The one who humbles himself or herself will be exalted.

Luke 14:11

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"The one who humbles himself or herself will be exalted."

The recent funeral of Ryne Sandburg, the Hall of Fame second baseman for the Cubs was a deeply moving tribute to a person who embodied the word humble.

Professional athletes live in the world of comparisons, fierce competition, and the accrual of statistics. Ryne was remembered as a player whose love of the game and commitment to his teammates was paramount. His life was much bigger than just baseball and he was surrounded by a circle of wonderful family and friends. His humble nature endeared him to many and stood as a great example of the power of humility. He converted to Catholicism and took his religious formation seriously. As I reflected on his funeral I was struck by the words of the Gospel this weekend, "the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

The scriptures this weekend are filled with challenges to us of the blessing true humility can have on the quality of our lives. A lot of energy can be used up trying constantly to impress others with our wealth, our power, or our need to always be right.

One of the qualities we try to instill in our children in the school and religious education is empathy. Helping them to better understand the feelings of another person. We invite them to consider "we" versus "me."

People who are truly empathetic are also driven by a beautiful sense of humility.

So much of what Jesus' speaks to is as true today as it was back then. We can become obsessed with places of honor, titles, possessions, and financial power. Jesus encourages us to walk with one another, to include in our world view; the less fortunate, the powerless.

This week I am attending a seminar up at Mundelein Seminary for the Tolton Parish Teaching Program. We have been blessed with several seminarians who have spent a significant amount of time experiencing our parish and contributing to various ministries. This year we have three seminarians from the Diocese of Grand Rapids. Andrew Whipple and Jeff Davlin are returning, I welcome Thomas Curry who will be joining us. I am grateful to Tom and Jacquie O'Brien who chair our committee. It is going to be a great year!

The Men's Club Golf Tournament was terrific. A beautiful day and a sellout. Next Saturday there is the Block Party that is hosted by the Men's Club. Thanks to Chad Lose and his officers and committees. These events bring us all together to celebrate our friendships. The Block Party begins with Mass at 5:00pm on the Rectory lawn. (Please Note: Because of the Block Party Outdoor Mass, there will not be a Mass at 9:30am Sunday morning on the Rectory lawn on the following day, Sept. 7.)

This Sunday is the observance of the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. The liturgy begins at 7:00pm in the Church. Bishop Mark Bartosic will be presiding. Our special guests will be the parishioners of Sts. Peter and Paul Greek Orthodox Church.

We have been blessed to observe some marriage milestones:

- Happy 50th to Barb and Ben Tchaou,
- Happy 60th to Tom and Sandy McBreen,
- Happy 66th to Lou and Pilar Gomez.

May your week be blest!

Fr. Jerry Boland

Please stop by to enjoy some goodies and support our project.

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) Formerly RCIA

Classes for OCIA (the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) will begin this Fall.

OCIA is a program designed for individuals who are discerning their call to the Catholic faith. Whether you're unbaptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or a baptized Catholic seeking full communion with the Church, OCIA provides a structured path to explore, understand, and embrace the teachings of Catholicism.

Fr. Roy Belocura,
Associate Pastor
Director of OCIA

OCIA is more than just learning about Catholic doctrines, it is transformative; it's a time of spiritual growth, self-discovery, and conversion. By the end of the process, you'll be prepared to fully embrace the Catholic faith, not just intellectually, but in your heart and soul.

For more information, please email Rev. Roy Belocura at rbelocura@olphglenview.org or click the QR Code to fill out a Google form questionnaire.

Classes will take place weekly at the OLPH Parish Center.

The first class is scheduled for 6:00pm, October 1, 2025 in the Parish Center.

Music Ministry

INSTRUMENTALISTS AND SINGERS OF ALL AGES NEEDED

Anytime is a great time to join one of the choirs and help continue to build the Music Ministry at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church. This is a wonderful opportunity to serve God and the Parish through sharing your gifts of music and song. And it promises to be a lot of fun as well!

The following groups are all directed by our music director, Russell Stern. New members are always welcome and encouraged to join throughout the year.

The Adult Festival Choir

- We sing at the 9:00am Mass on Sunday (and sometimes other Masses) until the first week of June. We also sing for Holidays and special occasions. All singers are welcome.
- Rehearses in the church on Tuesday evenings from 7:30-9:00pm in the Church. The first rehearsal is on Sept. 9.

