seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"If faith does not have good works, it is dead."

One of the great social scientists of the 20th century was Margaret Mead. As an anthropologist her research of ancient civilizations provided tremendous insight into the evolution of the human person.

She was once asked what she thought was the first sign of civilization in a culture. The student expected she was going to refer to the discovery of clay pots or primitive tools. But no, Margaret Mead said the first sign of civilization in ancient culture was a femur (thigh bone) that had been broken and healed. If you broke your leg, you were dead; you cannot walk, run from danger, or get to a food source. No animal survives a broken bone. A broken femur that was healed is evidence that someone took the time to stay with the one who fell, bound their wound, protected them, and fed them.

This moment of empathy distinguished the animal kingdom from the human kingdom.

The Letter of St. James challenges us to see our instinct for empathy and put it in the context of faith. "If faith does not have good works, it is dead." We must be more than platitudes and cheery thoughts. We must "walk the talk" in our care and concern for the larger world.

There can be a heartless lack of empathy in our culture that is driven by self-interest and self-reliance. In recent years I have seen an evolution in teaching young children to develop empathy in their dealings with others. Kindness and compassion need to be cultivated and nurtured.

As followers of Christ, we see in his vision of the Kingdom of God, that as we take up our cross, we walk in solidarity with all those who suffer or are overwhelmed by the challenges of life. Reflecting on the concrete choices to be empathetic and compassionate, we move away from a self-centered world to one which is "other centered" and Christ like. We can better answer the question posed in the Gospel this weekend, "Who do people say that I am?"

I am always appreciative of the efforts in our parish to reach out to those in need whether within our parish or beyond. A month does not go by that the Women's Club does not challenge us to be empathetic. These drives do not challenge economic systems, but you do not realize what a difference a container of laundry detergent can be for one who cannot afford it.

Each week our Sharing Room reaches out to help with the most basic of human needs; food, clothing and housewares, most of these contributions find their way into the hands of someone who needs them within hours of being dropped off. Thank you!

In our Religious Education Program and in our School, our students are always encouraged to help others in need.

Sr. Paulanne and the Needy Family Fund assist people in crises in ways you cannot imagine.

One of the more uplifting moments of our weekend liturgies is the procession of children bringing food at the offertory time. Thank you!

This week, let us ask ourselves how often have good works been part of my daily dealing with the world?

Last weekend was for me OLPH at its best and required a lot of last-minute maneuvering to make sure everything from the Scripture Study Seminar, Sally Corbett's funeral to the Block Party and a host of other events could happen. Thanks to everyone who made it happen behind the scenes!

Thanks to the Men's Club for organizing a terrific celebration of our Annual Block Party. The Committee: Danny McDonnell, Kevin Walsh, Adam Keldermans, Ryan Cook, Mike Haley, Brian O'Grady, Taylor Wood, Ryan Fleming, and a host of others made for a wonderful experience.

Next week will be our Autumn Mass at 9:00am with our SPRED program. This ministry is such a source of inspiration.

Next weekend is the annual Seminary Appeal. Our seminarians will be speaking at all the masses. We are thrilled to host four seminarians at our parish this year through the Tolton Parish Teaching Program of Mundelein Seminary. This year we will be blessed by three students from the Diocese of Grand Rapids, Charlie Leidel, Andrew Whipple, and Jeffrey Davlin and from the Archdiocese of Chicago, Tony Davies. Welcome Guys!

If you or someone you know would like to explore being received into the Catholic community, get caught up on sacraments or would like to explore and understand the teachings of the Catholic Church, please reach out to Fr. Larry Basbas. We are working with St Catherine Labouré and St. Norbert in joining forces to better assist all our communities.

May your week be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

St. Sabina Taking the Reins at Food Pantry and in Dire Need of Support

The food pantry in the St. Sabina community has been run through Catholic Charities for many years. Catholic Charities will be moving out of that role and St. Sabina's, through the direction of pastor Michael Pflieger, will be taking on total operations at the pantry on October 1st.

Father Pflieger will be starting from ground zero and needs to manage rent, hire staff, secure funding for salaries, utilities, phones and more. The pantry will also need new or used computers, printers, and a copier. Donations will help to ensure that this vital pantry can serve this impoverished community for time to come.

Urgent Immediate Computer Needs (new or used):

Befriend a Family – Holiday Support for Needy Sharing Parish Families

We are gearing up for the Befriend a Family program, which finds OLPH sponsors providing holiday support to needy families in our sharing parish communities at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. Most gifting is done in the form of gift cards, but there is the option to purchase gifts for Christmas if you so choose.

