seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"For when I am weak, I am strong"

This reflection of St. Paul in his Letter to the Corinthians this week speaks a profound truth about the Christian journey. It is often in our weakness that we encounter the strength in our faith to endure, to persevere, to eventually thrive.

When many people look back on some of the most difficult times in their lives, they come to see that it was then that they learned the most, grew the most. I suppose it is only in retrospection that we see what we could not see or appreciate in the moment of grief, anxiety or regret. Through our weakness, we became stronger in the faith,

I am struck by this when I visit people who are quite ill. Living with pain and uncertainty we are faced with the power of being truly dependent on God's grace. As we face struggles born of conflict with others, disillusionment or discouragement we can be drawn to consider the love of Christ which can lift us out of the grip of weakness.

I am aware of the impact our Ministers of Care have when they visit the hospitalized and home bound. While the person they are visiting may be physically or emotionally weak, the strength of their faith is an inspiration. The Eucharist gives life and hope unlike anything else.

Often as people encounter the reality of addiction, they see the only way to health and recovery is a much deeper dependence on the love of Christ.

During my recent pilgrimage to Norway and Sweden I was struck about the glorious landscape of this part of the world. In a place of such natural beauty and place where the quality of life is strong, there is a struggle to find a place for worship and faith. Christians have been in Scandinavia since the 8th century.

Queen Christina fled Sweden in the 17th century, converted to Catholicism and lived in the Vatican for protection. She is one of only 6 women buried in the basilica. A monument to her is right across from where the Pieta is venerated.

The Swedish Reformation of the 16th century severed the Scandinavian Christians from Rome and a bitter persecution of Catholics resulted to rid the influence of the Roman Catholics. A faithful remnant persevered. "For when we are weak, we are strong." In recent years there has been a tremendous healing on some levels.

Catholics are not persecuted and a mutual respect for our common lineage of faith has emerged. Lutheran/Catholic dialogue is evident and positive.

The biggest treat to Christianity in Scandinavia these days

Queen Christina's sarcophagus in the papal crypt at the Vatican is not the lingering suffering of the Reformation, but the threat secularization poses. The culture is non-religious in its sensibilities. Very few people belong formally to a Christian faith community. Very few are baptized and celebrations of Christmas or Easter are more social than expressions of events sacred to Christian heritage. While Catholics are a very small minority, they have a much higher percentage of being active members of a faith community.

There is much hope that a recovery of Christian faith will emerge in this place of such beauty and prosperity.

I hear the Fourth of July Parade in town was terrific with our own Lou Marohn serving as Grand Marshall.

Special thanks to the Women's Club for their donation of over $260,000 this past year! This gift is a result of so much hard work and commitment to the mission of our parish. I thank the former president, Debbie Mulroy and all our guilds that strove to support the parish so generously.

Please keep in your prayers the success of the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, we have several parishioners attending. We pray that the graces of the Eucharistic Revival in this country will bear much fruit.

May your week be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

OLPH Novena to Our Lady of Mount Carmel for the National Eucharistic Congress

Mon., July 8 – Tue., July 16

Feast Day of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

8:30 Feast Day Mass with Fr. Larry

The National Eucharistic Congress is taking place in Indianapolis, Indiana, from July 17 to July 21. Jesus is calling us back to our first love for a new Pentecost. Our prayers to Our Lady of Mount Carmel will aid the Holy Spirit in creating profound personal renewal at the National Eucharistic Congress, setting hearts ablaze with love of God and sharing the peace of Christ in our communities.

Carmel Novena prayer cards will be available in the Lady Chapel on July 8 and on the Daily Eblast.

Mission: To renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist

Vision: To inspire a movement of Catholics across the United States who are healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist—and who are then sent out on mission “for the life of the world.”

Novena to Our Lady of Mount Carmel

O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel,

Fruitful vine, splendor of heaven,
Blessed Mother of the Son of God,
Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this my necessity.

O Star of the Sea, help me and show here that you are my Mother.

O Holy Mary, Mother of God,

Queen of Heaven and earth,
I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity.

There are none that can withstand your power.

O show me herein that you are my Mother.

Our Lady, Queen and Beauty of Carmel,

Pray for me and obtain my request.

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands. Amen.

Carmel, Des Plaines

Save the Date!

Join us for the next OLPH book club event at 7:00pm, Sept. 17 in the third-floor meeting room of the Parish Center.

This year's book is: While You Were Out by Meg Kissinger.

Meg and her family grew up in Wilmette during the '60s.

