seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"I will make you a light to the nations."

Pope Leo has quickly established himself as a highly regarded voice on the global stage. He has addressed several conflicts and international challenges with the moral clarity that few others can match.

There was a time for many centuries when the Pope exercised much authority in the temporal world as the leader of the Papal States. He was a power to reckon with. As papal authority as a sovereign leader diminished, the political currents turned against him and the Papal States ceased when the Italian troops captured Rome in 1870. The formal relinquishing of temporal power ended with the Lateran Treaty of 1929 granting the establishment of the Vatican City State not much bigger than a postage stamp.

Many thought this was the nail in the coffin for the influence of the Pope on the stage of world politics.

Well, it has been the best thing to happen to papal authority. The Pope left the world of political power for the world of moral authority. In my lifetime we have experienced the golden age of the Papacy. The Popes of the 20th and 21st centuries have had a profound influence shaping the moral direction of the world. Look at the role St. John Paul II had in bringing down communism in Europe.

Pope Francis was a fierce advocate for political refugees and immigrants fleeing oppressive governments and poverty.

Pope Leo has picked up the mantle and has established himself as a moral authority on protecting the dignity of the most vulnerable. He has not shied away of condemning immoral political decisions that contradict the moral teachings of Jesus Christ. His years as a missionary in the poorest regions of Peru transformed him.

He is embodying a theme in the scriptures this weekend, "I will make you a light to the nations." The teachings of Jesus call us to light not darkness, to love not hatred, to generosity not selfishness, to peace not war. Our moral foundation in the light of Jesus needs to be heard in this troubled world. The world, as Pope Leo recently lamented, finds itself where "war is in vogue" again. The powerful rolling over the powerless.

"I will make you a light to the nations" is a profound endorsement of the moral responsibility we as Christians must pursue considering our baptism. We cannot be passive bystanders when so many of our brothers and sisters endure indignity, poverty, oppression, and violence.

Next week will be our annual observance of Catholic Schools week. Our parish school has been a significant part of our parish mission since it was founded in 1929. It has had a tremendous influence on forming thousands of our students to be "a light to the nations." Our graduates have gone on to take their place as solidly formed Christian men and women influencing their families, their communities, and the marketplace as "bearers of the light."

Important Safety Announcement

Starting next Tuesday, January 20, we will be implementing new Safety Protocols with the intention of improving the safety of our students from external threats.

Whenever our students are scheduled to be in the church, whether for student Mass, events, rehearsals, or any other reason, church doors will be locked from the outside.

We recently installed "panic doors" at all entrances in the church. They can be locked from the outside but opened from the inside.

New Protocols for Tue. & Thu. 8:30am Masses

Student Masses are 8:30am every Tuesday and Thursday. Our maintenance staff will be in the Church at 8:00am to do a safety check in all rooms, McDonnell Hall, and the Elevator entrance. Students arrive around 8:15am. Staff will begin locking the doors at 8:30am. The last two doors that will be closed are the Church St. entrance and the South Vestibule entrance at 8:35am. At that point, all doors are locked in the Church. No one will be allowed in. If you are planning on attending 8:30am Mass on these days, make sure you arrive before 8:30am or you will not be allowed in the church.

Occasions With Limited Access to the Lady Chapel Only.

There will be other times during the school year when children will be in the church or McDonnell Hall, when the main entrances will be closed, but there will be access to our Lady Chapel for those who want to come and pray or for adoration.

The safety of our students and staff is of the highest importance to us. We will continue to find ways to improve the safety of our OLPH Campus. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

I can't say enough for the leadership of Dr. Amy Mills, her staff, and our outstanding faculty. We have the largest grade school in the Archdiocese of Chicago and the gold standard in so many of the areas out of which a school is evaluated. Our most precious responsibility is to the well-being of the students entrusted to us. We want to help form them as "a light to the nations."

Another educator to whom I would like to give a "shout out" was a legendary faculty member of Loyola Academy, Br. Jim Small SJ. He is celebrating his 104th birthday. God's blessings to you Brother. You have influenced thousands of students with the best of a Jesuit education. Ad Multos Annos!

We have a busy February ahead! Our Annual Ministry Appreciation Mass and reception will be February 7. Please see the Bulletin for details. Also, our annual celebration of Valentine's Day is on February 14 at 5:00pm Mass. The announcement weekend for the Annual Catholic Appeal will begin on February 7.

May we together be "a light to the nations."

