OLPH EASTER 2025

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit."

I was recently recollecting, with a few friends, about some of the more creative ways we coped with the worst of Covid, those long months of isolation and anxiety.

I was sharing with them how I got hooked on the ESPN's series, "The Last Dance." It was a series that profiled Michael Jordan and the Bulls as they attempted to achieve winning their sixth championship in eight seasons. It was the 1997-1998 season that would end in triumph but with then result in the dismantling of one of the greatest sports dynasties ever.

The series focusses on Michael Jordan who as his statue at the United center proclaims, "the best there ever was." The series is an in-depth view into the drama of that final season but a remarkable exploration into the person, Michael Jordan is. From his childhood to his evolution to becoming a global superstar, you are drawn into the challenge of being the best, knowing yourself, and adapting to the many obstacles that can come your way.

The scriptures, this weekend, invite us to reflect more deeply on who we really are, the basic challenge of who I really am. How do I cultivate the gifts God has given me? How real is my desire to be an authentic witness in faith to the teachings of Jesus Christ? This is a lifelong process. We need to remind ourselves that we are loved by the Lord, that what God has created is good. We all struggle, at times, with our self-worth; we can easily dwell on our shortcomings and struggles. The Lord yearns for us to embrace our goodness, to embrace the future with hope. As we hear in the gospel, "the good tree does not bear rotten fruit." We all possess the potential for such goodness and promise. We must keep pruning away the recesses of sin and evil and allow the good fruit to flourish.

This coming week, Lent begins with Ash Wednesday. "Now is the time", the prophet Joel proclaims. Now is the time to begin reflecting on how this Lent can be a gamechanger. How will the product of my Lenten journey be one of grace, hope and new life? Lent will pass quickly. Make some choices, take some chances, to make this the best Lent ever. You are "the good tree," the Lord wants you to bear good fruit.

Take advantage of our Lenten offerings, get a copy of one of our Lenten prayer books, consider going to Mass with more regularity, sacrifice and pray for others, celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation. We have our Lenten Morning of Renewal on March 22, the Men's St. Joseph Day of Reflection on March 29, the Communal Penance Service on April 1 at St. Catherine Labouré. Every Friday we have Stations of the Cross at 3:15 and 6:30.

The Lenten Spring leads to Easter Joy! Let us pray for one another, we are not alone. The more we feel connected, the more evidence of God's love will be revealed.

This Saturday, March 1, is the annual Clergy Appreciation Dinner sponsored by the Dussman Council of the Knights of Columbus at St. Catherine Labouré. This year's special honoree is Sr. Paulanne Held. Tickets are available for this evening of recognizing what a gift Sr. Paulanne is to the community.

Thank you for your consideration of this year's Annual Catholic Appeal, "Together We Bring Hope." You can still make a pledge. There are pledge cards at all the exits in the church. I am grateful for your support in this annual effort to provide resources for the mission of the church here in the archdiocese.

This week the archdiocese was blessed with the ordination of five auxiliary bishops. Each of these new bishops bring a wealth of experience and deep faith to their new ministry. We praise God for their willingness to serve the Church as bishops, I am confident their ministry will bear much "good fruit."

The Blood Drive was a great success. Special thanks to Guilds 2 and 10 for organizing it.

It is Roundball Season here at OLPH! Check out the schedule and come by for an evening a great competition. Every night is filled with OMG moments.

The Men's Club St Patrick's Day Party is March 8. It is always the best St. Pat's celebration anywhere.

The Youth Ministry Lenten Retreat is March 15. All teens are invited.

May your week be blessed!

Very Rev. Jerry Boland

Jesus, Our Strength, Our Song, Our Soul's Salvation

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid"
John 14:27.

Jesus is our strength. How many times in scripture is it written, "Do not be afraid"? Yet, these very words of assurance that Jesus gives us seem to fall on deaf ears considering the amount of stress and anxiety in the World today. Why do we refuse to be comforted by our Lord, who walks with us day and night and promises that he will be with us until the end of time? Why do we feel that the weight of the world rests solely on our shoulders when in reality there is so little that we can control. Therefore, seek comfort in the act of "letting go and letting God." Give him your troubles, your cares, your worries, your anxieties; trust in Him and have faith in Him, confident in the knowledge that he holds you always in the palm of his hand.

"By day the Lord commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life" Psalm 42:8.

Jesus is our song. Music has the power to lift us up, to touch our hearts, to move and to carry us through our day. We use music to celebrate good times and to comfort us in bad times, transporting us on its notes, taking us outside of ourselves. With music we are able to reach great heights as we soar upward on its melodies. Let Jesus be the song that lifts us up from the darkest nights of the soul. Allow him to become the rhythm of our days, always ready to tune in to his Word and let his words bring harmony to our lives. Jesus as song is a fluid thing, never static, always moving through every fiber of our being and every moment our days, lifting us closer to Heaven.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life" John 3:16.