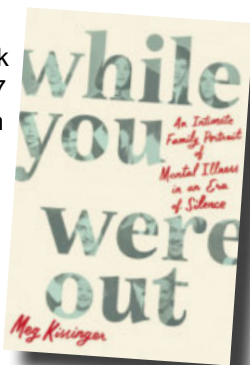

Behind closed doors, a harsh reality was unfolding — a heavily medicated mother hospitalized for anxiety and depression, a father prone to violence, and children in the throes of bipolar disorder and depression, two of whom would take their own lives. Through it all, The Kissingers faced the world with their signature dark humor and unspoken family rule: NEVER TALK ABOUT IT.

Meg has appeared at numerous events in the area. Recently, she and two other women shared how life experiences shaped their faith.

You are welcome to join the group after you have read the book. Please let me know you are attending.

Hope this gives you enough time to read the book. Some of you may know the family.

Sharing Ministry

Summer Hunger

Please continue to hear the cry of the poor with donations of non-perishables to the Sharing Resource Center (SRC), bins at church entries, through the kids at offertory or through donations through Give Central using the QR code. Summer finds food donations considerably down as we are distracted by the activities of the season. Please continue to give.

Summer Clothing for Sharing

Please consider donating clothing items you will no longer need to the SRC. We welcome in-season, gently used items which will be passed on to those in need. Please do not donate winter clothing as neither the SRC or the outlets we serve have storage space.

Watch for the bins outside our SRC on Tuesday and Thursday from 7:00am – noon and on Sundays from 8:00am – noon. Volunteers are additionally there on Sundays.

Feed the Homeless at Catholic Charities/Des Plaines

We are looking for volunteers to help us serve a meal to homeless people visiting this soup kitchen on July 18 and Aug. 6. Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Sunday Mornings

We are in need of volunteers to work on Sunday mornings in the SRC. Shifts run from 8 - 10 and 10 to noon. Volunteers self-schedule and choose the shifts and dates that work best. Work a two hour shift every three months or sign up more frequently. Contact Janis Moylan, jlp1231@gmail.com

Used Cars for Sr. Paulanne's Clients

Sr. Paulanne has a few clients in dire need of a car to get to and from work. If you have a vehicle to donate which is in good working condition, please contact Tom Hart, thart2020@aol.com. A donation letter will be provided.

Musical Instruments for Ugandan Children

Fr. Patrick will be traveling to Uganda later this year and would like to bring along several instruments:

- 4 Violins
- 1 Clarinet
- 1 Recorder
- 1 Acoustic Guitar

Contact Betty Collins, collinsjustbetty@gmail.com regarding donations.

Urgent Need for Gift Cards

There are an estimated 100 people outside the rectory door at St. Sabina's each morning, people desperate for any support they can get. Fr. Pflieger is in need of gift cards to McDonald's and Subway, which he distributes to these mostly homeless people who come to his door. Please drop donations off at the OLPH Parish Center, marking your gift cards for Fr. Pflieger.

Meal Ministry Needs Cooks

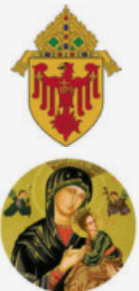

The Sharing Meal Ministry provides meals to parishioners in temporary need of meal support due to illness or other matters, with OLPH cooks preparing and delivering a warm meal. Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net

Legacy Planning

Give a Gift that Gives Back:

Take Advantage of Higher Payout Rates!

Charitable gift annuity payout rates have increased – allowing you the opportunity to benefit more from your giving and to help ensure that God's good work continues. When you establish a charitable gift annuity with the archdiocese, not only will you receive fixed payments for life, but you can designate our parish as the remainder beneficiary.

How It Works:

1. Make a gift of $10,000 or more to the Archdiocese of Chicago. Fund your gift annuity with cash or securities.
2. Receive fixed payments for life – for yourself or a loved one age 60 or older. Payment rates are based upon the age of the annuitant at the time you establish the gift annuity.
3. Enjoy immediate and future tax benefits, including a federal income tax deduction for a portion of your gift, if you itemize. You can schedule payments according to your financial needs, and a portion of each annuity payment will be tax-free (through life expectancy).
4. The funds remaining after your lifetime will support our parish or school – as designated by you.

For more information, please contact contact Mary Lynne Januszewski, Director of Finance & Operations at OLPH, via email at: mjanuszewski@olphglenview.org or visit giving.archchicago.org/cga. To receive a free, no-obligation personalized illustration of how you could benefit from a Charitable Gift Annuity, contact Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.534.5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org are coming together to invite all OLPH women to...

“Refresh, Renew, Respond: An Ignatian, Silent Weekend Retreat for Women”

October 11 - 13, 2024

Bellarmino Jesuit Retreat House

420 W. County Line Road, Barrington, IL

Jesus calls all people, and each of us in particular, to join him in building his kingdom. Retreating gives each of us an opportunity to refresh our ears to what Jesus sounds like and to renew our hearts to respond to his call. We'll use elements of St. Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises to aid us in that refreshment and renewal.