The 10:30 Mass Ensemble

- Sings at the 10:30am Mass throughout the year.
- All singers are welcome and instrumentalists are encouraged to audition.
- The singers rehearse in the church on Tuesdays from 7:30-9:00pm. The first rehearsal is on Sept. 9.
- Instrumentalists rehearse prior to the Mass or as needed.

The Teen/Young Adult Ensemble

- Sings approximately once a month either at the Sunday 5:00pm Mass and for Christmas, Easter and other special occasions, until early June.
- Students grade 7 through young adult are welcome.
- No audition required for singers. Instrumentalists are encouraged to audition.
- Rehearsals are in the church before the Mass at which they are singing, and sometimes on Tuesdays, 6:45pm (depending on the teen's availability).

The Children's Choir

- Sings once a month, either at the 9:00am or the 10:30am Mass from October through Mothers Day. They also sing at the Christmas Eve 3:00pm Mass, and on Easter.
- 1st thru 7th grade children are welcome.
- Rehearsals are in the church on Tuesdays, starting September 16, from 5:45-6:30pm

Cantors

- Cantors are auditioned from the choir and are then trained. They are scheduled to sing for 1-3 Masses a month depending upon the church's need and the cantor's availability. A Schola Cantorum made up of our cantors will sing periodically at the Saturday 5:00pm Mass.

To volunteer, or for more information, please contact Russell Stern at rsfern@olphglenview.org or you are welcome to just show up to one of the rehearsals listed above, at any time. Thank you for your consideration!

Scripture Study

Fall Scripture Study - The Gospel of Luke

The gospel of Luke presents a compassionate and inclusive portrait of Jesus, while giving special attention to prayer, the work of the Holy Spirit and the joy of salvation. It begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and continues through Jesus' public ministry, passion, death, resurrection and ascension. Unique to this Gospel are powerful parables like the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son.

As you journey through Luke's account, you will encounter Jesus in a new way and discover how his teachings fit into your life today!

All are invited to join this profound 8-week study.

Office of the Archbishop

Chicago, IL 60611-2030

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Daily, we hear heartbreaking stories of suffering from Gaza. So many innocent victims, including those who belong to Christian communities, face violence, dire living conditions, and hunger. Our Holy Father Pope Leo has said "Gaza is starving," as he called for a cease fire. In a particular way, the faces of Gaza's hungry children make an indelible impression on our hearts.

Perhaps we feel helpless to address this complex story that involves international players. There is, however, a pathway for us to respond. Two very reliable agencies of the Catholic Church are already there providing vital emergency humanitarian relief and medical and psychological care for the sick, malnourished, and wounded. They are the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) and Catholic Relief Services (CRS).

On the weekend of September 6-7, the parishes of the Archdiocese of Chicago will take up a special collection that will be promptly forwarded to CNEWA and CRS.

Whatever you can give will go far to alleviate the suffering of our brothers and sisters in the Middle East. I know the compassion and generosity of the people of the Archdiocese of Chicago. In the name of all those who will benefit from your support, I thank you.

Finally, let us pray urgently for the gift of peace in our wounded world, a peace which only the Lord can give.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Trusting in God in Life's Twists and Turns: The Conversions of St. Ignatius Loyola with Fr. Michael J. Graham, SJ

This retreat offers a sacred space to explore the ways in which life's detours and disruptions are not obstacles, but invitations—callings to trust, to grow, and to deepen our relationship with God. Through guided reflections rooted in Ignatian spirituality, personal prayer, and quiet contemplation, we will consider how God is present in the unexpected, gently guiding us toward a future filled with grace.

The Grace of Silence

Bellarmino Jesuit Retreat House maintains an atmosphere of silence so that you can hear God's voice speaking the words your soul longs to hear. These days are God's gift to you, a graced time for you to spend with the Lord. If you are not accustomed to being silent on a retreat, we guarantee that you will find it restful and refreshing!

While silence in your retreat at Bellarmine involves not talking to each other, it is more than that. It means quieting yourself on the outside and the inside so that you can be totally present to God.

Silence helps us let go of the preoccupations of the past and the anxieties about the future so that we can discover our deepest desires. It is in these deepest desires that God speaks to our souls and opens up new possibilities for our lives. Let God give you this special gift of time with Him in the new year.
