Meditation on Sunday's Gospel

Matthew 22: 1-14

Some friends invited me to one of the most famous and expensive restaurants in the country. I was grateful and eager to go. One invited friend even flew from another state for the experience. Every bite and sip was truly memorable and delicious. But my friends' teenage children spent much of the time on their phones, complained about the food, and generally ignored the once-in-a-lifetime experience. I wanted to yell, "C'mon, you guys! Look what you're missing!"

In today's parable, Jesus describes people invited to an amazing wedding feast who respond with inexplicable indifference. He says, "Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business" (Matthew 22:5).

The problem is not that they choose evil but that they allow other desires to distract them from an amazing opportunity. The feast is prepared, but their hearts are elsewhere. In Christ Jesus, God offers each of us a wildly extravagant offer: a place at the wedding banquet between heaven and earth.

— Father John Muir

Ministry of Care Training

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Sick

Upcoming Training Dates:
Oct. 17 & Oct. 24

Ministers of Care bring Holy Communion to parishioners who are homebound, living in nursing homes, or in the hospital. They share with them the word of God in scripture, pray with them, for the Church and the world, and offer them companionship. Through the Ministry of Care, we are able to keep long-time parishioners of OLPH connected and active in our faith community.

The work of the Ministry of Care is open to all members of our parish community, and a basic training course for new Ministers of Care will take place in McDonnell Hall at OLPH on two successive Saturday mornings, Oct. 17 and Oct. 24.

Both sessions will focus on various aspects of the Ministry of Care; however, the unifying thread woven through all is a commitment to helping you develop the skills and confidence needed to be a source of comfort to those who are sick, elderly or homebound. These sessions will be facilitated by Rick Nash and Jim Vlazny, Coordinators of the Ministry of Care at OLPH. Completion of this course qualifies you to receive the Archdiocesan mandate to bring Communion to the sick, homebound and hospitalized of our parish.

If you think God might be calling you to this most important ministry, please contact Rick Nash for more information or to register for the training sessions call 847-651-8718 or email rick.nash@comcast.net.

Lastly, if you, a family member, or someone you know is homebound, unable to attend Mass, and would like to receive Holy Communion, OLPH Ministers of Care are available to bring Holy Communion. For more information, please call the Parish Office at 847-729-1525.

Small Change. Big Impact

Help young mothers in difficult circumstances

The OLPH Respect Life Ministry is supporting local crisis pregnancy centers with the Baby Bottle Project. Returning a bottle full of coins, bills and checks, will help those served by Aid for Women and The Women's Centers, who counsel and support mothers considering abortion.

Other options:

- Go to GiveCentral.org to make your donation
- drop a check made out to OLPH at the Parish Center or in the collection basket.

Voting is a moral obligation

"In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. ... Unfortunately, politics in our country often can be a contest of powerful interests, partisan attacks, sound bites, and media hype. The Church calls for a different kind of political engagement: one shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the weak and the vulnerable." - U.S. Catholic Bishops

Don't wait!

Make your plans now for voting in this year's November 3rd election.

- ♦ For important information and deadlines related to voting in this year's election, check out the Illinois League of Women Voters' VOTE411.org webpage.

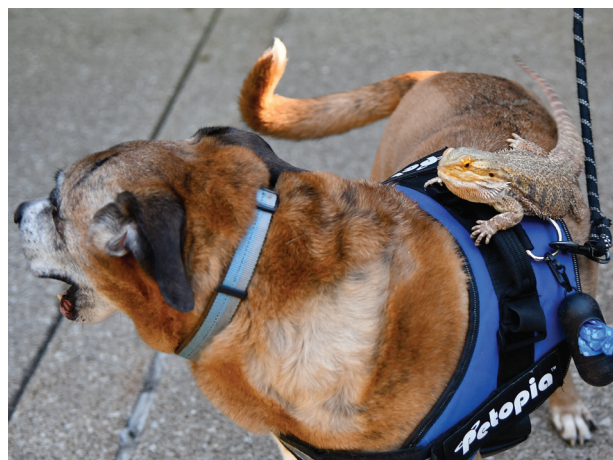

If you have a problem registering or getting to the polls to vote, contact Pax Christi Illinois at 630-904-3859 or email nloetter@comcast.net.
