NO SERVANT

CAN SERVE TWO MASTERS.

Luke 16:13

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"No servant can serve two masters."

In the spiritual world there are always forces competing for our attention. Some of these forces are grounded in evil, others in good. It is the challenge of discernment to distinguish the difference between the two,

Given the insipid nature of evil, we are called to vigilance in our daily prayer. I have adopted the practice of the daily examen.

The Daily Examen is technique of prayerful reflection on the events of the day. Where did I sense God's presence? The practice of the Daily Examen was described by St. Ignatius of Loyola in his Spiritual Exercises.

There are five steps to the Daily Examen:

- 1) Become aware of God's presence.
- 2) Review the day with gratitude.
- 3) Pay attention to your emotions.
- 4) Choose one feature of the day and pray about it.
- 5) Look forward to tomorrow.

If you would like to get more info on the practice of the Daily Examen check out: ignatianspirituality.com

In my recent Daily Examen, I have been reflecting on the recent canonization of St. Carlos Acutis. He is the first saint who belonged to the Millennial Generation. What caused the world to reflect on him was his devotion to the Eucharist. In the midst of being a part of the world of video games, soccer and the internet, he cultivated a deep spiritual connection to the Eucharist, to his family and to his friends. He evangelized many non-church going people like his parents to reconsider their relationship with the Lord and to begin weekly participation in the Mass.

St. Carlos is buried in a beautiful church in Assisi. He is giving St. Francis and St. Clare a run for their money with the lines of pilgrims visiting his tomb. What is striking is the number of teenagers and young adults who feel a powerful connection to him and his witness to a Eucharistic foundation to faith.

All over the world young people are expressing a desire for a deeper spiritual life. We see this in more young people participating in the OCIA, attending Mass, becoming more involved in youth ministry and campus ministry.

St. Carlos Acutis, pray for us, especially young people who seek your intercession on behalf of their spiritual growth.

Here at OL we are committed to the ongoing spiritual of all our people. Check out our Scripture Study program that is focusing on Luke. After the first of the year, men and women are invited to participate in a weekend retreat experience at Bellarmine Retreat House in Barrington. See the Bulletin for more information. For parents of second graders and eighth graders get involved with your children's sacramental programs and grow spiritually along with them!

May your week be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

Our Fall Inclusion SPRED Mass will take place this Sunday. All are welcome to join us at this joyful Eucharistic celebration.

SPRED Openings - Catechists and Children - Tuesdays

SPRED is a faith formation program for people with intellectual or developmental disabilities. OLPH's SPRED program serves children from 6 to 10 years old.

Our Tuesday night group has immediate openings for adult catechists. The only requirements for becoming a catechist are to be at least 21 years old and to have an open heart. There is no lesson planning or teaching involved.

Please contact Mary McCool at marymccool411@gmail.com if you are interested or would like more information. If we are able to add another catechist, our Tuesday group would have an opening for another child.

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP CHURCH

Dear Parishioners,

This coming Sunday will be the funeral of Charlie Kirk. He was assassinated at an event in Utah.

A couple of weeks ago I addressed the scourge of gun violence in our country as result of the mass shooting of school children at Annunciation school in Minneapolis.

I was grateful for the significant response to those comments. I appreciated how many of you recognized that I speak out on such matters as a moral not political voice. People want to reduce such issues to political judgment. Jesus was not a politician he was a moral teacher, and I look to follow him. My reflections come from a place of moral and not political reflection. I based that column on the 5th commandment, “thou shall not kill” and the development of moral law by St John Paul II, in his encyclical, “Veritatis Splendor”. John Paul was a staunch defender of the sanctity of life, he abhorred the culture of death as was revealed by senseless gun violence.

I need to speak again from a moral perspective. Whether you agreed with Charlie Kirk or not his murder is a moral outrage. His life was sacred and a gift from God. No one had the right to take it. The weekend Charlie was killed, dozens and dozens of innocent Americans had their lives ended because of gun violence.

The collateral damage is profound. His beautiful wife of 36 years of age is a widow, and those two beautiful children have lost their dad. By all accounts he was a wonderful husband and father. Every time those children google their dad’s name they will see horrific images of his death.

May they be embraced by the love of the Good Shepherd who cherishes us all.

Charlie, “may the angels lead you into paradise, may the martyrs come to welcome you, and lead you to the new and eternal Jerusalem “.

May the God of peace relieve us of the scourge of gun violence.

Sincerely,

Fr Jerry Boland

Scripture Study

Fall Scripture Study - The Gospel of Luke

The gospel of Luke presents a compassionate and inclusive portrait of Jesus, while giving special attention to prayer, the work of the Holy Spirit and the joy of salvation. It begins with the foretelling of John the Baptist's birth and continues through Jesus' public ministry, passion, death, resurrection and ascension. Unique to this Gospel are powerful parables like the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son.

As you journey through Luke's account, you will encounter Jesus in a new way and discover how his teachings fit into your life today!

All are invited to join this profound 8-week study.

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) Formerly RCIA

Classes for OCIA (the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) will begin this Fall.

OCIA is a program designed for individuals who are discerning their call to the Catholic faith. Whether you're unbaptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or a baptized Catholic seeking full communion with the Church, OCIA provides a structured path to explore, understand, and embrace the teachings of Catholicism.

