seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"Be kind to one another, compassionate."

One of the great movies in recent months has been Cabrini. The film tells the story of a Catholic missionary, Francesca Cabrini who encountered resistance in her ministry to immigrants. It is now available on cable tv.

While the movie focuses on her experiences in New York City in the 19th century, Mother Cabrini established hospitals, schools, and orphanages in many places in the United States. She spent a lot of time here in Chicago. She was a frequent Mass goer at my former parish, Holy Family on Roosevelt Road. The first statue acknowledging her canonization is venerated in that church.

There are many legendary stories that are still told about her in Little Italy on Taylor Street. Her hospital was in the neighborhood that cared for the poor. She was a power to be reckoned with, so committed to her sense of mission and purpose.

Founders of religious communities are remarkable people and Mother Cabrini was no exception. As a little girl she almost drowned which resulted in her having a tremendous fear of water and she suffered throughout her life with lung issues. When attempting challenges that would seem unobtainable, she was often told, "stay where you belong," which meant to assume a life of being a semi-invalid. Whenever told this she would rise above everyone's wildest expectations. Her life was an inspiration to the power of perseverance, to never give up on your dreams, and to keep moving forward in life.

The 19th century America was very unwelcoming to immigrants, especially those that did not speak English, one could argue much has not changed,

Mother Cabrini would often say, "you did not choose to enter this world, but you can choose how to live in it."

Mother Cabrini was driven by a deep love of the Eucharist. She was a daily Mass goer that she claimed was essential in her ability to respond to the most basic of needs, to inspire others to join her and to combat the prejudice that tortured recently arrived immigrants.

As we continue to reflect on the Eucharist during these weeks of the "Bread of Life Discourses", Mother Cabrini's legacy reminds us that the fruits of the Eucharist can be manifested in the ability to "be kind to one another and compassionate" as St. Paul teaches in the second reading.

This weekend we are delighted to welcome Bishop Jeffrey Grob, our Vicar, who will preside at the 10:30am Mass and bless and dedicate our new bells and clock tower. Welcome Bishop Grob!

In ancient times when I was a child, we would watch the movie, "The Bells of Saint Mary's" with Bing Crosby. In modern times we can listen to the bells of Our Lady of Perpetual Help!

The original bell system built in 1949 had long been silent due to deterioration over time and the ability to get spare parts. It was parishioner Jack Horbal who suggested we get the bells replaced and started a campaign to raise funds. Many parishioners came forward to support the project and several parishioners made major gifts so we could not only replace the bell system but renovate and upgrade the clock tower.

The new bells have a library of hundreds of hymns and special effects. It is bluetooth capable. The clock runs on a digital format. It will serve the community for years to come.

The tradition of church bells goes back to the 4th century and, in a way, was the village's alarm clock. The bells woke you up in the morning, told you when to go to Church, when to pray and when to come home at the end of the day. Bells announced moments of joy and consoled the community at times of death. The bells have become a wonderful addition to our community. Thanks to everyone who has made them possible.

With August, planning for the new program year is in full force. Many of our programs are child-friendly, which I appreciate. Due to changes in our insurance coverage and safety concerns we are not able to have inflatables or bounce houses but there are many other activities for the kids.

Your generosity and support of our outreach to people in need would make Mother Cabrini so proud. I am particularly grateful to Tom and Kay Hart who have led so many of our efforts to assist recently arrived immigrants.

Congratulations to our parishioners celebrating important milestones this week:

Pat & Bob Cienkus 61st Wedding Anniversary

Maria & Armando Triana 50th Wedding Anniversary

Nancy & Larry Eisinger 50th Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations and may God Bless you!

"Be kind to one another, compassionate."

Dedication of the Church Bells & Clock Tower

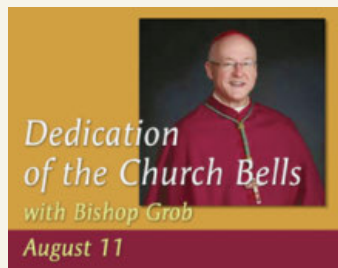

10:30am, Sun. Aug. 11

We are honored to announce that Bishop Jeffrey Grob will be at OLPH on Aug. 11 for the dedication and blessing of the new church bells.

