Jn 9:25

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,
"I was blind but now I see."

This weekend's Gospel from John is one of my favorite Lenten gospels. Lent is the season of identifying those forces that keep us spiritually blind. There are many things that can keep us from seeing both that which is good and that which is evil. For instance, we as a society have become much less sensitive to the specter of violence. It must be really horrific to make the evening news.

The Lord seeks to lift our blindness. The blindness that keeps us from seeing the good in others, the blindness that keeps us from responding to those in need, the blindness that keeps us from changing.

The man born blind had his eyes opened by the Lord. Lent is the season where we are invited to allow the Lord to open our eyes. Not only is his physical blindness lifted, but he also came to see the Lord and worship him.

Last week's Lenten mission was for me such a powerful testimony to the power of Our Lord's presence in our lives especially when we are confronted with a crisis. I would really encourage you to view it on our website. It was deeply moving as the panelists shared moments in their life when Jesus was their strength, their song, their salvation.

One of the great graces of the Lenten journey is the grace to see more clearly the Lord at work in our lives and in the larger world. I can more readily notice the Lord's marvelous power from a beautiful sunset to an unexpected act of kindness, to the healing of a relationship.

Lent always begins in winter and ends in spring. Even the name Lent comes from an old English word, "lencten" meaning the lengthening of the day as spring approaches. We are blessed with more and more daylight until we embrace the rising of the sun on Easter morning. Jesus is the Light of the World!

Hopefully our spiritual vision will be liberated from the darkness of evil, of sin, of indifference.

Saturday, March 29 will be our highly anticipated St. Joseph's Men's Day of Reflection. There is quite a lineup of great speakers, time for confession, adoration and Eucharist. All men from age 13 and up are invited. It could be a great Father/Son experience. All ages are welcome. I am so grateful to Bill Harlan, Rick Schultz and their steering committee for the hours of work that has gone into planning this event. This has been a dream of Bill Harlan's for many years.

Tuesday, April 1 will be our Annual Communal Penance Service at St. Catherine Labouré beginning at 7:00pm.

Last weekend I announced the public launch of our capital campaign "Generation to Generation: Answer the Call." We have an ambitious goal of 6 million dollars, and we are within striking distance of being halfway to our goal. We could be nowhere near this if it wasn't for the lead couples of our campaign committee; Bob and Anne Michels, John and Maureen Clifford, Bill and Kilby Macfadden, Dave and Dawn Ludden, Bob and Marilyn Jansen. I am so grateful to Mary Lynne Januszewski our staff liaison and to our wonderful consultants, Ana Tisa, Mariana Robles, and Alex Fruin.

You will be hearing much more about this in the coming weeks. We have identified projects in our parish mission statement that will be great investments for future generations of parishioners. Thank you so much for your consideration of the campaign. I hope and pray all parishioners will consider supporting the campaign. Any gift is deeply appreciated. The more of us that are invested in this campaign, the more power it will have in deepening our bond to OLPH and its future.

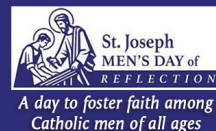

May the upcoming days of Lent, open your eyes so you may see!

SPRED Testimonials

SPRED is a vital ministry that welcomes children and adults with developmental disabilities and leads them toward a deeper awareness of God in their lives, an awareness of themselves as persons of dignity who are deeply loved by God, and an awareness of their integral relationship to the parish community and the entire Church.

Throughout our 2025 Lenten season we will post testimonials from our volunteers and participants.

To learn how to become a part of this wonderful program, either as a student or as a volunteer catechist email Grace Martinsen at gdmartinsen@gmail.com or Mary McCool at marymccool411@gmail.com

Nick Hathcock

(former OLPH SPRED friend)

Where do I even start on what a wonderful time I had at SPRED! My faith grew so much in this program from the dedicated team that takes time to care for special needs kids like me. During my time in SPRED I feel like I have formed a stronger bond with God in several different aspects. From taking the time to thank God for my life to praying for the sick, the list can go on and on. Not only does SPRED go above and beyond to make sure your child has a great experience, they have given me tools to use in the event I need to speak to God!

A few things I enjoyed from SPRED personally are being able to turn to a staff member in the event I was nervous or sad and that it is a small group with several staff. To me, that felt great because I would not have to worry about getting sad, nervous, or whatever feeling I may have felt!

