Meditation on Sunday's Gospel

Matthew 21: 28-32

This Sunday, Jesus tells a short, uncomfortable story. A father asks two sons to go work in the vineyard. One says no, but later goes. The other says yes, but never shows up. It is a parable so simple, we almost miss how sharp it is. Jesus is clear about who it is for. This is not aimed at pagans or outsiders. It is aimed squarely at religious people, people who know the right words and sound obedient.

Jesus is not condemning unbelief so much as disobedience. The polite hypocrisy that says the right things while quietly resisting the Father's will.

St. John Chrysostom put it bluntly, "Not words, but deeds, are what God requires. Nothing so exasperates Him as insincere obedience, while nothing so delights Him as repentance."

Every disciple must face that mirror. Do I publicly profess faith in Christ while privately resisting what He asks of me? It is easy to say, I believe in God in my heart. But if faith never becomes action, it slowly becomes an illusion.

Jesus does not expose hypocrisy to shame us. He reveals it to heal us. He wants our hearts and our deeds to speak the same word, to let our yes truly mean yes.

Like the second son who initially refused but afterwards changed his mind and went, Jesus invites us to step into the Father's will, however late, however imperfectly.

Challenge: Where are your public faith and private obedience divided? Where do you say, I will go, but never enter the vineyard? Go, get to work, even if it is late. The Father's vineyard is still open.

— Father John Muir

seek, share, rejoice - fr. john's installation mass - photo gallery...

Dear Parish Family and Friends,

I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who joined us for my Installation Mass. It was a deeply moving and truly joyful celebration, and I am profoundly humbled to begin this chapter of ministry alongside all of you.

A special word of thanks goes out to Sr. Paulanne, Russell Stern, and Terry Luc, among others, whose care and dedication ensured that our liturgy was both deeply prayerful and uplifting. I am also so grateful to Mary Fran Dolan and Beth O'Grady for organizing the wonderful reception team; their hard work provided such warm hospitality, with an abundance of delicious food and drinks for the many people who gathered.

The grace of the weekend continued the very next day as we celebrated our SPRED Mass with our families who have children with additional needs. It was an extraordinarily kind and respectful liturgy that touched my heart.

Over the course of just a few days, you have shown me what makes this parish so special: OLPH is not only a vibrant, welcoming community of faith, but one that is deeply kind, respectful, and rooted in Christ's love. Thank you for welcoming me so warmly into the heart of this parish.

With gratitude and prayers,

Fr John

Voting is a moral obligation

"In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. ... Unfortunately, politics in our country often can be a contest of powerful interests, partisan attacks, sound bites, and media hype. The Church calls for a different kind of political engagement: one shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the weak and the vulnerable." - U.S. Catholic Bishops

Seminarian News

Welcome back, Jeff and Andrew!

OLPH welcomes back Mundelein seminarians Jeff Davlin and Andrew Whipple, who have been on internships since January in their home diocese of Grand Rapids. They continue serving our parish under the Tolton Teaching Parish Program (TTPP) while they complete Year 3 of the Configuration Stage of priestly formation. Here they offer updates on their internship experiences. Be sure to say "Hi" when you see them around the parish!

Jeff: My internship was wonderful. I was assigned to a parish on the Lake Michigan shoreline near Grand Haven. I primarily spent my time learning all I could about the day-to-day life of a pastor. I also helped with the parish K-8 school, contributed to Bible Studies, and regularly brought communion to several area nursing homes. All in all, my internship taught me a lot about the practicalities of parish ministry. I look forward to continuing to learn and grow here at OLPH!

Andrew: One of the greatest blessings of my internship was my experience in the K-8 parish school. Teaching the students and finding Christ in the classroom helped me grow in faith and in confidence at the prospect of our young Catholics coming up the ranks. I look forward to my fourth year at OLPH, and to immersing myself again in the parish. (Fittingly, I had a full immersion experience at the Block Party dunk tank.) I also look forward to getting to know Father John Trout! Later this Fall, Jeff and I will take a pilgrimage with our class to Turkey, Greece and Italy, following in the footsteps of St. Paul. Please keep us in your prayers, and if you have any prayer intentions, don't hesitate to share them with me.

Letter from our Luke!

Hi OLPH Family!

It's Luke Lato here, your home-grown seminarian! I have a few exciting announcements and a couple of favors to ask of you!

First off, I am in my final mile of seminary! I will be ordained a deacon Nov. 7 and then a priest May 22! I cannot thank you all enough for all the support and prayers you have given me. I ask that you please continue to pray for me as I make it to the start line of priesthood!

Secondly, I am currently approaching another start line! I am running the Chicago Marathon on October 11th for the third time!! It has been an incredible training, and I am so excited to run for The Mission of Our Lady of the Angels.

For those of you who do not know them, they are a Franciscan religious order who serve the poor and suffering of the West Side of Chicago. They feed over 700 hundred families every Tuesday at their food pantry and serve countless others throughout the week. They are like family to me. I really do call these sisters my sisters. With that said, it would mean the absolute world to me if you would support my fundraising campaign for them. It would be an honor to have you be part of my journey and then pray for you during my marathon.

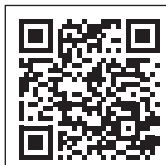

You better believe the pain of those last 6 miles will be offered for all of you here at OLPH!

Thank you again for all your support and know of my continued prayers for you all.

Peace,

Luke Lato

VietNam - Getting water from stream

Thank you for your generous gifts to the Daughters of Charity International Project Services. Your continued kindness will have a direct impact on the lives of those served by Sisters in communities around the world.

We are deeply grateful for the opportunity you gave Sr. Theresa to speak at your church on behalf of DCIPS. Sharing our mission with Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church meant a great deal to us, and we are thankful for the platform and warm welcome from your community.

Your gifts will support a future Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene (WASH) project, helping bring safe water and improved sanitation to communities in need. We will keep you updated as plans progress, including when and where the funds are put to use.

We ensure that 100% of every gift goes entirely to local initiatives led by Daughters of Charity Sisters. Each year, donors like you enable them to implement roughly 100 new projects, improving the lives of thousands of people worldwide. Life Has Dignity At Every Stage

ILLINOIS

ASSISTED SUICIDE LAW

What Catholics Need to Know

FACTS • FAITH • OUR RESPONSE

Illinois' new End-of-Life Options for Terminal Ill Patients Act (SB 1950) is now in effect. The law was signed by Governor J.B. Pritzker on December 12, 2025 — the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe and took effect September 12, 2026.

JOIN US FOR AN IMPORTANT AND TIMELY DISCUSSION:

-  Who is eligible under the new law?
-  How does the process work?
-  What legal and religious challenges are underway?
-  What does the Catholic Church teach about assisted suicide and end-of-life care?

FEATURING
ROBERT GILLIGAN
Executive Director
Catholic Conference of Illinois

Wednesday, September 30
7:00 PM
St. Norbert and Our Lady of the Brook Parish
1809 Walters, Northbrook

Come learn about this new Illinois law, the challenges surrounding it, and how our Catholic faith calls us to uphold the dignity of human life from conception to natural death.

A culture of life chooses hope.