The new Bells and Clock Tower were made possible by the generosity of our parishioners. The major donors of this amazing gift will be recognized at the ceremony and a commemorative plaque will be installed in the West Vestibule church lobby with their names. They include:

- John & Beth Delaney Hartmann
- Victoria and Gregg Goslin '67
- Nancy and H. Joseph Goslin
- Mary McCarthy Hughes
- Michael & Nancy Pins
- Mary Pat & Jack Zur '62
- Betty Collins
- Jack Horbal
- Dawn & David Ludden
- Marianne & Tom Zidar
- and many other parishioners

Bishop Grob will celebrate the 10:30am Mass then perform the blessing afterward. There will be a light reception and a demonstration of the Bells systems. All are invited! It will be a wonderful summer event for all parish families!

7:00pm, Tue., Sept 17

Join us for the next OLPH book club event in the third-floor meeting room of the Parish Center.

This year's book is: While You Were Out by Meg Kissinger.

Meg and her family grew up in Wilmette during the '60s.

Behind closed doors, a harsh reality was unfolding — a heavily medicated mother hospitalized for anxiety and depression, a father prone to violence, and children in the throes of bipolar disorder and depression, two of whom would take their own lives. Through it all, The Kissingers faced the world with their signature dark humor and unspoken family rule: NEVER TALK ABOUT IT.

Meg has appeared at numerous events in the area. Recently, she and two other women shared how life experiences shaped their faith.

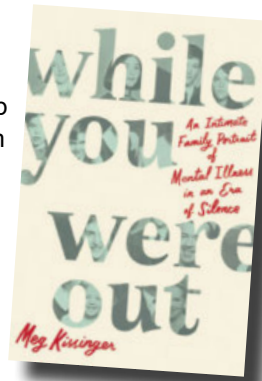

You are welcome to join the group after you have read the book. Please let me know you are attending.

Email me at Jbarrett@olphglenview.org.

Thank you to the two people who sent me a copy of, While You were Out. I would still like the person who borrowed my copy to return it. I heard there is a waiting list at the Glenview Library.

Please feel free to attend the discussion group in September. We already have 12 people signed up with just one announcement.

Peace, Fr. Jim

Stewardship Report

During this fiscal year, we will be including a very short section each month which will provide parishioners with a monthly update on the status of the General Offertory Collection.

Summer months usually reflect a slightly lower level of giving. July 2024 is true to that experience. We would like to thank you for your generous giving, the fruits of which appear below. We would also like to remind those who might have been away, or those who will be going on vacation, that you can set up a one-time, or recurring, gift online through GiveCentral. Your committed support allows us to cover our operational expenses each month. We are ever grateful for all you do.

For the month of July 2024 our monthly collection data is as follows:

	JULY 2024	YTD, FY25
RECEIPTS	$191,963	$191,963
BUDGET	$220,000	$220,000
VARIANCE	($28,037)	($28,037)
FIRST FRUITS @ 6% of above receipts:	$11,518

It is easy to make an online donation to OLPH through GiveCentral.

Sharing Ministry

Summer Hunger

Please continue to hear the cry of the poor with donations of non-perishables to the Sharing Resource Center (SRC), bins at church entries, through the kids at offertory or through donations through Give Central using the QR code. Summer finds food donations considerably down as we are distracted by the activities of the season. Please continue to give.

One guitar needed for Ugandan children

Fr. Patrick Kizza will be traveling to Uganda later this year and is still in need of an acoustic guitar for the children. Contact Betty Collins at collinsjustbetty@gmail.com regarding donations. Thank you to those who have donated their instruments!

Urgent need for gift cards

Fr. Pfeger is in need of gift cards to McDonald's and Subway, which he distributes to the nearly 100 people who gather outside St. Sabina's rectory each morning.

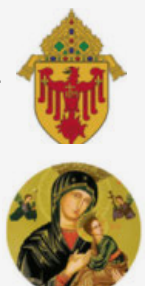

Drop donations off at the OLPH Parish Center, marking your gift cards for Fr. Pfeger.

