One's life
does not consist of possessions.

Lk 12:15

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"One's life does not consist of possessions."

This week's gospel from Luke contains a lot of wisdom. It invites us to reassess what is ultimately of value. All the possessions and the money in the world cannot guarantee happiness, inner peace, healthy relationships, or a purposeful life.

It is a moment of grace when our eyes are opened, and we come to realize what the real treasures in our lives are. We do not always appreciate our health until we struggle with illness. We do not always appreciate our relationships until something happens that could jeopardize them.

Keeping things in perspective is never easy. We are influenced by constant messages that encourage us to buy more, possess more. These messages seek to entrap us in living on the surface. Our spiritual life is always inviting us to move deeper into our being, it's not what I have but who I am trying to become. Being aware that life is a gift, that we are surrounded by God's grace. We are vessels of his mercy. We can build bridges of healing and be generous with what God has blessed us with that makes all the difference.

A few years ago, I was on a sabbatical and lived out of a suitcase. It dawned on me that I really do not need a lot of "things." Stuff that would seem to be so important is not really that essential.

Summer days can slow us down to better appreciate a beautiful sunset, the simplicity of a BBQ, the gift of time spent with family and close friends.

In Paul's letter to the Colossians, he lists the earthly things that if they control us will only lead to a sad and unfulfilled life. Earthly forces like greed, immorality, deceit, evil desires, and selfishness.

Christ reaches out to all of us! In Christ's love there "is not Greek or Jew, slave or free." We are all in this together!

One of my least favorite words is August. Ughh! It begins the gradual transition that marks the ending of summer and the return to many routines that were disrupted by the wonderful days of summer. Many college students will begin returning to campus. In a few days, our teachers will be gathering to begin preparations for the new school year. There is still time to relish in the glory of summer!

I am grateful to several parishioners who have made pledges to our capital campaign, "Generation to Generation." We are closing in on 7.2 million dollars pledged! Thank you so much for your consideration of the campaign. This parish never ceases to amaze me.

Thanks to all who make our Sunday masses under the tent happen. Thanks to Jim Geldermann for his "sound" expertise, Brian Poshard with the music and Wesley from our maintenance crew. Until McDonnell Hall reopens, we will have the 9:30am Mass there.

Speaking of McDonnell Hall, we continue to make progress, the framework for the new ceiling is done, the plumbing for the renovated bathrooms and the kitchen are moving forward. Every other week, I gather with all the folks involved with the construction to review the progress and to deal with the "unexpected" stuff that happens with a project of this size.

May your week be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

Summer Updates from OLPH's Seminarian Teaching Parish Program

While our seminarians Jeff Davlin, Charlie Leidel, and Andrew Whipple have been on summer break from their studies at Mundelein, they have been busy with interesting ministries and spiritual formation.

Here's a look at what each has been up to:

Jeff: This summer I participated in a program for diocesan seminarians with the Institute of Priestly Formation (IPF) at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska. The program began with an eight-day silent retreat and focused primarily on human and spiritual formation. I experienced great closeness with the Lord and growth in my relationship with Him, especially during the silent retreat.

I have now completed the program and returned to Grand Rapids, where I plan to spend time with family and serve at my home parish until the beginning of the fall semester. I miss OLPH and look forward to seeing everyone soon! Blessings.

Charlie: I worked at a Grand Rapids nursing home offering spiritual care to the elderly. It was beautiful to walk with residents as they journey toward the end of their pilgrimage. I found it an honor to bring them Christ's love and remind them how precious they are in His eyes. I also did some prison ministry, celebrating a communion service for the inmates and talking to them about the faith. It amazes me how much Christ is already at work there and how I am able to witness His love even in a prison. After my final week of ministry I'll visit my sister in Colorado before heading back to Mundelein for my final semester. God bless you!

Andrew: I have been working at the Mission Our Lady of the Angels in West Humboldt Park since the end of May. My time there began with a Sister's final vows, which was beautiful to witness. A cohort of young adult volunteers joined me, and together we supported the Franciscans at the Mission in a variety of projects, events, and retreats. We helped set up and run the weekly food pantry that serves thousands of locals. As counselors for the local YMCA camp, we've had great fun playing sports and games with some excited, energized kids!

I have seen Christ at work in the labors and the joys of the Mission where He has been a consistent presence and a true grace. In the Franciscans of the Eucharist and Bishop Bob Lombardo, I have witnessed how to build community, live the Catholic faith, and joyfully serve our brothers and sisters in the Church and beyond. Soon I will return to Mundelein and OLPH. I am looking forward to reconnecting with the parish, meeting the new priests and exchanging the graces of a season gone, as always, too quickly.

Did You Know?

Mundelein Seminary's stated mission is to form parish priests who are "Formed in Tradition, Trained in Compassion, Prepared to Shepherd." But what does it mean to be "trained in compassion"?

Last month, we toured Mundelein's innovative simulation lab that is focused on preparing seminarians to deliver more effective pastoral care. The Cor Iuxta Meum Center, led by Executive Director Marie

Pitt-Payne, incorporates elements of compassion science into the curriculum to help seminarians become more aware of their emotions during encounters with parishioners. The idea was influenced by the success top medical schools experienced with the inclusion of compassionate care in their curricula.

During a simulation, the seminarian meets in a realistic setting with a "parishioner" played by a professionally-trained actor. The "parishioner" role-plays a specific scenario a parish priest is likely to encounter.

The seminarian's formation advisor observes through a one-way mirror while a simulation operator records the encounter and manages cameras and audio. Once the encounter is complete, the seminarian completes a self-assessment and meets with his formation advisor to debrief.

The process not only helps the seminarian develop stronger interpersonal skills, but also increases his awareness of his own emotions during the encounter. The goal is to help the seminarian better manage his emotions and be fully present in order to provide the best possible pastoral care to his future parishioners.

The Grace of Silence

Bellarmino Jesuit Retreat House maintains an atmosphere of silence so that you can hear God's voice speaking the words your soul longs to hear. These days are God's gift to you, a graced time for you to spend with the Lord. If you are not accustomed to being silent on a retreat, we guarantee that you will find it restful and refreshing!

While silence in your retreat at Bellarmine involves not talking to each other, it is more than that. It means quieting yourself on the outside and the inside so that you can be totally present to God.

Silence helps us let go of the preoccupations of the past and the anxieties about the future so that we can discover our deepest desires. It is in these deepest desires that God speaks to our souls and opens up new possibilities for our lives. Let God give you this special gift of time with Him in the new year.
