seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"You are anxious and worried about many things."

This weekend's gospel passage about Jesus' visit with Martha and Mary has been one of the most reflected upon encounters. We all have "Martha's" and "Mary's" in our lives.

One of the more debilitating forces in life is stress. It can eat away at our emotional, spiritual, and physical wellbeing. There are of course many sources of stress and a wide range of degrees of how stressed we are.

Anxiety about the "worries" of life can be all consuming. We may have financial worries, relationship worries, worries about the future, or worries about the consequences of the past, worries about our health or the health of a loved one.

We all have our ways of coping. We all know the blessed gift of friendship. Hopefully, we all have people in our lives that we can come clean or be unvarnished about what is really going on in our life.

Many people try to "go it alone" when dealing with stressful situations and that rarely works out. Cultivating friendships is a gift and a necessity to healthy living.

I was at a conference recently for priests turning 70 years old. I just joined the 70 and older club! One of the presenters challenged us to keep making friends. As a person gets older their social circle begins to shrink. Making new friends is never easy but is an important goal.

This story of Martha and Mary speaks to me about how important it is to forge a sense of balance in life between being and doing.

Our spiritual life can be a great source of strength in countering the stresses and worries of life. The Lord seeks to be our companion by discovering the power of his love and grace. Never take for granted the power of prayer in facing our challenges.

This weekend we will focus our annual Mission Appeal on the needs of the Diocese of Ootacamund, India. I am delighted to welcome Bishop Amalraj and Fr. Tom Rayer who will be preaching at our Masses. The diocese faces the challenges of significant poverty and illiteracy. Funds raised from the mission appeal will be used to provide more opportunities for the very poor to receive an education. Thank you for your consideration!

At the 9:00am Mass we will be installing the Parish Pastoral Council. The PPC is one of the major governance structures in the parish. I rely so much on their guidance and wisdom. This parish has been blessed year after year by an outstanding parish council. Over the year, we face so many issues that need to be sorted out or responded to. They help me keep a perspective of the big picture in terms of our sense of mission and direction. Michael Crowe is our president and does a great job.

This coming year will be a busy one and a challenging one. We will begin the first phase of implementing the "Generation to Generation" capital campaign and they will play a critical role in the discernment of the new pastor by next summer.

Speaking of the capital campaign, "Generation to Generation," thank you for your generous support of the campaign. We passed the 7.1-million-dollar mark.

We are still accepting pledges! OLPH was a record breaker on many levels for the first wave of the campaign. I can see now why the Archdiocese wanted us to be on the first wave. We raised the most money, we exceeded our goal as of this week by 190%, over six hundred pledges by far the most of any parish up to date. Your generosity never ceases to amaze me! I soon will be establishing a steering committee that will set budgets for the projects and determine the schedule of projects. This will depend on how much money we collect and have on hand. Because the campaign is a 5-year process, it will take patience to tackle the projects with this reality in mind.

This weekend there will be coffee and donuts after many of the Masses to welcome our two new associates: Fr. Honoratus and Fr. Roy. Please stop by and say hello!

McDonnell Hall continues to move forward, Work is beginning in framing the ceiling, plumbing work for the bathrooms and kitchen, and preparing for the placement of a generator and HVAC equipment along the northern exterior of the church.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Jerry Boland (70 is the new 45)

Reverend Jeremiah Boland
Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish
1775 Grove Street
Glenview, IL 60025

Dear Father Boland,

My campaign team informed me that Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish not only met but exceeded its goal for the Generation to Generation: Answer the Call campaign. I am deeply grateful to you, your staff, campaign volunteers and parishioners for the dedication and generosity that made this extraordinary accomplishment possible. Your effort and commitment to advancing the Church's mission inspire us all and provide momentum for the other parishes across the Archdiocese of Chicago as they participate in the campaign.

