FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

John 3:16

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only son."

This quote from this weekend's gospel is often seen on posters at sports events, John 3:16. The Gospel reminds us that God the Father sent his only son into the world not to condemn the world but to love it.

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. The Feast commemorates the finding of the true cross in Jerusalem by St. Helena of the Cross, the mother of the Emperor Constantine in the third century.

The image of the cross looms large in Christianity and has been the most public way Christians identify themselves and the places where they worship.

The cross reminds me of the suffering and passion the Lord endured on Calvary that led to his resurrection.

Our Lord was not exempt from suffering and the cross for many of us is a place we turn to as we encounter suffering.

Violence has plagued the human community, and in the course of a lifetime, we will all bear heavy crosses.

Considering the tragic shootings in Minneapolis, I have found myself so heart sick over the amount of gun violence that seems to be getting worse and worse. Mass shootings have become so common that it really must be bad to even make the news. There is a generation of young people that have been dubbed, "the mass shooting generation."

We just have been unable to come to consensus in our country with how to deal with it. Conversations on gun control often dissolve into a shouting match with no one listening. We have got to do something!

I have been engaged in many conversations on safety protocols for our campus. They are exhausting but so necessary. When we talk about public safety, we need to plan on how to deal with a tornado, a fire, a roof collapse, a train derailment.

Most protocols deal with what do we need to do in the case of an active shooter. If the church of the Annunciation did not have its doors locked the killer could have caused a massacre of catastrophic proportions.

When it comes to gun control, I have no problem with firearms used for hunting or people who use firearms for legal recreational purposes. The gun owners, I know, take extreme precautions to ensure their safety and the safety of others.

What I do have a problem with are the accessibility of military grade, high powered assault weapons that use bullets designed to inflict as much damage as possible on a human person. Why on earth would any person need that kind of weapon. The ER doctor in Minneapolis said he can tell immediately what kind of bullet was used on victims of a gunshot. The survivability of a person wounded by these kinds of weapons is dismal.

Recent polls suggest that many Americans support universal background checks and assault weapon banns. Unfortunately, state and federal legislatures are plagued by elected representatives beholden to the gun lobby.

Pope Leo has declared gun violence a pandemic.

While I am on my soap box, we must expand, not defund, mental health resources. Many people who struggle with mental health issues pose no danger but there is a subset within a subset that do. We need to accompany all those who need support and medical attention.

Our country loves to tell other countries how they should live. Maybe we need to start listening to them. Why do cities like London, Paris, Tokyo, have much lower rates of gun violence than Chicago? Why do they do a much better job of identifying people who might pose a threat? They are thriving democracies.

I know there are no simple solutions to complex issues. We must deal with the fact that no one law or investment is going to solve the issue of gun violence. Choosing to just throw up our arms is getting us nowhere. When it comes to the safety of children, the freedom to bear arms must be far more reasonable than it is now.

Our parish task force is reviewing several protocols to make our campus safer. After September 11th we all had to adapt to a changing reality. Such is going to be the case here.

I am grateful for the many suggestions and conversations I have had with parishioners. We all love this parish and want to do whatever is necessary to make us safer.

Sorry if I have offended anyone with my feelings about guns. I just plead that we find a better way to be a community, redeemed by the blood of the Cross,

Fr. Jerry Boland

SPRED Mass - 9:00am, Sunday, Sept. 21

Our Fall Inclusion SPRED Mass will take place at 9:00am on Sunday, Sept. 21. All are welcome to join us at this joyful Eucharistic celebration.

SPRED Openings - Catechists and Children - Tuesdays

SPRED is a faith formation program for people with intellectual or developmental disabilities. OLPH's SPRED program serves children from 6 to 10 years old.

Our Tuesday night group has immediate openings for adult catechists. SPRED catechists meet 12 times per year with their fellow catechists in a tight-knit small faith community, and 12 times per year with the "total community," which includes the children in our program.

The only requirements for becoming a catechist are to be at least 21 years old and to have an open heart. There is no lesson planning or teaching involved. Please contact Mary McCool at marymccool411@gmail.com if you are interested or would like more information. If we are able to add another catechist, our Tuesday group would have an opening for another child.

Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Collection - Sept. 20-21

OLPH's SPRED catechists will be collecting money on behalf of the Knights of Columbus after Masses the weekend of September 20-21. Donations help to fund the SPRED programs at OLPH and St. Catherine Labouré, as well as other programs in our area for people with disabilities. We appreciate your generosity!

Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive to Support Persons with Developmental Disabilities

Every year during the month of September, the Father John J. Dussman Council of the Knights of Columbus in Glenview holds the annual Tootsie Roll Drive to support persons with special needs. The Dussman Council Knights, their families and friends, as well as individuals with disabilities and their families will take to street corners and in front of Glenview stores on September 19-21 to raise needed funds for local organizations which support children and adults with developmental disabilities.

In addition, the OLPH SPRED group will be outside after all the Masses on that weekend which coincides with the SPRED Mass at 9:00am on Sunday, Sept. 21.

The Tootsie Roll Drive is the largest charitable fundraising program of the Knights of Columbus. Our goal for this year's Tootsie Roll Drive is to raise in excess of $15,000; and we need your help. Please consider a gift this year to help support local non-profit organizations benefiting children and adults with special needs, including the OLPH Special Religious Education Program (SPRED). Funds raised this year will also go to support Illinois Special Olympics, Glenbrook United Special Olympics, and Misericordia Heart of Mercy.

Scripture Study

Fall Scripture Study - The Gospel of Luke

The gospel of Luke presents a compassionate and inclusive portrait of Jesus, while giving special attention to prayer, the work of the Holy Spirit and the joy of salvation. It begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and continues through Jesus' public ministry, passion, death, resurrection and ascension. Unique to this Gospel are powerful parables like the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son.

As you journey through Luke's account, you will encounter Jesus in a new way and discover how his teachings fit into your life today!

All are invited to join this profound 8-week study.

Start Date: Week of Sept. 29

ARCHDIOCESAN SEMINARIAN COLLECTION

OLPH supports the educational formation of our archdiocesan seminarians by contributing to the Archdiocesan Seminarian Education collection for their education and formation needs. We do this as part of our parish First Fruits Program, instead of taking up a second collection.

As a reminder, the first 6% of each weekly and holyday offertory collection is set aside for our First Fruits Program. Instead of taking up certain second collections, OLPH splits this 6% among our four sharing parishes and five named Archdiocesan second collections over the course of the year.

This Archdiocesan second collection for our seminarians, taken up in the Archdiocese during the weekend of September 20-21, is one of the second collections funded through our First Fruits Program.

If you choose, however, to make a separate gift, there are envelopes available at the entrances to the Church; there is a button open on the GiveCentral OLPH portal; or, you can give directly to the Archdiocese at:

archchicago.org/seminarianfund

Let us also remember to pray for our seminarians who are in this important period of formation as they strive to answer God's call to serve.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

SEMINARIAN EDUCATION FUND

The archdiocesan collection for the education and formation of our future priests.

The Seminarian Education Fund provides support for men studying for the priesthood in the Archdiocese of Chicago. The fund helps cover the cost of educating our seminarians as they proceed through the stages of formation before ordination as priests.

Your generosity supports these men answering God's call to a life of service for the Archdiocese of Chicago.
