Second Reading:
For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. (1 Thes 4:14)

Questions of the week

1st Reading Question

According to our Jewish sage, wisdom is a virtue that desires to be known by those who seek her. How does anyone know they have found wisdom?

2nd Reading Question

Paul offers hope in the bodily resurrection of the dead for the Thessalonians who are grieving the death of a loved one. How does your faith in Jesus sustain you in times of grief and distress?

Gospel Question

In the Parable of the Ten Virgins, Jesus teaches his disciples the importance of planning ahead for the unknown. Do you consider yourself a pre-planner? ©LPi

Catholic Trivia - Just for Fun

Question: What musical instrument is more commonly found inside churches than not?

Answer: The organ

Meditation on Sunday's Gospel

Matthew 25:1-13

My first instinct upon waking is to grab my phone and start scrolling. Sometimes I do it for 20 or 30 minutes, and it makes me feel distracted and agitated. I feel guilty, too, for wasting my first moments of the day. So recently, I committed those minutes to reading a book that would focus my mind on Jesus. I enjoy the fact that I am not scattering my attention as much. I feel more peaceful and focused on God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks about attention. He contrasts wise and foolish virgins, and then sums up the teaching by saying, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour" (Matthew 25:13). The basic currency of the human heart is attention.

The foolish bridesmaids are not immoral or malicious; they are unfocused, distracted, and unprepared. They assume that borrowed oil will suffice, that someone else's readiness can make up for their own lack. But the attention which is love cannot be outsourced. A relationship with God requires personal attentiveness cultivated over time.

This Gospel leaves us with an honest question. What am I giving my attention to each day, and am I forming a heart that is awake, watchful, and ready to meet the Lord when He comes? How can I use key moments of my day to focus my attention where I need it to be?

seek, share, rejoice - bellarmine retreats winter 2027...

Secure your spot today for OLPH's 2027 Annual Retreats for Men & for Women!

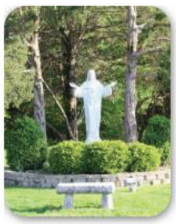

BELLARMINE
Jesuit Retreat House

420 W County Line Rd • Barrington, IL 60010 • 847-381-1261 • www.JesuitRetreat.org

Did you know the Church strongly encourages Catholics to go on a retreat at least once a year? It is one of the best ways to take a break from daily noise and screens so you can rest your soul and renew your relationship with God. Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House is a quiet, sacred place of beauty and prayer. Their retreats are rooted in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola in the Catholic tradition. Below are the retreats specifically chosen for OLPH's annual retreats for Men and Women in 2027.

OLPH Men's Weekend: January 15 - 17, 2027

"Taking Heart" with Saint Ignatius with Jesuit priest and author Fr. James Kubicki

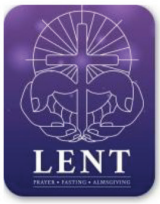

It is very easy for us to "lose heart" or to become discouraged, and in his last encyclical letter Pope Francis talked about an increasingly "heartless world." By reflecting on key themes of St. Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises, we will "take heart" as Jesus transforms our hearts to be more like his. Suggested Contribution: $395

Ready to register? Point your smartphone at the QR code or click HERE.
Need more info? Contact OLPH Men's Captain Dave Ludden at ddludden@hotmail.com or 773-988-8633

OLPH Women's Weekend: February 5-7, 2027

Preparing our Pilgrim Hearts for Lent with spiritual author and professor Christine Eberle

Too often, Lent catches us by surprise; we find ourselves at an Ash Wednesday service trying to figure out what to give up (or take on) for the next six weeks. This year, why not ground your Lent in a weekend retreat that will help you enter the holy season ahead more gracefully and grace-filled? Through presentation, reflection, conversation, and prayer, we will consider how to approach Lent with the heart of a pilgrim radically open to the journey before us as we deepen our walk with God. Suggested Contribution: $395

Ready to register? Point your smartphone at the QR code or click HERE.
Need more info? Contact OLPH Women's Captain Jennifer Farber at TheWayOLPH@gmail.com or 847-840-5899

What can I expect at a Bellarmine retreat? See the sidebar on the next page for some of the basics of the retreat.

Sharing Ministry

Fall Food Drive – Through November 22

Guilds 30 and 8 will once again be coordinating the Fall Food Drive, which will run the month of November. Please support this most important effort which has historically represented about 40% of the food that comes through the Sharing Resource Center (SRC) each year.

Your donations are critical as hunger is rampant in our four sharing parish communities, St. James, St. Sabina's, Mother of the Americas, and St. Josephine Bakhita. Please hear the cry of the poor! Donations can be delivered to the truck on the parking lot during Mass times the next four weekends of November.

Support Our Sharing Parishes

Next Sunday's truck will be delivering to St. Josephine Bakhita's food pantry. They are especially requesting:

- Canned fruits and vegetables
- Canned cranberries
- Boxed stuffing
- Instant or canned potatoes
- Canned meats and fish
- Canned soups and stews
- Hygiene items

Donations can be delivered to the bins outside the SRC, in the church vestibules, through the children at the Sunday Offertory or click the QR Code for online giving.

Thanksgiving Turkeys for Needy Families

Consider donating a turkey and brighten the holiday for a needy family. Bring your turkey to the Sharing Resource Center on Sunday mornings up until Thanksgiving or shop Jewel (Patriot and Lake St.) and make a donation for a turkey dinner at the register.

