carpet and will install the new bells. The renovation of McDonnell Hall is a project of the "To Teach Who Christ Is" campaign and special bequests. We are preparing our annual report that will go into much more detail.

I was very saddened to hear about the unexpected death of Bishop Kevin Birmingham. He was a tremendous priest and bishop. May he rest in peace.

It is great to have Fr. Patrick home! He will be back full-time in just a couple of weeks.

Another highlight for me on my pilgrimage was leading our group in prayer at the foot of the Icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. We visited her Shrine at the Church of St. Alphonsus in Rome. She has been our anchor for the past 104 years and will always be at our side as we face the future.

I am so glad to be back!

Intentional Parish Offertory Kick-off Weekend!

As we embark upon our 5-week Intentional Offertory Initiative, I invite you to reflect upon the blessings you have received from God as well as the hopes you have for our parish. Prayerfully consider how your generosity of time, talent, and treasure can strengthen our mission, ministries, and operations.

At the conclusion of this 5-week journey, I will ask you to specifically re-evaluate your financial commitment to OLPH so that, together, we have the needed resources to reach more people with the Gospel, bring them into a life-giving relationship with Jesus Christ and support one another on our shared journey as His disciples.

Thank you!

Fr. Jeremiah Boland

OLPH Parish Survey Results

We continue to share with you results of the OLPH parishwide survey* we conducted last spring. The survey results identified both strengths, challenges, and opportunities. This week we will begin to look at opportunities for growth.

In the September 17 Bulletin, we presented responses to questions regarding "Belief in Core Catholic Teaching" that reflected strong agreement in beliefs about the Resurrection, the Eucharist, and Scripture. Today, we present areas in this category where responses did not reflect the same level of agreement with core teachings.

Belief in Core Catholic Teaching

"I personally believe in the teaching authority of the Church."

Agree 31%

Strongly Agree 39%

70% core belief

I personally believe the Church is critical to my relationship with God.

Strongly Agree 44%

Agree 30%

74% core belief

I personally believe in Jesus' moral teachings for my life as taught by the Church.

Strongly Agree 48%

Agree 35%

83% core belief

We can see from these survey results that we as individual Catholics and as a parish have an opportunity to explore how to strengthen our beliefs in these particular teachings.

More to come next week!

*Survey results refer to survey respondents who responded to each specific question, not to OLPH parishioners as a whole. If a "no response" was given to any question, it would not be included in the percentages listed above.

OLPH BOOK CLUB

OLPH Book Club returns with a new adventure in reading!

Come and join Fr. Jim as Book Club is back with a brand new book!

On September 7, Fr James Martin SJ, published his new book titled, "Come Forth: The Promise of Jesus' Greatest Miracle".

"Come Forth" explores the story of Jesus' greatest miracle-the raising of Lazarus – and what it means when he calls each of us to "come forth". With great compassion and wisdom, Fr Martin leads us verse by verse, offering profound reflections on Jesus's lesson of love, family, sadness, frustration, fear, anger, freedom and joy.

Each chapter has a list of questions at the end so we can reflect on the chapter.

Fr Martin is the author of many books that have been widely received over the years. Among them are: "A Pilgrimage, Learning to Pray", "Seven Last Words", and "Building Bridges."

The sessions will be three consecutive Wednesdays in November: 11/1, 11/8 and 11/15 at 7:00pm.

New Location: We will be meeting on the third floor of the Parish Center by the fireplace.

Please email me at:

jbarrett@olphglenview.org or leave a message at 224.521.9348, so I will know how many chairs I will need.

Since the book is so new, you may wish to order it at Bookends & Beginnings in Evanston (224.999.7722), Barnes and Noble or through Harper Collins.

Looking forward to seeing you in November!

Youth Ministry

What is Youth Ministry at OLPH?

Our Mission: To dynamically engage our teens in the life of our OLPH parish and create a presence on campus and in our community, through a variety of experiences of worship and service, friendship and fun.

We regularly gather on Sundays twice each month from 5:00-7:30pm. We begin each Youth Ministry evening with 5:00pm Mass, ministered by our teens. After Mass we walk to our Youth Room for a meal, games and the activity of the evening.

One Sunday is Youth Group, the more "worship oar" of our program, the other Sunday is Spaghetti and Service, the more "service oar" of our program. We are hoping to add some "open gym" times to our program soon. There are also many additional "pop-up" opportunities throughout the year.

We offer trainings for our Confirmed teens to serve as lectors and Eucharistic Ministers at our weekly Masses and Russell Stern welcomes all teen musicians to join the Music Ministry.

To receive information about Youth Ministry and upcoming events please text OLPHYM to 84576 or email Zoe Sundstrom at youthministry@olpghlenview.org

On Sunday September 24th, Youth Ministry celebrated Mass and enjoyed a spaghetti meal. After the meal, we assembled 144 Brown Bags for our Sharing Parishes.

After assembly, some of our teens led us in prayer and in a blessing of the bags.

A note from Betty Collins of the Sharing Ministry expressed, "What a joyful surprise when I walked into the room this morning! Please know we've been getting requests from our sharing parishes and, thanks to your efforts, we have some to send down!"

THANK YOU, ALL!

Spaghetti & Service

Sunday, October 22nd
5:00pm Mass for 7th - 12th graders and their families

After Mass, we will have dinner and assemble 180 Halloween Goodie Bags for the children at Our Lady of Tepeyac School

Youth Ministry will provide the bags. We need YOU to donate the "goodies." Please use the code or the link below to sign up for donations.