OCIA is more than just learning about Catholic doctrines, it is transformative; it's a time of spiritual growth, self-discovery, and conversion. By the end of the process, you'll be prepared to fully embrace the Catholic faith, not just intellectually, but in your heart and soul.

For more information, please email Rev. Roy Belocura at rbelocura@olphglenview.org or click the QR Code to fill out a Google form questionnaire.

Classes will take place weekly at the OLPH Parish Center.

The first class is scheduled for 6:00pm, October 1, 2025 in the Parish Center.

Doctor of the Church, Counter Reformer, Theologian, Mystic, and Author

October 2 - November 1, All Saints' Day

Discover the timeless spiritual counsel of St. Teresa of Avila in an easily accessible format of morning and evening meditations. Selections from Teresa's writings, carefully chosen from the most difficult times in her life, substantiate the spiritual wisdom of her advice to let nothing disturb us—especially in our attempts to pray and find our own special path. We will focus not on the great metaphors of her major works, but on the underlying truths that illumine the journey to the center of the soul—hers and ours. – John Kirvan, Editor

- Surprising spiritual guidance that is both revealing and inspiring
- Quiets your mind and stills your soul so you can hear the Word of God more clearly
- Teaches how to pray fervently to God with powerful yet straightforward language
- Easy! Just independent prayerful reading for 5 minutes in the morning and in the evening, and a thought to ponder throughout the day
- Opportunities to deepen your experience: Two casual get-togethers on 10/15 and 11/1 plus a NEW Monday morning prayer group from 9:45 – 10:45am for a lectio divina-like contemplative prayer experience

Stewardship Report

To all Parishioners:

The results of collections for July and August 2025, the first two months of FY26, are listed below. As a parish community, you have contributed $405,608 towards Sunday and Holy Day collections for these two months. We are grateful for your generosity and the sacrifices you make to provide support to OLPH Parish.

Compared with the same period last year, actual collections for the two months increased by 2.5%. We are, however, trailing the budget projection for the new fiscal year by 10.5%. This amounts to approximately $47,000. Summer months traditionally yield less giving than the remainder of the year, and many of us no longer spread donations out week by week or month by month. It is important, though, that we keep watch over this variance, as our operating budget is built mostly around projected collections for the fiscal year.

As of this date, Generation to Generation: Answer the Call Campaign has raised $7,275,000 in pledges. OLPH will receive 65% of collected funds. To date, the OLPH portion of collected funds is $1.2 million. The Generation to Generation Project Steering Committee is sorting through projects, timelines, estimated costs and timing of funds available as we move into the project phase of the campaign.

The Annual Report is due to the Archdiocese by September 30th. Upon their acceptance and approval, we will be publishing our Parish Annual Report. Look for it, at the latest, by the beginning of November. Our results will show in pictures, numbers, and words all the blessings our parish has received, and all that we have shared with others.

As always, we thank you for your continued sacrifice and efforts to help sustain the works of our parish and we are ever grateful for your time, talent and treasure shared here at OLPH and beyond!

ARCHDIOCESAN SEMINARY COLLECTION

OLPH supports the educational formation of our archdiocesan seminarians by contributing to the Archdiocesan Seminarian Education collection for their education and formation needs. We do this as part of our parish First Fruits Program, instead of taking up a second collection.

As a reminder, the first 6% of each weekly and holyday offertory collection is set aside for our First Fruits Program. Instead of taking up certain second collections, OLPH splits this 6% among our four sharing parishes and five named Archdiocesan second collections over the course of the year.

This Archdiocesan second collection for our seminarians, taken up in the Archdiocese during the weekend of September 20-21, is one of the second collections funded through our First Fruits Program.

If you choose, however, to make a separate gift, there are envelopes available at the entrances to the Church; there is a button open on the GiveCentral OLPH portal; or, you can give directly to the Archdiocese at:

archchicago.org/seminarianfund

Let us also remember to pray for our seminarians who are in this important period of formation as they strive to answer God's call to serve.

SEMINARIAN EDUCATION FUND

The archdiocesan collection for the education and formation of our future priests.

The Seminarian Education Fund provides support for men studying for the priesthood in the Archdiocese of Chicago. The fund helps cover the cost of educating our seminarians as they proceed through the stages of formation before ordination as priests.

Your generosity supports these men answering God's call to a life of service for the Archdiocese of Chicago.

This retreat offers a sacred space to explore the ways in which life's detours and disruptions are not obstacles, but invitations—callings to trust, to grow, and to deepen our relationship with God. Through guided reflections rooted in Ignatian spirituality, personal prayer, and quiet contemplation, we will consider how God is present in the unexpected, gently guiding us toward a future filled with grace.

The Grace of Silence

Bellarmino Jesuit Retreat House maintains an atmosphere of silence so that you can hear God's voice speaking the words your soul longs to hear. These days are God's gift to you, a graced time for you to spend with the Lord. If you are not accustomed to being silent on a retreat, we guarantee that you will find it restful and refreshing!

While silence in your retreat at Bellarmine involves not talking to each other, it is more than that. It means quieting yourself on the outside and the inside so that you can be totally present to God.

Silence helps us let go of the preoccupations of the past and the anxieties about the future so that we can discover our deepest desires. It is in these deepest desires that God speaks to our souls and opens up new possibilities for our lives. Let God give you this special gift of time with Him in the new year.