Generation to Generation is far more than a capital campaign. It is an opportunity to renew our commitment to the ministries, programs, and people of the archdiocese, through an investment that will ensure the vitality of our faith communities for future generations. Under your leadership, Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish has meaningfully contributed to the task of our times: spiritually renewing our parish communities. Let us continue to work together with pride and purpose, as we live out the spirit of our campaign prayer, "to bring faith forward for the generations that follow us."

May God continue to bless you, your parishioners, and the ongoing mission of the Generation to Generation campaign.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Mission Appeal for the Diocese of Ootacamund (India)

On the weekend of July 19 & 20, Fr. Thomas Rayar, a native of India currently serving in Minnesota, will be at OLPH to make an appeal for the Diocese of Ootacamund, India.

The diocese of Ootacamund was established in 1955 in the mountainous area of Tamil Nadu State in India by Pope Pius XII. It has a Catholic population of c.98,000 which would be 5% of the total population of that area. About 150 priests and 415 religious nuns serve in 67 parishes and 226 mission stations and 22 high schools in this diocese. About two third of the faithful of the diocese are illiterate and mostly daily-wage laborers and farmers earning about $4 a day with which the families cannot afford to send their children to school.

Talavadi Village Church

Apart from people with different cultures, the diocese is enriched with different aboriginal tribes both in Nilgiris mountains and Erode districts. These tribal people do not have opportunities for education. More than 38% of the population are illiterate. As there are no proper roads to the hilly tribal villages, we have established boarding schools in the towns where the tribal children could have education.

By God's grace, we have been blessed with a great number of vocations for priests and nuns. However, with our meagre resources we find it difficult to support our Seminarians to prepare for their priesthood.

The funds raised from this appeal will specifically be spent for educational expenses of these poor children in the orphanages and for the education of the seminarians of our diocese. Thank you for your generosity! May God bless you for your sacrificial support to the mission and your prayers for evangelization of our global Church!

The gospel of Luke presents a compassionate and inclusive portrait of Jesus, while giving special attention to prayer, the work of the Holy Spirit and the joy of salvation.

It begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and continues through Jesus' public ministry, passion, death, resurrection and ascension. Unique to this Gospel are powerful parables like the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son, which reveal the heart of God's mercy and grace. As you journey through Luke's account, you will encounter Jesus in a new way and discover how his teachings fit into your life today!

All are invited to join this beautiful and profound 8-week study.

Trusting in God in Life's Twists and Turns: The Conversions of St. Ignatius Loyola with Fr. Michael J. Graham, SJ

This retreat offers a sacred space to explore the ways in which life's detours and disruptions are not obstacles, but invitations—callings to trust, to grow, and to deepen our relationship with God. Through guided reflections rooted in Ignatian spirituality, personal prayer, and quiet contemplation, we will consider how God is present in the unexpected, gently guiding us toward a future filled with grace.

A Retreat with St. Peter: Growing from Sinner to Saint with Fr. Michael Sparough, SJ

Experience the Spiritual Exercises by taking a deep dive into the life of Simon, named Peter, the rock, by Jesus. Just as he has two names, he also has two distinct sides to his personality. He is gentle, but bold; foolish, yet wise. Together we'll pray about what it means to belong to a Church that is larger than the sum of its members.

The Grace of Silence

Bellarmino Jesuit Retreat House maintains an atmosphere of silence so that you can hear God's voice speaking the words your soul longs to hear. These days are God's gift to you, a graced time for you to spend with the Lord. If you are not accustomed to being silent on a retreat, we guarantee that you will find it restful and refreshing!

While silence in your retreat at Bellarmine involves not talking to each other, it is more than that. It means quieting yourself on the outside and the inside so that you can be totally present to God.

Silence helps us let go of the preoccupations of the past and the anxieties about the future so that we can discover our deepest desires. It is in these deepest desires that God speaks to our souls and opens up new possibilities for our lives. Let God give you this special gift of time with Him in the new year.
