OLPH CHRISTMAS 2023

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"Within our darkness, shines His everlasting light."

We are approaching the days with the least amount of sunlight. In a few weeks we will mark the Winter Solstice, the shortest day.

Many people suffer from seasonal affective disorder as they deal with the impact diminishing sunlight has on their emotional wellbeing. People report feeling sad or depressed, difficulty sleeping, loss of energy. I know I am affected by the long periods of darkness. I need light!

This weekend, we begin the Season of Advent, a wonderful time of the year when our days are marked by a growing anticipation of Christmas. We prepare for the celebration of Christ's birth.

The actual birthdate of Jesus has been lost to history. The early Christians connected Christian feasts with popular pagan celebrations to not draw undue attention to themselves. The persecution of Christians was more than enough reason to be careful.

It is significant that the early Christians chose to celebrate the birth of Christ around the winter solstice. When the world was consumed by darkness, the Christians celebrated the birth Jesus Christ, the Light of the World.

This Advent, we cannot escape the darkness caused by the Wars in Ukraine, Israel, Gaza, Palestine and South Sudan. It is heartbreaking that all Christmas celebrations in Bethlehem have been cancelled because of the violence that has consumed that part of the world.

During this Advent, we fervently pray that we all can embrace the awareness that "within our darkness, shines His everlasting light. The Advent season proclaims the reality that light prevails against darkness, hope prevails over despair.

Whether it is a global conflict or the feeling of being overwhelmed on a personal level, we are invited to embrace the light of Christ.

We need to accept that, as the prophet Isaiah reflects this weekend, "we are the clay, you are the potter." We need to be formed by the Lord as we witness to the light of Christ in the world.

My prayer for all of us is that this Advent will be a series of revelations of the light, especially in those places where some darkness has crept in. Let us be liberated by the light of Christ.

We had a wonderful celebration of the Glenview Ecumenical Prayer service here at OLPH. I am grateful to Fr. Larry Basbas, Russel Stern, and Marge André for helping plan an event that was so beautiful.

Pope St. John Paul II often challenged the Church that now is the time for the New Advent. Amen! We need a new moment of being born again in the brightness of the Kingdom of God. We need to pray for one another! Let's journey together. We need each other as we confront our darkness with "His everlasting light."

The anticipation of the light of the Advent Season is already shining bright here at OLPH because of you! The Women's Club Food Drive was simply amazing. We helped stock four of our Sharing Parish pantries for the holidays with thousands of food products. I am amazed, as always, by your generosity. Hundreds of winter coats were collected by the Men's Club. We collected an unbelievable number of sleeping bags for migrants for our sharing parish of St. Sabina.

Thanks to the OLPH School Food Drive that added thousands of food products to our families in need. Thank you to everyone who supported the Jewel on Patriot's Turkey Dinner give away. We had almost 200 complete turkey dinners for families in need. Thank you!

A special thank you to Sr. Paulanne who connects so many families in need here in our community. She is unbelievable in her compassion. Thanks to all who have submitted their pledge cards for the stewardship appeal. We are still accepting cards! Thanks to everyone supporting our Befriend a Family Program.

Our annual Advent Penance Service will be Dec. 5 at St Catherine Laboure at 7:00pm. I know this seems early, but because Christmas Eve is on the Fourth Sunday of Advent, this year things are so compressed. There is no Fourth Week, so we had to schedule it earlier than usual. We will of course have confessions on Saturdays at 4:00pm.

Within Our Darkness Shines His Everlasting Light

Margie André

This year's Advent theme, "Within Our Darkness Shines His Everlasting Light," speaks of hope—of keeping hope alive even in our darkest hour. God had promised a Messiah to His people who were waiting in darkness. With the birth of Jesus a bright light came into the world, and that bright light has never left us. Even when we cannot see it, it is there, always shining.

All of us have times of darkness in our lives—the illness or death of a loved one, the loss of a job, a broken relationship, or the violence and conflict in our world. What do we do when the darkness descends? How do we keep it from consuming us?

The darkest time of my life was forty-seven years ago when my husband left me with three small children, aged five years, three years, and one month. At the time, we were also doing major remodeling on our home, and the work was only partially finished.

Overnight, I became a single mother dealing with a broken marriage, a broken home, and a broken heart. Needless-to-say, I felt very alone and very ill-equipped to handle what was now facing me. I was close to despair but knew that I had to hold it together for my children.

I remember waking up each morning and sitting on the side of my bed, praying, "Please God, help me through this day." Seven simple words, but for me they said it all, and only after saying those words, would I rise and begin all the tasks that faced me.

