seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Dear Parishioners,

"May the eyes of your hearts be opened."

This weekend we celebrate the 40th day of the Easter Season, the Feast of the Ascension. The Ascension marks the conclusion of Jesus's earthly ministry as he was lifted up amid the Apostles on top of the Mount of Olives. He leaves earthly existence to enter divine existence.

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

This scene has captured the imagination of artists from Rembrandt to Salvador Dali. I particularly admire the Triptych of the Last Judgement by the 15th century master Blessed Fra Angelico who unites both the Ascension and the moment of Pentecost. This work is exhibited in the Corsini Gallery in Rome. Jesus is depicted with a sense of serenity and divine grace.

The Ascension sets the stage for next week's celebration of Pentecost and the birthday of the Church. As Jesus was lifted up in their midst, the disciples were left with this abiding sense of "now what"?

They would discover they had not been abandoned. The Lord prepared them for the receiving of the Holy Spirit. As we hear this weekend in Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, "May the eyes of your hearts be opened." With the eyes of faith opened they will embrace the Spirit and have the power to "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations."

We are missioned as believers to be "sent" into the world. With eyes and hearts opened, we can continue to be witnesses of Jesus' mission to proclaim the Good News.

The Easter Season compels us to be active evangelizers.

I love the sacraments of Easter! We have had many baptisms each weekend, The wedding season is in full gear. We had glorious celebrations of First Communion, we have 187 First Communicants and had five absolutely beautiful celebrations.

This Sunday we have our quarterly Mass with the SPRED community. I just love this mass and many of you do as well. We will also have a First Communion at that Mass. I am so grateful to our SPRED catechists. They really form a community in their ministry to the SPRED students and their families. This ministry is one of the great efforts of our parish. We share with our neighboring parishes: St. Catherine Labouré, St Norbert & Our Lady of the Brook, and Faith Hope and Charity, to reach out to the various age groups of our SPRED students. If you know of any special needs child, teenager or young adult who could benefit from the SPRED program please call the office. We are also always looking for catechists so please contact the office, as this is one of the most fulfilling ministries.

This past Thursday was the annual kickoff event for the Men's Club. Thank you to Chad Löse and the officers for an awesome year. So much happened, the membership keeps growing and so many vital events took place to celebrate our community. A warm welcome to Mike Haley and his officers as they take on the mantle of leadership. Mark your calendar for the annual Block Party on September 12. I promise to pray for no rain!

Fra Angelico, The Ascension of Christ, The Last Judgment, Pentecost

The Women's Club Gala at Sunset Ridge was an amazing success with over $200,000 raised. Thanks to Julie Eichenseer and her Guild and committee for planning such a tremendous evening.

May your week be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

A NIGHT AT THE RACES

Everyone went home a winner!

On May 8, 2026, 250 parishioners gathered at Sunset Ridge Country Club for the OLPH Women's Club's largest fundraiser of the year, A Night at the Races. In true Triple Crown spirit, guests arrived in fascinators, hats, and seersucker as the community helped raise an impressive $200,000.

The most sought after item of the night was Father Boland's Christmas Eve Mass at home, ultimately won by Jed and Meredith Richard for $10,000 after spirited bidding. The Paddle Raise raised enough to close the campus elevator budget shortfall and brought in over $90,000, reflecting extraordinary generosity. It was truly inspiring to witness our community unite so joyfully for both fun and community support.

Fr. Jerry Boland was the guest of honor at this special Women's Club event...

...all the paddles were up for the auction...

...women arrived dressed to the nines....

...they were ready to win, place AND show...

...because maybe tonight was their night...

...or maybe better luck next time!