Finally, thanks to the help of SPRED, I was able to go to a regular sized RE class with minimal support but still had the support of SPRED every step of the way! Honestly words cannot describe how wonderful this program is. They truly exceed expectations in every aspect when caring for your child.

This is a program I would 100 percent recommend to anyone who needs that smaller and more supportive faith Community!

Parish Pastoral Council

Parish Member Testimonial

Kevin Ryan

We recently asked several members of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) to share their experience on the board. Here are the responses from PPC Board Member

Kevin Ryan:

How and when did you and your family join OLPH?

I was raised in Glenview and attended both OLPH and public schools. My own family joined OLPH in 2003 after returning to Glenview when our twins were born. We have three kids, all now attending college.

When did you first hear about the PPC?

I first heard about the PPC probably 15 years ago but - having young kids - I never thought much about it. Then two friends, Julie Ruchniewicz and Mark Cullum, both served terms as President and raved about their experiences. Mark encouraged me to apply a few times and last year I finally did.

What does the PPC do?

The PPC tries to help Father Boland in any way we can. With 15 members we can really be more eyes and ears in the parish for him. We listen to and encourage the various ministries we all work with and try to develop a robust culture of involvement in parish life.

Is there an aspect of the PPC that you enjoy the most?

The aspect of the PPC I've enjoyed most is meeting new people from various generations. We have grandparents who have been in the parish for 50 years and members with school age kids. Everyone brings a nice mix of experience.

How would you describe PPC meetings?

Monthly meetings follow an agenda depending on various issues and the calendar and move at a lively pace. We generally wrap up in 90 minutes or so but have several dinners throughout the year that are a lot of fun.

What should OLPH parishioners know about the PPC?

Anyone interested in PPC should not be scared of the time commitment. I held off for years thinking I was too busy to make it work. I wish I had joined sooner.

GENERATION TO GENERATION ANSWER THE CALL: SUPPORT OUR PRIESTS

Last week at OLPH, Fr. Jerry announced the Archdiocese of Chicago's Generation to Generation capital campaign, aimed at raising funds for four key initiatives. One of the main goals is to raise $100 million to support our priests. This support will be directed to the following critical investments:

- Seminarian Education: The archdiocese sponsors the tuition for our Chicago seminarians, and this fund will help us educate and form our next generation of parish priests.
- Priest Pastoral and Professional Development: Support will include coaching and mentoring priests through individualized formation and trainings on team leadership, foundational preaching, and shared ownership for parish renewal.
- Caring for the Health and Well-Being of Our Priests: In addition to the healthcare provided by the archdiocese, significant funds will be required to support our priests to ensure they can enjoy a dignified and healthy retirement.

OUR CAMPAIGN PROGRESS

OLPH's Goal: $6,000,000

Total Raised: $2,640,500

Percentage Raised: 44%

Number of Gifts: 56

Last Updated: 3/25/25

CAMPAIGN PRAYER

God of abundant and generous mercy, we gratefully acknowledge the many gifts you have given us across the years from the sacrifice of generations before us.

And so, we confidently trust that you will walk with us into the future.

We echo the words of the Blessed Virgin Mary: truly, your mercy is from generation to generation.

Help us now to respond generously to your gifts, as we support our Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago and work to bring faith forward for the generations that follow us.

By your grace and help, let our gifts be a blessing for our children, our grandchildren, and those who follow them.

Through Christ our Lord.

Schola Antiqua

THE PRINCE AND FATHER OF MUSIC: PALESTRINA AT 500

Friday, April 4, 5:45 pm (early start!)
McGrath Family Performing Arts Center, Loyola Academy
3455 Illinois Rd, Wilmette, Illinois

Concert is preceded by a reception (5:00 pm), followed by a brief service of Compline.

Schola Antiqua returns to Chicago for a one-time performance of a program honoring the quincennial of the birth of Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina, the most consequential composer of sacred music in the sixteenth century. In an 80-minute concert presentation without intermission, Schola Antiqua explores an array of Palestrina's sacred choral works, ranging from hymn and psalm settings to motets and spiritual madrigals. In-concert commentary and visual projection highlight Palestrina's central role as conservator of Catholic plainchant, and the 'perfect art' of imitative counterpoint.