God was my light and my hope. I placed all my faith in Him; my life and the lives of my children were in His arms. I remember refusing to think about the future and what it would or would not bring. Each new day was challenge enough, and I just kept putting one foot in front of the other and moving forward. Within my darkness, I felt the light of Christ. I just wanted to keep moving toward that light. He was showing me the way.

It is often difficult to see God's plan for our lives when the darkness surrounds us, and so we desperately ask, "Why me, Lord"? Only later, often much later, do we understand what God had in mind for us, why He chose a path so different from the one we chose for ourselves.

God's will is not always easy to follow; it takes us to places we do not always want to go. The important thing to remember is that we never walk alone. Jesus is with us through all the dark times, all the storms of our lives. He is our light at the end of the tunnel, our rainbow at the end of the storm.

As we prepare for Christmas and the coming of Our Lord, let us look to the light of Christ to be the beacon that guides us safely through our days.

May we look to the Lord always and truly believe that "Within Our Darkness Shines His Everlasting Light."

Why is it meaningful to walk to the Shrine for the feast?

This Shrine has a very special connection with the original Basilica of Mexico. In 1996, a digital replica of the original image of Our Lady of Guadalupe was received at the site of today's shrine. This was the first replica to officially be sent to an international destination from the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico. In 1997, the Rector of the Basilica in Mexico blessed and named this site as the Cerrito del Tepeyac de Chicago, or Little Tepeyac Hill. The Rector poured soil brought from the original Cerro del Tepeyac in Mexico City and blessed and enthroned the image of Our Lady in the new Cerrito.

This important visit consolidated a significant and permanent relationship between this site and the Basilica of Mexico, making it a place where pilgrims can fulfill their pledges or promises to Our Lady of Guadalupe as if they were being fulfilled at the Basilica of Mexico. In 2013, Francis Cardinal George canonically declared that the Cerrito del Tepeyac de Chicago would be known and formally established as the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Today, just like in Mexico, people walk to the Shrine to visit Our Lady. Walking slows us down, helps us spiritually connect with nature, and quiets our minds so we may hear God speak in our heart and possibly answer deep questions. That is what a pilgrimage is all about. Join us for this new Advent tradition!

THE STORY OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

On December 9, 1531, on Tepeyac Hill in Mexico City, Our Lady appeared to Juan Diego, a humble Aztec Indian and recent Catholic convert. She asked him to go to tell the Bishop to build a church where she said "I will show and offer all of my love, my compassion, my help and my protection to my people." Juan Diego did as she asked, but the Bishop asked for a sign that this message was really from Our Lady.

Mary granted his request. On December 12, she showed Juan where the most beautiful Castilian roses were and told him to gather them. It was a miracle that the roses were there and in bloom because there was frost on the ground and it was an infertile place where only cactus and thistles grew. After he gathered them, she helped arrange them in his tilma, or poncho, and told him to show them to the Bishop. When he brought them to the Bishop, the Bishop was amazed at the roses, but was even more amazed at what appeared on Juan Diego's tilma--the image of Our Lady! The picture of Mary was beautiful and the Bishop fell to his knees. He had the church built at her request.

The tilma is still intact after 490 years. The colors have not faded and the cloth has not deteriorated. It has been on display in the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City for all this time.

The manner in which Our Lady appeared on the tilma was very significant to the Aztec Indians. God had her dressed in a way that they would understand who she was. She was dressed in royal clothes that showed she was very important, perhaps a queen. She also had the symbol of the cross at her neck which was the same symbol the Spaniards had on their ships and in the churches they built. She had a sash tied around her waist which meant that she was with child, for this was the way the Aztec women dressed when they were pregnant. And on her beautiful dress were all sorts of designs and flowers.

But there was one flower on her dress that was very significant. It had only four petals. To the Aztecs, the four-petal flower was the symbol for the true God, the God above all gods. This flower was located on her abdomen, right over the place where Jesus was growing inside of her. The Aztecs immediately understood that this was the mother of the true God!

This appearance of Our Lady of Guadalupe was very important to the history of our continent. You see, the Aztec Indians and the Spaniards were on the brink of war. The Aztec Indians' culture and religion were very different from the Spaniards. They worshipped gods, to whom they would offer human sacrifices, often killing 50,000 people a year.

The Spaniards, who were Catholic, were naturally appalled by this. But they were cruel to the Aztecs too, treating them like animals and sometimes killing them for no reason. If a war had occurred, it would have been brutal and the Spaniards and Christianity might have been wiped out. The apparition changed everything, however. It helped the Indians to embrace Christianity and it helped the Spaniards to treat the Indians with respect and as human beings. Most importantly, it put an end to the worship of stone gods and the ritual of human sacrifice.