We match you with a family size comfortable for you. Giving is done anonymously and the Sharing Ministry handles the delivery of your gifts. Contact Megan Anderson, megcanderson@gmail.com for more information.

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) Formerly RCIA

In the spirit of Renew My Church, OCIA (the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) — formerly known as RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) — will now be a joint effort between OLPH and our neighboring parishes, St. Catherine Labouré and St. Norbert.

What is OCIA and why is it no longer called RCIA?

OCIA is a program designed for individuals who are discerning their call to the Catholic faith. Whether you're unbaptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or a baptized Catholic seeking full communion with the Church, OCIA provides a structured path to explore, understand, and embrace the teachings of Catholicism.

In that sense, it is no different from RCIA. The name was officially changed in 2021 in order to reflect the nature of the process as an ongoing ORDER of rites rather than a singular rite.

OCIA is more than just learning about Catholic doctrines, it is transformative; it's a time of spiritual growth, self-discovery, and conversion. By the end of the process, you'll be prepared to fully embrace the Catholic faith, not just intellectually, but in your heart and soul.

We are also looking for additional facilitators/catechists. (A class manual will be provided for you.) If you are eager to help others on their path to faith, we want and need you!

If interested or for more information, please email Fr. Larry Basbas at lbasbas@olphglenview.org

Classes will take place weekly at St. Catherine Labouré (3535 Thornwood Ave., Glenview) until Holy Week. The first class is scheduled to begin on Thursday, Sept.19 at 7:00pm.

Fr. Larry Basbas, Associate Pastor, Chaplain of Liturgy and Evangelization

ARCHDIOCESAN SEMINARY COLLECTION

OLPH supports the educational formation of our archdiocesan seminarians by contributing to the Archdiocesan Seminarian Education collection for their education and formation needs. We do this as part of our parish First Fruits Program, instead of taking up a second collection.

As a reminder, the first 6% of each weekly and holy day offertory collection is set aside for our First Fruits Program. Instead of taking up certain second collections, OLPH splits this 6% among our four sharing parishes and five named Archdiocesan second collections over the course of the year. This Archdiocesan second collection for our seminarians, taken up in the Archdiocese during the weekend of September 21-22, is one of the second collections funded through our First Fruits Program.

If you choose, however, to make a separate gift, there are envelopes available at the entrances to the Church; there is a button open on the GiveCentral OLPH portal; or, you can give directly to the Archdiocese at archchicago.org/seminarianfund.

Let us also remember to pray for our seminarians who are in this important period of formation as they strive to answer God's call to serve.

INSTRUMENTALISTS AND SINGERS OF ALL AGES NEEDED

Anytime is a great time to join one of the choirs and help continue to build the Music Ministry at OLPH. This is a wonderful opportunity to serve God and the parish through sharing your gifts of music and song. And it promises to be a lot of fun as well! The following groups are all directed by our music director, Russell Stern. New members are always welcome and encouraged to join throughout the year.

The Adult Festival Choir

The Children's Choir

To volunteer, or for more information, please contact Russell Stern at rstern@olphglenview.org or you are welcome to just show up to one of the rehearsals listed above, at any time. Thank you for your consideration!

Ministry of Care Training for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Sick

Saturday mornings Sept. 28 & Oct. 5 Hickey Hall

Ministers of Care bring Holy Communion to parishioners who are homebound, living in nursing homes, or in the hospital. They share with them the word of God in scripture, pray with them for the Church and the world, and offer them companionship.

The work of the Ministry of Care is open to all members of our parish community, and a basic training course for new Ministers of Care will take place on two successive Saturday mornings, Sept. 28 and Oct. 5. Both sessions will help you develop the skills and confidence needed to be a source of comfort to those who are in need.

These sessions will be facilitated by Rick Nash and Jim Vlazny, Coordinators of the Ministry of Care at OLPH. Completion of this course qualifies you to receive the Archdiocesan mandate to bring Communion to the sick, homebound and hospitalized of our parish.

If you think God might be calling you to this most important ministry, please contact Rick Nash for more information or to register for the training sessions by phone 847-651-8718 or email rick.nash@comcast.net

Lastly, if you, a family member, or someone you know is homebound, unable to attend Mass, and would like to receive Holy Communion, OLPH Ministers of Care are available to bring Holy Communion. For more information, please call the Rectory Office at 847-729-1525.