Jesus is our soul's salvation. Our Lenten journey is about turning our lives around, asking God to create in us a new heart, making us better people—kinder, more forgiving, loving and caring for one another. As we walk the path to Calvary with Jesus, we must bravely bear our crosses as he bore his, following in his footsteps, knowing that at the end of our journey lies the promise of eternal life. As Christians, we are Easter people, rejoicing in Christ's defeat of death and his rising to new life. We know that in the Risen Christ lies our own soul's salvation, for as Christ breaks the seal of the tomb and rises, he lifts us up as well. Jesus promises to prepare a dwelling place for each of us within his Father's house. On Easter morning, we rejoice in knowing that death is not the end but just the beginning where we will stand before the Lord and behold the face of God in all its glory. Before we take the first steps of our Lenten journey, let us pause, raise our eyes to Heaven, and ask our Lord to be our strength, our song, and our soul's salvation.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

"Anointing the Sick and the Dying: A GIFT NOT TO BE DELAYED"

Procrastination is a fine art—until it isn't! We delay chores, ignore emails, and put off calling the plumber until the kitchen turns into a swimming pool. But when it comes to the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, waiting too long can mean missing out on the grace, peace, spiritual strength, and, when God wills it, physical healing it offers.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the Church's greatest gifts given to those who are seriously ill, elderly, or facing major surgery. It is often confused with the term "Last Rites." Last Rites refers to the final sacraments given to a dying person, which typically include the Anointing of the Sick, Confession (if possible), and Viaticum (Holy Communion as food for the journey to eternal life). Last Rites is not a separate sacrament but a collective term for these final spiritual preparations before death.

Too often, families hesitate to call a priest until their loved one is actively dying or unconscious. This delay is a bad Catholic habit that can have several unfortunate consequences. First, the person may not be conscious. One of the great benefits of this sacrament is the opportunity to receive it with full awareness, offering prayers and uniting suffering with Christ. But if a person is unconscious or unable to communicate, they may miss the peace and reassurance the sacrament brings.

Secondly, the person may not be able to confess. If the sick person has not confessed their mortal sin, receiving the sacrament earlier ensures they can also go to Confession and be fully reconciled with God.

Thirdly (and perhaps the most problematic), there might not be any priest available, or the priest is unable to arrive in a timely manner. The sad reality is there aren't enough of us priests to go around. Priests do their best to respond quickly, but emergencies and busy schedules may cause delays. Calling for the sacrament earlier ensures that the person receives it without the stress of urgency.

Sometimes families prefer their favorite priest to administer the sacrament. While that is well within reason, it can lead to unnecessary delays and misunderstandings about the sacrament. The power of the sacrament comes from Christ, not the individual priest, and any validly ordained priest acts as his instrument. What matters most is receiving the grace and healing offered through the sacrament, not personal preference.

Lastly, this Sacrament is more than a deathbed ritual. Receiving the Anointing of the Sick in the early stages of an illness allows the person to experience spiritual strength throughout their suffering. It is not about waiting for the moment of death but about receiving God's grace in times of need.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is a gift that cannot be delayed. If you or a loved one meet one of the following criteria, please call a priest!

- 1) Diagnosed with a serious illness
- 2) Will undergo a major surgery
- 3) Elderly person getting significantly weaker
- 4) Struggling with a long-term illness that is worsening
- 5) Entering hospice or palliative care.

Please note that the last criterion (ie. hospice) is when families sometimes "wait it out" until the last minute. It is precisely this unnecessary delay that I am addressing in this article.

The Anointing of the Sick is a powerful sacrament of healing, not a sacrament of despair. Rather than waiting for the final breath, we should embrace it as soon as serious illness arises, allowing God's grace to work in the person's life for as long as possible. God's grace is best enjoyed sooner rather than later. So don't delay; after all, no one wants to be the person who postponed a blessing!

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

Confession, also known as Reconciliation or Penance, puts us face to face with the mercy and forgiveness of Christ. Each Saturday afternoon, a priest is available in church to hear confessions.

Fasting

The Church requires all those between 18 and 59 years of age to fast and abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting allows a person to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may be taken, not to equal one full meal. All Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on the Fridays of Lent.

Almsgiving

Service (or almsgiving) helps us experience faith in action. Our parish offers many opportunities to make a difference and grow in awareness of the needs of the poor. Watch our website for upcoming events.