Fr. Brad Held

Our Retreat Leader:

Fr. Brad Held, SJ

Pastor of 9 parishes in Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota, and Sister Paulanne's nephew!

When The Way and Sharing Ministries saw Fr. Brad's retreat on Bellarmine's Fall schedule, we took it as a sign that we are meant to attend. All women need time away to quiet their minds and renew their spirits so we can hear God speaking to us in our hearts.

It would be a blessing for the OLPH family of women to be on retreat together with Sister Paulanne's nephew.

This retreat includes...

- Multiple spiritual presentations
- Daily Mass
- 6 meals
- Tons of peace
- No group sharing discussions...this is a silent retreat. You can do it!
- Opportunity for one-on-one spiritual direction with a trained spiritual director
- Time to explore 80 acres of gorgeous grounds and almost 60,000 square feet of interior space
- All activities are optional--you can use the weekend to read, sleep, explore, ponder and reflect in the quiet. It's your time with Jesus!

- Timing: Arrive between 4:00 and 5:30 pm on Friday and depart by 1:00 pm on Sunday after lunch
 - Cost: $365 suggested contribution; a $100 non-refundable deposit is required upon registering
- If you are not able to afford the retreat, call Bellarmine at 847-381-1261 or Jen Farber at 847-840-5899 for options; we will get you there!

About the Retreat House

Bellarmino is located on 80 acres with both woodlands and prairie grasses. It has two libraries, a resource center, two chapels, and many other common areas. Outdoor spaces include various walking trails, various prayer gardens, a gazebo, stations of the cross, as well as a few patios and outdoor chairs and benches. Each retreatant has their own bedroom.

About 40 minutes from Glenview, Bellarmine is just far enough away to separate yourself from your daily routine but close enough to be home by early Sunday afternoon.

Scan the QR code below to register and feel free to reach out to Jen Farber with questions at TheWayOLPH@gmail.com

The Real Presence: Mary's Interior Life

Weekly 3-Minute Reflections on the Eucharist using excerpts from 30 Day Eucharistic Revival by Fr. Don Calloway, MIC

"Mary adored the Eucharist with a most submissive faith. Mary's adoration was profound, interior, and intimate. It was the gift of herself. She offered her whole self to the service of love of the Eucharistic God. Eucharistic adorers share Mary's life and mission of prayer at the foot of the Most Blessed Sacrament. It is the most beautiful of all missions, and it holds no perils. It is the most holy, for in it all the virtues are practiced."

St. Peter Julian Eymard

– St. Peter Julian Eymard, the Apostle of the Eucharist 1811-1868

Reflection

After the Ascension of Jesus, Mary had to adjust to Jesus' new way of being present to her. He was now hidden from view under the veil of the Eucharist. This way of being with Jesus requires great faith, trust, love and an intense interior life.

Naturally, as his mother, Mary would have missed and longed for the physical, visible presence of her Jesus: his eyes, voice, smile, laughter, and facial features. Yet by faith she knew that her dearest Jesus was just as present to her in the Eucharist as he was in the cradle in Bethlehem and in their home in Nazareth.

As Mother of the Church and spiritual mother to all the disciples of Jesus, Mary desires to teach all her spiritual children that they too can trust that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist and put full confidence in knowing that he is with them in this hidden manner.

Our Lady teaches the importance of living this sort of interior life. Without an interior life, we cannot lead Eucharistic lives. Without an interior life, we run the risk of becoming busybodies, too preoccupied with action; too involved in the things of the world to prepare for Holy Mass, and too consumed with tasks to spend time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament.

Our Lady helped transform the world through her prayers, penances, and love for Jesus in the Eucharist. If we follow her selfless example, we too can set the world aflame with love for Jesus!

Prayer to Increase your Interior Life

Dear Jesus, my Eucharistic Lord, teach me to be more like Mary. I pray for the grace of an interior Eucharistic life. Like Mary, I want to live for you alone and never be far from you.

Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament, give me a share in the spiritual intimacy that you share with Jesus in the Eucharist.

St. Joseph, instruct me in the ways of prayer, adoration, and the interior life.

St. Peter Julian Eymard, Apostle of the Eucharist, fill me with your Eucharistic zeal so that I might love the Blessed Sacrament above all things.

Amen.

Fr. James Ssebunnya's Prayer

In the June 23 Bulletin, we included Fr. James Ssebunnya's prayer after Holy Communion. There has been such a high interest in this prayer that we have made more laminated copies. You can pick one up the next time you are in church. They are located in a basket on the piano in the Lady Chapel. Take two and give one to a friend!