Learn about the impact you make

Mark your calendars! On Sept. 17 at 7:00pm in Hickey Hall we'll hear from Pastor Fr. Tom Bellanger and Director of Charitable Ministries Meisha Robinson of St. Josephine Bakhita (formerly St. Philip Neri). Learn more about their parish and how your donations to the Sharing Ministry make a difference.

Legacy Planning

Your commitment to supporting priests' well-being is commendable. Consider including a legacy gift for Priests' Health and Retirement to help address the healthcare needs of both active priests and the medical and housing requirements of retired priests. Your generosity will make a lasting impact.

To learn more, you can reach out to Priests' Health and Retirement at 708-449-8026. If you'd like to make a gift today, visit their website at prmaa.org. Your contribution will be deeply appreciated and remembered in the prayers of the priests within the Archdiocese of Chicago.

seek, share, rejoice - eucharistic pilgrimage reflections...

Recently, the National Eucharistic Congress was held in Indianapolis. Some of our parishioners were fortunate to have attended this wonderful event. This week Alyson Ludden shares her experience.

Like always, words cannot do justice in capturing God's grace, peace, and love he gifted me and all those present at the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis; however, I can attempt to describe the personal impact this extraordinary experience had on me.

Like many in college, I have been consumed the past three years in the craziness of academics and social life. Because of this, I have felt more disconnected to my faith than I would have liked to be. Growing up in a strong Catholic family, I held on to the foundational faith I had built at home, continuing to go to Mass while at school every Sunday and becoming a Eucharistic Minister there, but something within my faith-life felt different. This feeling continued to bother me throughout the past three years, so, when given the opportunity to go to the Eucharistic Congress with my dad, I felt a pulling in my heart to go.

Neither of us knew much about the Congress going into it, but we both agreed to go with no expectations and simply go to "be with Jesus." We went in with this perspective, and of course, God being God, went above and beyond in creating an unforgettable experience for us Catholics. My biggest takeaway from the Congress is that it helped "heal" this stagnation in my faith that I had been feeling throughout college.

It did this in three ways. The first is by giving me the resources to deepen my intellectual understanding of Christianity and, therefore, through knowledge, allowing me to grow in my faith. The second is through my personal growth that came from fully understanding Jesus and God's infinite patience with his children and the love he has for each one of us. Lastly, I felt reconnected to the power of prayer, which I had also felt in Medjugorje (something about gathering with tens of thousands of Catholics praying to our God creates this amazing power within prayer).

If you have not had the chance to listen to the speakers from the Congress on YouTube, I promise it will be well worth your time. (Go to our website at <https://olphglenview.org/experience-eucharistic-congress-home> to view all the video content from the Eucharistic Congress.) I have had a thirst in my soul all throughout college for learning more about my faith and coming to a deeper understanding of scripture and God's love. Unfortunately, I have not truly felt that my brain has been stimulated through my theology classes or during the homilies at Mass (I know this is not the purpose of Mass but I always enjoy a more theological but relatable analysis of scripture during the homily). The speakers at the Congress talked about everything from how the Real Presence is what makes the sacrifice at the altar possible to how we need to remind ourselves to not make other people or things our "god." The wide range of topics that were so intellectually, mindfully, and courageously spoken about reignited my awe in God and his Church.

The most impactful part of the Congress for me was Jesus' presence through the Eucharist. Each night ended with Adoration, and there was one night that was especially meaningful. The whole day had been focused on healing, and I found the incredible power that lies in completely allowing God into the wounded areas of your heart. I thought I had let God fully into my heart, but I hadn't, and the moment I did, I felt the most incredible peace within me. In that moment, I felt God's undeterred patience, as if he had been waiting for me to allow him to work on healing this area within me.

As the priest processed past us in the Lucas Oil Stadium, I looked around and noticed others giving everything to Jesus, similarly crying tears of relief. God was healing and entering into the hearts of all those gathered there who he was patiently waiting for.

I have a tattoo on my ankle that reads "ENOUGH" (anyone who knows my parents are probably asking "Do Dave and Dawn know you have a tattoo??" Haha!). I have this tattoo as a reminder that I am enough as I am. However, this moment with God expanded my meaning for it because I realized I am ENOUGH...with God.