Mary's appearing to Juan Diego as one of his own people is a powerful reminder that Mary—and the God who sent her—accepts all peoples. While a number of them had converted before this incident, they now came in droves. According to a contemporary chronicler, nine million Indians became Catholic in a very short time.

In these days when we hear so much about God's preferential option for the poor, Our Lady of Guadalupe cries out to us that God's love for and identification with the poor is a truth that stems from the Gospel itself.

Today, we recognize Our Lady of Guadalupe as the Patroness of the Americas who never fails to give her love, her compassion, her help, and her protection to her people.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us!

Ministers of Care

Congratulations to our Newly Commissioned Ministers of Care

On Sunday, November 19, four new Ministers of Care were Commissioned. These new Ministers of Care completed 10 hours of training, and are now mandated by the Archdiocese of Chicago to bring Holy Communion to the sick and homebound of our parish. Currently over 70 men and women from OLPH are Ministers of Care and are actively serving in area hospitals and nursing homes, as well as visiting the homebound.

Ministers of Care visit the sick and homebound with the Holy Eucharist, share the word of God in scripture, pray with them for the Church and the world, and offer companionship. Ministers of Care are a sign of the support and concern that our Church has for the sick, the elderly, the homebound, and those experiencing a time of need.

Congratulations to Becky Gamino-Parrott, Jeri Grein, Susan Olsen and Laura Welch who have now joined this wonderful ministry of service to the sick, disabled and homebound here in our parish. If you know of someone who may benefit from a visit by a Minister of Care, be a Good Samaritan by helping us to make contact and keep connected those most in need of the support and love of our Christian community, as well as the opportunity to receive the gift of Holy Communion.

PARENT EFFECTIVENESS TRAINING

PARENT EFFECTIVENESS TRAINING

FEWER POWER-STRUGGLES, LESS TENSIONS, LESS RESENTMENT AND MORE PEACFUL FAMILIES

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

The four basic skills every parent needs are:

1. How to talk to your children so that they will listen to you.
2. How to listen to your children so they feel genuinely understood.
3. How to resolve conflicts and problems in your family so that no one loses and problems stay solved.
4. A method for troubleshooting family problems and knowing which skills to use to solve them.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

P.E.T. is for parents of children of all ages. Naturally, special considerations have to be made for pre-verbal children, which is covered in the workshop.

For questions or more information, please email us at: pet.olphglenview@gmail.com

WHAT IS PARENT EFFECTIVENESS TRAINING (P.E.T.)?

Whether you're the parent of a toddler or a teenager, you know that parenting can be challenging—even overwhelming at times. Unfortunately, children don't come with an instruction manual. And, being a parent doesn't always mean that you automatically or instinctively know what to do. Parent Effectiveness Training (P.E.T.) offers proven communication skills that really work. When they use these skills, parents are amazed with the dramatic improvement both in their families and in all their relationships.

HOW YOU AND YOUR FAMILY WILL BENEFIT

Your children will feel free to discuss their problems and concerns with you instead of withdrawing.

They will learn self-discipline, self-control and an inner sense of personal responsibility.

You will learn how to work with each other instead of against each other.

You'll experience fewer angry outbursts and more problem-solving.

Everyone can participate in rule-setting so all will feel motivated to comply with the rules.

Fewer power struggles—less tension, less resentment, more fun, more peace, more love.

Liturgical New Year's Celebration

On Sunday November 26th we gathered for Mass, dinner, dessert, and a toast to the new Liturgical Year.

Andrew, our seminarian, talked with us about Service and Advent-how the Holy Family's journey was one of complete service and sacrifice.

We then wrote letters to the families of St. Catherine Laboure who lost a loved one this past year. We were a bit afraid at first, but our letters are beautiful and will be delivered during Advent.

What a special and fun night we shared!

OLPH supports the Retirement Fund for Religious by contributing to the Archdiocesan collection for this purpose, which will take place the weekend of December 9 -10. We do this as part of our parish First Fruits Program, in lieu of taking up a second collection.

As a reminder, the first 6% of each weekly and holyday offertory collection is set aside for our First Fruits Program. Instead of taking up certain second collections, OLPH splits this 6% among our four sharing parishes and five named Archdiocesan second collections over the course of the year. This Archdiocesan second collection for our retired Religious priests, brothers, and sisters, is one of the second collections funded through our First Fruits Program.

If you choose, however, to make a separate gift, there is a button GiveCentral OLPH portal for this purpose. Scan the QR Code below to go directly to this portal.

Let us also remember to pray in thanksgiving for the many religious order priests, brothers and sisters who have touched our lives over the years.