Fr. Jerry Boland

Ministers of Care

Congratulations to our Newly Commissioned

On Sunday, January 11, six new Ministers of Care were Commissioned. These new Ministers of Care completed 10 hours of training, and are now mandated by the Archdiocese of Chicago to bring Holy Communion to the sick and homebound of our parish. Currently over 70 men and women from OLPH are Ministers of Care and are actively serving in area hospitals and nursing homes, as well as visiting the homebound.

Congratulations to our new Ministers of Care:

- Julie Cook
- Mark Cullum
- Winnie Collins
- Patricia Lockwood
- Joyce Trzupek
- Anne Rim

They have now joined this wonderful ministry of service to the sick, disabled and homebound here in our parish.

Ministers of Care visit the sick and homebound with the Holy Eucharist, share the word of God in scripture, pray with them for the Church and the world, and offer companionship. Ministers of Care are a sign of the support and concern that our Church has for the sick, the elderly, the homebound, and those experiencing a time of need.

If you know of someone who may benefit from a visit by a Minister of Care, be a Good Samaritan by helping us to make contact and keep connected those most in need of the support and love of our Christian community, as well as the opportunity to receive the gift of Holy Communion.

For more information or to provide a referral, please call the OLPH Parish Office at: 847-729-1525.

New concert update

Mark Your Calendars: Russell Stern's second concert of the season has been rescheduled to March 8. The change had to be made because Russell recently had a serious injury and surgery. Here is Russell's note to parishioners:

"Dear Friends,

I wanted to let you know that I am recovering nicely and plan to perform the second concert of the season on March 8 at 2:00pm. The originally scheduled concert date was to be February 15.

Please mark your calendars about this change. I hope to see you on March 8! Thank you for all of your kind support!

Fr. Jim Barrett loved leading the OLPH Book Club. The Book Club had been growing in popularity with each book.

The Book that will be featured is:
"An Unfinished Love Story:
A Personal History of the 1960s"
by Doris Kearns Goodwin

One of America's most beloved historians, Goodwin artfully weaves together biography, memoir, and history that she and her husband, Richard (Dick) Goodwin, embarked upon in the last years of his life.

Both Doris and Richard worked in the White House during an interesting time in American history.

Please let Jim Vlazny know if you are attending so there will be enough seats. Email Jim at jamesvlazny@aol.com

We meet on the first and third Thursdays of each month in Hickey Hall of the Parish Center from 9:15 to 11:00am. Donated yarn helps us to knit or crochet warm items for the needy, hospice patients and babies. Thank you to all those who have donated yarn and the OLPH staff who support our ministry.

We make whatever we are inspired to do...hats, scarves, lap robes, prayer shawls, comforters, baby gifts, etc. These are distributed through OLPH sharing parishes, hospice chaplains and several organizations. Take a look at some of their beautiful work shown here that was done in 2025.

Scoreboard Advertising

Introducing

A Wonderful Advertising Opportunity for OLPH local businesses and families

Support OLPH

We have an advertising opportunity for signage in the OLPH Playdium gym. This is a great opportunity for a family or a business to be the Scoreboard Sponsor and have great visibility within the parish.

Background:

There are two (2) beautiful scoreboards in the Playdium gym. One is in the Southwest (SW) corner and the other is in the Northeast (NE) corner.

The Southwest scoreboard is slightly larger and is most likely viewed more often than the Northeast board. This is due to its location across from the bleachers that are used most frequently. The scoreboards were built with a rectangular area across the bottom for placement of a sign.

The Playdium is one of the premier buildings on the OLPH campus and the gym is used extensively by the school, various clubs and guilds, and the broader OLPH community.

Some of the activities of the Playdium include:

- 5th thru 8th grade boys basketball games
- 5th thru 8th grade girls basketball games
- Weekend basketball tournaments
- Five weekends of K-4 basketball skills programs
- 6th thru 8th grade girls volleyball games
- 7th thru 8th grade boys volleyball games
- Weekend volleyball tournament
- Roundball
- Musicales, Variety Show, Band Concerts
- Grandparents' Day, Mother/Son Sneaker Night, Boy Scout Pancake Breakfast
- Holly Fair, Religious Education Christmas Pageant, Breakfast with Santa
- Kindergarten Graduation
- Men's Basketball Open Gym and League
- CYO High School basketball practices and games
- Daily use for the PE classes for the entire school
- Christmas Masses

With the Playdium bustling with activity, the scoreboard signage presents many opportunities for a family or business to be noticed.
