Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church

October 25, 2026

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Below are key excerpts from Sunday's readings

First Reading:
"You shall not wrong any widow or orphan.
If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry.
My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans." (Ex 22:21-23)

Psalm:
I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading:
For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel:
"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." (Mt 22:37)

Question of the week

Is Halloween a pagan holiday or a Catholic one?

Answer: The short answer: nowadays, a little bit of both. But it wasn't always that way. Halloween and All Saints' Day are closely connected. In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints' Day. It was originally called All Hallow's Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallows' Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and pranks?

All Saints' Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2nd is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as "dark" spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today's celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. But remember, this feast was Catholic first. ©LPi

Meditation on Sunday's Gospel

Matthew 22: 34-40

When I was in seventh grade, like most boys of that age, I was constantly hungry. I could eat at any hour of the day. Then I fell head over heels for a classmate named Kristin. One evening, while lying on my bed and pondering her perfections, my mom called me to dinner. For the first time in my adolescent life, I remember thinking: "I'm not hungry." My heart longed for Kristin more than my stomach for food. Now, I wouldn't confuse adolescent infatuation with mature love. But it was an experience of how love can reorder everything in our lives.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart" (Matthew 22:37). He is not issuing a burden or a moral goal for high achievers. He is naming the deepest orientation of the human heart. We were made for love so great that it gathers every other love into itself. Jesus does not ask us to love less the persons or things that attract us. Rather, he wants our love for God to be so total and intense that we love everything and everyone else because we love him so much.

Do we believe that such a love is possible for us? Because of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, it is! It is readily available to us. Let's repent of our half-hearted love for God and ask Him to fill our hearts to the brim with divine love.

We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore, all is meant to be placed at the service of God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him.

Voting is a moral obligation

"In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. ... Unfortunately, politics in our country often can be a contest of powerful interests, partisan attacks, sound bites, and media hype. The Church calls for a different kind of political engagement: one shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the weak and the vulnerable." - U.S. Catholic Bishops

Don't wait!

Make your plans now for voting in this year's November 3rd election.

Domestic Violence Awareness Ministry

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

During Domestic Violence Awareness Month, Adult Protective Services (APS) at North Shore Senior Center (NSSC) and OLPH work together to raise awareness about abuse, neglect, and exploitation of adults over age 60 and adults with disabilities, 18-59 years old.

APS collaborates with local organizations to provide resources, education, and support for victims experiencing abuse, neglect and exploitation. Our efforts aim to ensure the safety and dignity of at-risk adults in the communities we serve.

In the Glenview area, North Shore Senior Center covers Maine, New Trier and Northfield townships.

In FY 2025 there were 425 APS cases reported to the North Shore Senior Center.

Myth: Domestic violence is an impulse control or anger management problem.

Fact: Abusers act deliberately and with forethought. Abusers choose whom to abuse.

Your donations are critical as hunger is rampant in our four sharing parish communities, St. James, St. Sabina's, Mother of the Americas, and St. Josephine Bakhita. Please hear the cry of the poor!

Donations can be delivered to the truck on the parking lot during Mass times the next four weekends of November.

CATHOLIC PARISHES OF OAK PARK
MIGRANT MINISTRY

Propelled by LOVE to Welcome the Stranger

Sept 1, 2026

Dear Catholic Community of Our Lady of Perpetual Help,

On behalf of the leadership team of the Migrant Ministry of the Catholic Parishes of Oak Park, I would like to thank you, Sandy, and the people and staff of Our Lady of Perpetual Help for your ongoing support of our ministry to our immigrant and migrant brothers and sisters.

Wow! Another big load of donated clothes arrived yesterday. I am sorry that I didn't get any photos because I was too busy gabbing with Sandy. But the clothes will quickly be placed in our "free stores" for the migrants to select. We believe in "donations with dignity," allowing the migrants "shop" for what they like, rather than just being issued some clothing. And some of the clothes you donated were brand-new, still with their tags!

Below are some photos of our ministry, including one of a volunteer passing out new school supplies – always fun and hopeful for the new school year. We breathe in the hope of the new school year in light of the fear and anxiety in which so many of our migrants live. The center is increasingly a "place of encounter" as Popes Francis and Leo called us to create. The migrants feel welcomed, respected, and heard. In that atmosphere, the migrants feel comfortable enough to share other concerns – upcoming court dates, inability to pay the rent, and sometimes domestic violence stemming from high levels of stress in the family. A significant amount of our ministry is outside of the center: accompanying migrants to court; seeking job opportunities; and connecting migrants with domestic violence resources.

All this is possible because of the support of our larger Catholic community, like Our Lady of Perpetual Help!

Mil gracias!

A Peek at our Week

A GREAT DAY TO BE A WARRIOR!

Warrior Day is a fan favorite on our campus! Our K–8 students teamed up for an incredible day filled with tug-of-war, exciting outdoor stations, and plenty of teamwork and sportsmanship. It was wonderful to see the spirit and energy of our Warriors as they tackled each new team-building challenge. Most heartwarming of all was watching our older students look out for their younger teammates and step into leadership roles. A great day of teamwork, connection, and being a Warrior!

Special Note About Spam Emails

Occasionally, fraudulent emails are sent out from scammers with a fake email address seeming to be sent from Fr. Trout or a parish organization. In fact, recently there was a scam email supposedly from Women's Club. These emails ask for money. Please beware - THESE ARE SCAMS.

Fr. Trout or the parish will never solicit funds or goods via emails or texts. Fr. Trout would only solicit funds in public from the pulpit. Should any parishioners receive an email or text from him or any parish organization directly asking for money, they should be on alert to ignore or delete the request.

These scams are impossible for us to control from our end. We ask all parishioners to be vigilant and mindful at all times for these types of emails, and not just from OLPH, but from any source that is not 100% trustworthy.