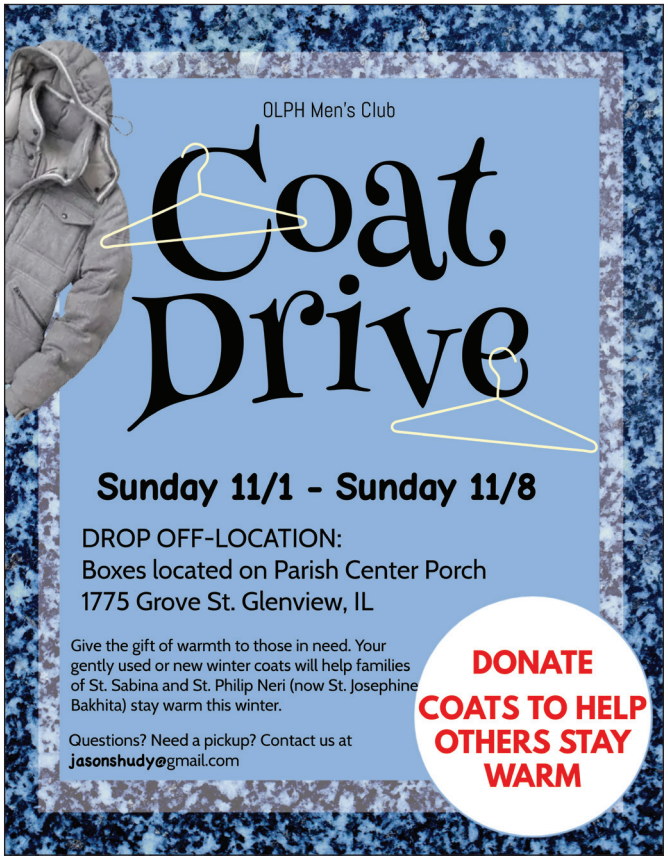

All donations will go toward turkeys for Sr. Paulanne's outreach and the OLPH Sharing effort.

Sharing Help Wanted - Communications Volunteer

The Sharing Ministry is looking for volunteers to build on our communications efforts and still others who might want to join a team whose mission is to increase our food donations.

Contact collinsjustbetty@gmail.com if interested in either of these areas.

South Vestibule Display Case

Please visit the beautiful display featuring Catholic Saints that has been set up in the church's South Vestibule display case. Thank you to parishioner Madelyn Tirpak for creating this wonderful presentation.

The South Vestibule display case is an excellent way for our various ministries and parish groups to educate our community on the great services they provide and projects they undertake. Not only is it a window into all the things that go on behind the scenes at OLPH, it can be used as a recruitment tool for ministries to get individuals to join them.

We will be setting up a monthly schedule for 2027. If your group or ministry would like to reserve the display case for a given month in 2027, please email tluc@olphglenview.org with your preferred month. We will review all the requests and honor them on a first come - first serve basis.

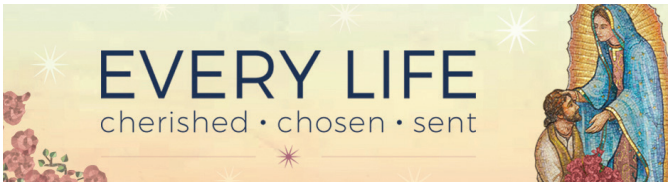

Thank you.

Respect Life Ministry

Please join us on the first Wednesday morning of every month, at 9:00am in the South Vestibule of the Church. Coffee & cookies served. Questions?

A Peek at our Week

8th Grade Commitment Ceremony

Our 8th graders took an important step in their faith journey as they committed to being disciples of Christ and preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Surrounded by their families, students participated in a beautiful, reflective ceremony in our candlelit church. It was a special evening for the Class of 2027, and we look forward to all that lies ahead for them!

Camp MacLean Memories Made!

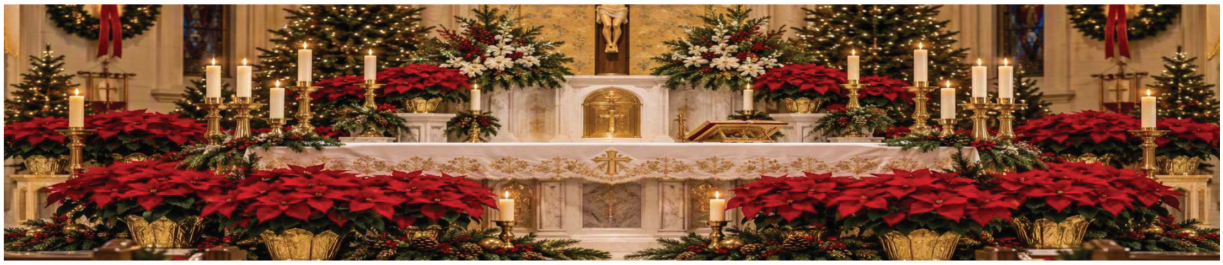

Our Class of 2029 enjoyed a wonderful three-day retreat at Camp MacLean in Burlington, WI! Our 6th graders tie-dyed T-shirts, hiked, tackled the climbing wall, and worked together to solve challenges along the way. They grew in independence, strengthened friendships, and bonded as a class. It's always a memorable experience and a core memory for our Warriors!