I truly cannot express the beauty of this pilgrimage with tens of thousands of Catholics gathering for one purpose...to be with Jesus. I am forever changed because of the power of the Eucharist, and I know that every Catholic can be as well. I think our world more than anything needs a renewed hope in our Church and each other, and this is exactly what the Congress did.

As my last year of college approaches, I am excited to bring this experience back with me to school. Although the Congress itself was one weekend, the impact of it is meant to extend outside of Indianapolis and infiltrate our daily lives, which is exactly what I plan to do.

At the end of the Congress, we were all challenged to reflect on who we would walk with on their faith journey upon returning to reality. As I reflected on who my "Walk with One" would be, I realized my school itself could be my "one."

I am looking forward to returning to school with a refreshed hope in the Church, a deeper understanding of God's love, and a desire to share it with others. I am beyond grateful for the opportunity to have attended the Congress and hope to gather with many more Catholics who feel called to simply "be with Jesus" and let him work within them at the next Congress in 2033!

The Real Presence: The Holy Angels

Weekly 3-Minute Reflections on the Eucharist using excerpts from 30 Day Eucharistic Revival
by Fr. Don Calloway, MIC

"At every instant, millions of angels go forth and return to the tabernacle after having accomplished His orders.

St. Peter Julian Eymard

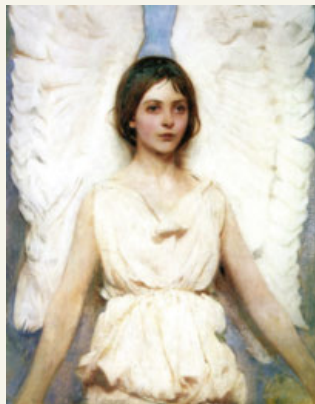

The tabernacle is their center, their headquarters, for there they find the Commander-in-Chief of the celestial army. What do the angels and saints need to make them happy? God, Jesus Christ. Well! We have Him, we are with Him, we are at His gracious service!"

– St. Peter Julian Eymard,
the Apostle of the Eucharist 1811-1868

Reflection

Many saints in history have claimed to see angels during the Mass and during Eucharistic adoration. The angels are God's servants and do his holy will. They pass unnoticed before our eyes, yet, when we attend Mass or adoration, we are surrounded by armies of holy angels.

All the angels are filled with awe before the Blessed Sacrament because God conceals himself in such a humble manner. Yet, as great as the angels are, they are not able to receive Holy Communion. They do not have bodies. They can only receive Jesus spiritually. What amazement the Holy Angels must have as they witness human creatures receive our Lord in Holy Communion.

"Is the tabernacle your headquarters? It is in our churches and in the tabernacle, that the living Body of the Savior rests. He was but nine months in the womb of Mary, three hours on the Cross, three days in the tomb. Yet he is always in our churches. This is why the churches never empty of angels, archangels, and seraphim unceasingly adoring him."

– St. Claude de la Colombiere SJ, confessor to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque to whom Jesus revealed his Sacred Heart

Have you ever thought about your Guardian Angel being by your side during Mass, watching how you pray and how you receive Holy Communion? Have you considered how your Guardian Angel is working hard to increase your faith and holiness? The next time you are at Mass, thank your Holy Guardian for watching over you and always bringing you closer to Jesus in the Eucharist. The simple, memorable Guardian Angel Prayer below is excellent for a child's daily prayer. They will be saying it into adulthood!

The Guardian Angel Prayer

*Angel of God, my guardian dear,
To whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day, be at my side,
To light and guard,
To rule and guide. Amen.*

Prayer to love Jesus like the Holy Angels

Dear Jesus, my Eucharistic Lord, I thank you for the gift of your holy angels. They adore you unceasingly and protect me from so many dangers. Help me to be more like them in adoring you.

Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Queen of Angels, help me to serve Jesus with greater zeal like the holy angels.

St. Joseph, help me to be pure like the holy angels and fully devoted to the Eucharist.

St. Peter Julian Eymard, Apostle of the Eucharist, fill me with your Eucharistic zeal so that I might love the Blessed Sacrament above all things.

Amen.
