Religious Education Program

Growing in Faith. Belonging Together.

Thank you to everyone who joined us during Catechist Open House Week! It was a wonderful opportunity to welcome new faces, reconnect with returning catechists, and share what's new as we prepare for another year of Religious Education!

Our catechists are the heart of our program. They build relationships, share their faith, create welcoming classrooms, and help make Religious Education what it is.

Ask almost any catechist why they continue to serve, and you'll hear the same thing: what began as volunteering has become one of the best parts of their week!

Become a Catechist!

Parents and parishioners are always invited to become part of our Religious Education community. Whether you're interested in serving as a lead catechist, associate catechist, student catechist, substitute, hallway monitor, helping with family faith events, or sharing your gifts in another way, we'd love to hear from you!

Visit olphre.org to explore the many opportunities to get involved, complete the Become a Catechist form, or contact the Religious Education Office to learn more.

Devotions and A&E Ministry

Giving Thanks for Our Mother of Perpetual Help and Fr. Jerry!

Saturday, February 27, our church celebrated the Feast of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, our patroness and the title of the mystical icon, a replica of which hangs in our beautiful Lady Chapel.

The Holy Rosary Group hosted their annual OMPH novena the previous 9 days, reflecting on the elements of the icon that teach us about Mary's loving care, her protection for our families, and how she leads each of us to Jesus. Many people joined in spirit through the Daily Eblast. They prayed for the sick and the dying, for those recently passed, for our families, and for our priests—especially for our retiring pastor Fr. Jerry and our newly arrived pastor Fr. John.

The Feast Day always concludes with a delicious breakfast celebration on the Rectory Porch after 8:30am Mass and this past Saturday was no exception. The Misericordia folks outdid themselves with an amazing assortment of breakfast treats and ministry members brought a bounty of fruit, yogurt, and toppings.

The Holy Rosary Group and the Arts & Environment Ministry took this time to personally thank Fr. Jerry for his incredible support these past 14 years. He was A&E's biggest cheerleader on important decorating days, always dropping by to marvel at the church as it was transformed for Christmas or Easter. A&E presented him with a framed image of one of his favorite things at OLPH—the Lady Chapel fully decked out for Easter Sunday with the drape and crown.

The Rosary Group also thanked Fr. Jerry for being such a wonderful shepherd and for sharing their devotion to Our Lady with a generous purse offering, a bottle of red wine, and an Old Guys Rule t-shirt just for fun! It was a great morning, made even better when Fr. John Trout made an appearance. There's no doubt about it—OLPH is truly a blessed parish. Praise be to God!

Summer with St. Francis

From the book The Life of St. Francis written by St. Bonaventure, a Franciscan monk and mystic, in 1260.

Week 4, Chapter 2 Part 2 On His Restoration of Three Churches

Released now from the chains of all earthly desires, this despiser of the world left the town and in a carefree mood sought out a hidden place of solitude where alone and in silence he could hear the secrets God would convey to him.

Coming to a certain neighboring monastery he asked for alms like a beggar and received it—unrecognized and subjected to contempt. Setting out from there, he came to Gubbio, where he was recognized and welcomed by a former friend and given a poor little tunic, like one of Christ's little poor. From there, the lover of complete humility went to the lepers and lived with them, serving them all most diligently for God's sake.

He washed their feet, bandaged their ulcers, drew the pus from their wounds and washed out the diseased matter; he even kissed their ulcerous wounds out of his remarkable devotion. As a result, he received such power from the Lord that he had miraculous effectiveness in healing spiritual and physical illnesses. I will cite one case among many, which occurred after the fame of the man of God became more widely known.

There was a man in the vicinity of Spoleto whose mouth and cheek were being eaten away by a certain horrible disease. He could not be helped by any medical treatment and went on a pilgrimage to implore the intercession of the holy apostles. On his way back from visiting their shrines, he happened to meet God's servant.

When out of devotion he wanted to kiss Francis' footprints, that humble man, refusing to allow it, kissed the mouth of the one who wished to kiss his feet. In his remarkable compassion, Francis, the servant of lepers, touched that horrible sore with his holy mouth and suddenly every sign of the disease vanished and the sick man recovered the health he longed for. I do not know which of these we should admire more: the depth of his humility in such a compassionate kiss or his extraordinary power in such an amazing miracle.

Grounded now in the humility of Christ, Francis recalled to mind the command enjoined upon him from the Cross, to repair the church of San Damiano. As a truly obedient man, he returned to Assisi to obey the divine command at least by begging aid. Putting aside all embarrassment out of love of Christ's poor and crucified, he begged from those among whom he used to show his wealth and he loaded stones upon his body which was already weak from fasting.

With God's help and the devoted assistance of the citizens, he completed repairs on the church. After this work, to prevent his body from becoming sluggish with laziness, he set himself to repair a certain church of Saint Peter some distance from the town, because of the special devotion which, in his pure and sincere faith, he bore to the Prince of the Apostles.

When he finally completed this church, he came to a place called the Portiuncula, where there was a church dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mother of God, built in ancient times but now deserted and cared for by no one. When the man of God saw how it was abandoned, he began to live there in order to repair it, moved by the fervent devotion he had toward the Our Lady.

According to the name of the church, which since ancient times was called St. Mary of the Angels, he felt that angels often visited there. So he took up residence there out of his reverence for the angels and his special love for the mother of Christ. The holy man loved this spot more than any other in the world. For here he began humbly, here he progressed steadily, here he ended happily. At his death, he recommended it to the friars as a place most dear to the Virgin.

Before his conversion, a certain friar, devoted to God, had a vision about this church which is worth relating. He saw a large group of men who had been struck blind, kneeling in a circle about this church, their faces turned to heaven.

With uplifted hands and tearful voices, they were crying out to God, begging that he have pity on them and grant them sight. And behold, a splendrous light came down from heaven and spread over them all, giving to each his sight and the health that he had longed for.

This is the place where the Order of Friars Minor was begun by St. Francis under the inspiration of divine revelation. For at the bidding of divine providence, which guided Christ's servant in everything, he physically repaired three churches before he began the Order and preached the Gospel.

This he did not only to ascend in an orderly progression from the sensible realm to the intelligible, from the lesser to the greater, but also to symbolize prophetically in external actions perceived by the senses what he would do in the future. For like the three buildings he repaired, so Christ's Church—with its three-fold victorious army of those who are to be saved—was to be renewed under Francis' leadership in three ways: by the structure, rule, and teaching which he would provide. And now we see that this prophecy has been fulfilled.

From The Life of St. Francis, written by St. Bonaventure in 1260. Public domain translation.

Come back again next week for Chapter 3 On the Foundation of the Order and Approval of the Rule.

The Way

The Chapel that Changed the World The story of the Portiuncula

Francis had just left his furious father in the city center and was holding the bundle of clothes he had stripped off, as he rushed naked through a wooded meadow below the city to a tiny, ancient chapel called St. Mary of the Angels, which he had visited so many times before.

The chapel Portiuncula inside the St. Mary of the Angels Basilica

The little chapel in the valley had been there for centuries, and Francis had prayed there often recently, hungry for his vocation, his mission. As Francis looked around now at the crumbling stones, he decided this would be his new home.

That chapel is known now, as it was then, as the Portiuncula which means "the little portion" in reference to the plot of land it sits on. It remains in the very same meadow. The original owners, a Benedictine order, donated the chapel to Francis to become the first monastery of his brand-new Order of the Friars Minor.

The Portiuncula is where Francis received St. Clare's vows and tonsured her hair. It's also where a dying Francis asked to be laid on the same ground where he had first found his calling.

The Portiuncula measures only 180 square feet, but pilgrims flocked there anyway to pray where Francis and Clare had prayed. Eventually, the exploding throngs needed more space.

In 1569, the magnificent St. Mary of the Angels Basilica was constructed around the original chapel. The Portiuncula is now enclosed at the basilica's very heart.

We will learn more about St. Francis' mystical experiences at the Portiuncula in the weeks ahead.

Summer Food Drive

School is almost out for summer and our kids are excited for all their favorite summer activities!

Yet 1 in 4 families with children in the Chicago area face food insecurity, and this hardship significantly intensifies during the summer months when school-provided meals are no longer available.

You can help us address this need by bringing non-perishable food items to church each week throughout the summer.

Items can be placed in the bins at the entrances to church, or children can bring them up during the offertory at mass.

If you would like to make a one-time or weekly donation for the purchase of food, please scan to visit Give Central.

BELLARMINE
 Jesuit Retreat House

July 15, 2026
Day of Reflection for Adults

Jesus invites us to embrace childlike wonder, while Ignatius encourages us to discover God's presence in all things. This retreat offers prayerful reflection and imaginative contemplation with creation as a sacred reflection of God's presence, and guides us into a deep, heartfelt encounter with the Divine. As we refresh our eyes, return to humility, and open ourselves to awe and wonder, we catch a glimpse of how God sees—the beauty, the mystery, and the surprises that surround us.
